GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this 11th day of November, 1935.

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. G. W. FORBES PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935, the Governor-General in Council, for the purpose of enabling the Dominion of New Zealand to fulfil its obligations under Article 16 of the Covenant of the League of Nations, may by Order in Council make all such regulations as he from time to time thinks necessary: And whereas it is considered necessary to make special regulations in relation to the importation of goods into New Zealand:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the League of Nations Sanctions (Enforcement in New Zealand) Act, 1935, doth hereby make the following regulations, and with the like advice and consent doth hereby declare that the said regulations shall come into force on the eighteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the League of Nations Sanctions (Importation of Goods) Regulations, 1935.
2. The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, prohibit the importation into New Zealand of any goods being goods the prohibition of the importation of which is in his opinion necessary in fulfilment of the obligations of the Dominion of New Zealand as a member of the League of Nations, and may by the same or any subsequent Order require the importer of any goods whatsoever to produce to the Collector of Customs at the port of importation in New Zealand such particulars as in his discretion the Governor-General may deem necessary as to—

- (a) The country of origin of the goods; or
- (b) The proportion of the value of the goods at the time when they left the country from which they were exported to New Zealand that is attributable to processes undergone in that country or in any other country or countries; or
- (c) The payment for the goods; or
- (d) Any other matter concerning the goods.

3. The powers hereinbefore conferred upon the Governor-General in Council shall extend to authorize the prohibition of the importation of goods either generally or from any specified place or person and either absolutely or so as to allow of the importation of the goods subject to any conditions or restrictions.

4. All the provisions of the Customs Acts with respect to prohibited imports (except the provisions as to monetary penalties contained in subsection (5) of section 46 of the Customs Act, 1913) shall extend and apply with respect to goods the importation of which is prohibited under these regulations.

5. If a Collector of Customs has reason to believe or suspect that any goods imported into New Zealand are goods the importation of which is prohibited under these regulations he shall detain those goods.

6. (1) The importer of any goods for which payment has not been made (being goods of a class in respect of which any restrictions on importation are in force under these regulations) shall pay the purchase-price of those goods into a special account to be kept at the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, the moneys in such account to be dealt with in such manner as the Minister of Finance may direct.

(2) Where goods of any such class have been imported into New Zealand before any restrictions upon the importation of those goods have been imposed in accordance with these regulations (whether such goods have been imported before or are imported after the commencement of these regulations) and payment for those goods has not been made or has not been fully made, all moneys payable by the importer in respect of those goods shall be paid into the said account and not otherwise.

7. If any dispute arises as to the purchase-price of any goods imported into New Zealand or as to the date of payment thereof the Comptroller of Customs may determine the matter and his decision shall be final.

8. The terms "Comptroller of Customs", "Collector of Customs", and "importer" as used in these regulations have the same meaning as in the Customs Act, 1913.
