5B. For every word in excess of 12 in ordinary telegrams, and for every 2 words in excess of 24 in letter-telegrams, the charge shall be 1d.

Urgent Telegrams.

5C. In respect of urgent telegrams the rates shall be as for ordinary telegrams, plus, in the case of each urgent telegram, an extra charge of 6d. irrespective of the number of words contained in the telegram or of the distance that the telegram requires to be transmitted.

Charges on Sundays and Departmental Holidays.

5D. On Sundays and departmental holidays the charges for ordinary, urgent, and collect telegrams shall be the same as on week-days.

General Rules for writing Telegrams.

10. Printed forms upon which telegrams should be written may be obtained at any telegraph-office on application; but all telegrams, whether written upon the prescribed form or upon any other form, are (subject to the provisions hereinafter stated) considered as presented for transmission under the several conditions contained in these regulations: Provided that telegram forms other than those supplied by the Government are first approved of by the Minister of Telegraphs. Books of telegram forms, interleaved with white forms for use with carbonic paper, may be purchased at the principal telegraph-offices at 9d. per book. One hundred forms, in duplicate, are contained in each book. Books of telegram forms not interleaved may be purchased at telegraph-offices at 5d. per book.

Replies may be prepaid.

27. The cost of a reply telegram may be prepaid. The charge for the reply shall be at the usual ordinary or urgent telegram rate and the minimum charge shall be for 12 words. When the sender of a telegram prepays the reply, a reply form, showing on the back the amount prepaid, shall be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to use it for any inland telegram at any time within six weeks. Should the form be not used, its value will be refunded, at any time within three months, upon application being made, accompanied by the form itself, to the Controller of Accounts, General Post Office.

27A. In all cases in which replies are prepaid the words "Reply paid," followed by the amount prepaid for the reply, shall be written on the forwarded message in the space for "Instructions."

28. The sender of a telegram to which a reply is expected should make sure that an address at which delivery of the reply may be effected is in the possession of the Department.

"Collect" Telegrams: Sender responsible for Transmission Charges.

29. Telegrams may be transmitted with the word "Collect" written thereon by the sender in the space for instructions, and in such case the value of the telegram, plus a special charge of 3d., shall be payable by the addressee; but, in the event of the Department being unable to collect such charges from the addressee, the sender shall be held responsible for the due payment thereof, and action may be taken as set out in Regulation 9 hereof for recovery of the amount.

29A. The sender of a "Collect" telegram may direct that delivery shall be conditional on the addressee first paying the charges. In such cases, the words "Delivery conditional" shall be inserted before the address, as well as in the instructions, and shall be charged for.

30. The sender of a "Collect" telegram shall, if requested so to do, lodge the cost of it. Any difference between the sum required and that lodged will be settled, or any refund will be made, upon delivery of the telegram.

Inland Multiple Address Telegrams.

31. A telegram (known as a "multiple" telegram) will be delivered at two or more addresses in the one city or town on prepayment of the ordinary telegram charges for the total number of words in the addresses, text, and signature, plus an additional charge of 3d. for each copy beyond the first, provided that the number of chargeable words in the text does not exceed 50. For telegrams containing more than 50 words in the text, the additional charge for each copy beyond the first shall be 3d. for each 50 words or fraction thereof. In no case, however, shall the charge for a number of multiple messages exceed the charge for a corresponding number of separate messages.

31A. "Urgent" multiple-address telegrams shall be accepted at the above tariff, plus a special charge of 6d. in respect of each address.

31B. All the addresses in a multiple telegram shall be in the same city or town and shall be written before the text. Telegrams addressed to different offices or those bearing a common text but presented as separate messages shall not be accepted at multiple rates. In multiple telegrams, each address shall be complete in itself; consequently the office of destination shall appear as many times as there are names of addressees.

31C. The number of addresses in a multiple telegram shall be indicated to the office of destination by the insertion of "T.M. (number of addresses)" in the "Instructions"; but this information shall be omitted from the message actually delivered, which shall show one address only, unless the sender has inserted and paid for the instruction "Communicate all addresses."

31D. Multiple telegrams shall not be sent "Collect."

Charges for Telegrams outside Ordinary Hours of Business.

38. Telegrams shall be accepted and transmitted from any to any telegraph or telephone office at any time outside the ordinary hours of business (provided the attention of the terminal office can be obtained) on prepayment of the following rates and fees:—

Where the Postmaster is resident on the premises:—

Reopening fee, 1s.; special delivery fee, 1s.; tariff, ordinary.

Where the Postmaster is not resident on the premises:—

Reopening fee, 2s. 6d.; special delivery fee, 1s.; tariff, ordinary.

When in attendance for press, testing, or departmental business, other than telegraphic:—

Reopening fee, nil; special delivery fee, 1s.; tariff, ordinary.

39. If more telegrams than one are handed in together by the same person, the reopening fee shall be charged on one telegram only. The special-delivery fee includes the charge for reopening the receiving office—that is to say, the office which receives the message from the forwarding office—and for effecting delivery of the message within the free delivery area.

40. Should the attendance of any officer be required beyond a period of twenty minutes, such additional attendance shall be paid for at the rate of 1s. for each twenty minutes or fraction thereof.

41. Charges for ferries, tolls, or for any extra cost incurred in delivery shall be paid by the sender at the time of presenting the telegram. The sender shall be liable also for short charges should it be subsequently found that the amount collected for carriage was insufficient.

Letter-telegrams (Inland).

83. (1) Subject to the conditions set out hereunder, letter-telegrams shall be accepted at any telegraph or telephone office for transmission within the Dominion.

(2) They must be written in plain English or Maori language. No code or cipher words will be permitted, but code addresses or code signatures will be permitted. Trade terms in general use, such as f.o.b., c.i.f., will be allowed. Figures will be permitted only in the address and signature. When required to be used in the text, numbers must be written in words. A telephone number may not be used as a portion of the address.

(3) They may not be sent as "Urgent," "Collect," or "Multiple" telegrams, and such instructions as "Repetition paid" will not be permitted; but "reply-paid" telegrams will be accepted.

(4) They may be accepted throughout the day up to the time of closing of either the office of origin or the office of destination, whichever is the earlier. Should the delivery office be closed for the day, the name of an office that is still open may be added to the address and the message posted from the latter office.

(5) They may not be accepted on Sundays or departmental holidays.

(6) The charges for letter-telegrams shall be as prescribed in Regulations 5A and 5B.

(7) A letter-telegram will be delivered by post on the morning of the day following the day of lodgment, except that when the day of lodgment immediately precedes a Sunday or departmental holiday delivery will be made on the morning of the day following the Sunday or departmental holiday.
