SCHEDULE.

Regulations for the Government and Payment of the New Zealand Division of the Royal Navy, 1929.

Article 237: Cancel, and substitute—

237. Tropical Clothing, Sun Helmets, and White Uniform Clothing.—A gratuitous issue of three tropical shirts (for Chief Petty Officers) or three tropical singlets (for other ratings) and three pairs of drill shorts is to be made to each permanent rating on first being drafted to a seagoing ship. A similar issue is to be made to loan ratings on joining a seagoing ship, provided that an issue at New Zealand Government expense has not already been made. Subsequent issues of tropical clothing are to be made on the same scale after three years' actual service in seagoing ships of the New Zealand Division, or in other ships employed in the tropics, provided that the rating has not less than one year to serve in the New Zealand Division.

2. Sun helmets (and covers) are to be issued gratuitously to all ratings under the same conditions as for tropical clothing.

3. The gratuitous issue of three khaki singlets and two pairs of khaki shorts to Royal Marine ranks is to be made under the same conditions as for seamen.

4. The additional articles of white uniform clothing permitted to be issued gratuitously on foreign stations, as shown in the Uniform Regulations, are to be issued gratuitously under the same conditions of service as for tropical clothing. Similar issues are to be made to ratings on change of uniform from Class II to Class I or Class III under the same conditions. If more convenient, the value of the articles at current issuing prices may be credited in lieu of an issue in kind, provided that the men actually equip themselves with the additional articles.

5. Gratuitous issues are to be supported by a certified nominal list, forwarded as an enclosure to the clothing account. The dates on which the clothing is issued are to be shown on the list, together with details of the articles supplied.

6. The last dates of gratuitous issues of tropical clothing and sun helmets, and of white uniform clothing, respectively, are to be noted in the "Remarks" column of the ledger, thus—"T. C. date"; "W.U.C. date"—the notations being carried forward from quarter to quarter and shown on transfer lists.

7. Where, in exceptional cases, the value of white uniform clothing is credited instead of an issue in kind, such credit is to appear in the ledger and is not to be made through the Cash Account. In all such cases a certificate is to accompany the ledger as an enclosure certifying that the men who have received credit have actually equipped themselves with the articles of white uniform clothing for which credit has been given.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, 29th March, 1926.]

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and the President of the Czechoslovak Republic, being desirous to facilitate in their respective territories legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters and also non-contentious matters, which are being dealt with by the courts or authorities of the other State, have decided to conclude a convention for this purpose, and have accordingly nominated as their plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India:—

Sir William George Tyrrell, K.C.M.G., K.C.V.O., C.B.,

Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs;

The President of the Czechoslovak Republic:—

Dr. Emil Spira, Head of Department in the Ministry of Justice;

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

I.—PRELIMINARY.Article 1.

This convention applies only to civil and commercial matters and also to non-contentious matters, including trusteeship, guardianship, administration and probate, which are being dealt with by the courts or authorities of either State.

II.—SERVICE OF JUDICIAL AND EXTRA-JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS.Article 2.

When judicial or extra-judicial documents drawn up in one of the contracting States are to be served in the territory of the other, such documents may, at the option of the party interested, be transmitted to the recipients in either of the ways provided in articles 3, 5, and 6.

Article 3.

(1) The request for service by the court or authority of the other State is addressed—

In England, by the Czechoslovak consul in London to the senior master of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England;

In the Czechoslovak Republic, by the British consul to the Ministry of Justice of the Czechoslovak Republic at Prague.

(3) Service shall be effected by the competent court or authority of the State applied to. Such court or authority, except in the cases provided for in paragraph (4) of this article may limit its action to effecting service by the transmission of the document to the recipient if he is willing to accept it.

(4) If the document to be served is drawn up in the State (official) language of the State applied to, or is accompanied by a translation in such language, the court or authority applied to shall serve the document, in accordance with such wish as may be expressed in the request, either in the manner prescribed by its laws for the service of similar documents, or in a special form which is not incompatible with such law. Should such wish not be expressed, the court or authority applied to will endeavour to effect service as provided in paragraph (3).

The translation provided for in the preceding paragraph shall be certified as correct by a diplomatic or consular agent of the State making the request or by an official or sworn translator of one or other of the two States.

(5) The request for service can only be refused if the State in whose territory it is to be effected considers it such as to compromise its sovereignty or safety.

(6) Proof of service shall be furnished by a certificate from the court or authority of the State applied to, setting forth the fact, the manner and the date of such service.

The document to be served shall be forwarded in duplicate, and the certificate shall appear on one of the copies, or be attached to it.

Article 4.

No fees of any description shall be payable by one State to the other in respect of the service under article 3.

Nevertheless the State making the request must pay to the State applied to any charges which are payable under the local law to the persons employed to effect service, or which were incurred by effecting service in a special form. These charges are calculated in accordance with the tariff in force for nationals of the State applied to. Repayment of these charges will be claimed by the court or authority applied to from the court or authority which made the request, through the consular authority, when transmitting to the latter the certificate provided for in article 3 (6).

Article 5.

The document to be served may also be delivered to the recipient, whatever his nationality, in person, without the intervention of the courts or authorities of the State in whose territory service is to be effected:—

(a) By the diplomatic or consular agents of the State making the request; or

(b) As far as this is not opposed to the law of the State making the request, by a solicitor (advokát) or notary of the other State appointed by the courts or authorities of the State making the request, or by the party on whose application the document was issued, either generally or in any particular case.

In order that the document may be served in accordance with this article, it must be drawn up in the State (official) language of the State in whose territory service is to be effected, or must be accompanied by a translation in such language, unless the recipient is a national of the State making the request.

Article 6.

Service of documents may also be effected by post in cases where this method is permitted by the law of the State in which the document is issued.

III.—TAKING OF EVIDENCE.

Article 7.

When a court or authority in one of the contracting States orders that evidence is to be taken in the territory of the other State, this may be done in any one of the ways prescribed in articles 8, 10, and 11.

Article 8.

(1) The court or authority of one contracting State may, in accordance with the provisions of its law, address itself by means of a "commission rogatoire" to the competent court or authority of the other contracting State, requesting it to take the evidence within its jurisdiction.

(2) The "commission rogatoire" shall be drawn up in the State (official) language of the State applied to, or be accompanied by a translation in such language, certified as correct by a diplomatic or consular officer of the State making the request, or by an official or sworn translator of one of the two States. If it is not accompanied by such a translation, one may be made by the State applied to if the other State so requests.

(3) The "commission rogatoire" shall be transmitted—

In England, by the Czechoslovak consul in London to the senior master of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England; In the Czechoslovak Republic, by the British consul to the Ministry of Justice of the Czechoslovak Republic at Prague.

(4) It shall be incumbent upon the court or authority to whom the "commission rogatoire" is addressed to give effect to it, if necessary, by the use of the same compulsory measures as in the execution of a commission emanating from the courts or authorities of its own State.

(5) The consular authority of the State making the request will, if he so desires, be informed of the date and place when and where the proceedings will take place, in order that the interested parties may be able to be present.

(6) The execution of the "commission rogatoire" can only be refused—

(a) If the authenticity of the document is not established;

(b) If in the State applied to the execution of the "commission rogatoire" does not fall within the functions of the courts or authorities;

(c) If the State applied to considers it such as to affect its sovereignty or safety.

(7) In case the court or authority applied to is not competent, the "commission rogatoire" will be forwarded without any further request to the competent court or authority of the State applied to.

(8) In every instance where the "commission rogatoire" is not executed by the court or authority applied to, the latter will at once inform the consular authority of the State making the request, stating the grounds on which the execution of the commission has been refused or has proved impossible, or the court or authority to whom the commission has been forwarded.

(9) The court or authority which executes the "commission rogatoire" will apply, so far as the procedure to be followed is concerned, the law of its own country.

Nevertheless, an application by the court or authority making the request that some special procedure may be followed shall be acceded to, provided that such procedure is not incompatible with the law of the State applied to.

Article 9.

No fees of any description shall be demanded by the courts or authorities of one State from the other in respect of the execution of "commissions rogatoires."

Nevertheless, the State making the request shall repay to the State applied to any charges and expenses payable to witnesses, experts, interpreters, or translators, the costs of obtaining the attendance of witnesses who have not appeared voluntarily, expenses incurred by the adoption of a special procedure in accordance with article 8 (9), and the charges payable to any person whom the court or authority applied to may have deputed to act in cases where its law permits this to be done.

The repayment of these expenses is to be claimed by the court or authority applied to from the court or authority making the request, through the consular authority, when transmitting to the latter the documents establishing the execution of the "commission rogatoire." These charges are calculated in accordance with the tariff in force for nationals of the State applied to.

Article 10.

(1) Further, without the intervention of the courts or authorities of the State in whose territory the evidence is to be taken, this may be done by a consular agent of the other State.

(2) The agent referred to in paragraph (1) may request the parties or any other individual to appear as a witness, or to give expert evidence, or to produce any document or proof, and he may administer the oath to the parties, witnesses, or experts, but he has no compulsory powers.

(3) Summonses to appear issued in accordance with paragraph (2) must be drawn up in the State (official) language of the State where the evidence is to be taken or accompanied by a translation into such language, unless the recipient is a national of the State making the request.

(4) The evidence may be taken in accordance with the procedure laid down by the law of the State in which the evidence is to be used, and the parties will have the right to be represented by barristers or solicitors of that State.

Article 11.

(1) The competent court or authority of the State applied to may also itself be requested to cause the evidence to be taken by a consular agent of the State making the request.

(2) In this case the court or authority applied to will take the necessary steps to secure the attendance of the parties, witnesses or experts and the production of documents or proofs, making use, if necessary, of the compulsory powers to which it is entitled.

(3) The agent referred to in paragraph (1) may administer the oath to any party, witness or expert who is willing to take it.

(4) The provisions of article 10 (4) are also applicable to proceedings under this article.

Article 12.

The fact that an attempt to take evidence by the method laid down in article 10 has failed owing to the refusal of any parties, witnesses or experts to appear or to give evidence, or to produce documents or proofs, does not preclude an application being subsequently made in accordance with articles 8 or 11.

IV.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Article 13.

Any difficulties which may arise in connection with the operation of this convention shall be settled through the diplomatic channel.

Article 14.

(1) The present convention, of which the English and Czechoslovak texts are equally authentic, shall come into force three months after the date on which ratifications are exchanged, and shall remain in force for three years after its coming into force. In case neither of the high contracting parties shall have given notice to the other six months before the expiration of the said period of his intention to terminate the convention, it shall remain in force until the expiration of six months from the day on which either of the high contracting parties shall have given such notice.

(2) This convention shall not apply to Scotland or Northern Ireland, nor to any of the dominions, colonies, possessions or protectorates of His Britannic Majesty, but His Britannic Majesty may at any time extend, by a simple notification, this convention to Scotland, Northern Ireland, or any such dominion, colony, possession or protectorate.

Such notification shall state the date on which such extension shall come into force, the authorities to whom judicial and extra-judicial acts and "commissions rogatoires" are to be transmitted, and the language in which communications to the authorities of the territory concerned and translations are to be made.

Either of the high contracting parties may, at any time after the expiry of three years from the coming into force of the extension of this convention to Scotland, Northern Ireland or any of His Britannic Majesty's dominions, colonies, possessions or protectorates, terminate such extension on giving six months' previous notice.

(3) The preceding stipulations relating to the extension of this convention to Scotland or Northern Ireland, or to any of the dominions, colonies, possessions or protectorates of His Britannic Majesty, shall also apply to any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Britannic Majesty.

In faith whereof the undersigned have signed the present convention and have affixed thereto their seals.

Article 3.

Article 7.

The present Convention, of which the English and Czechoslovak texts are equally authentic, shall be subject to ratification.

Ratifications shall be exchanged in London. The Convention shall come into force one month after the date on which ratifications are exchanged and shall remain in force for three years after the date of its coming into force. Article 8.

(1) This Convention shall not apply ipso facto to Scotland or Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, nor to any of the Colonies, Overseas Territories or Protectorates of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, nor to any territories under his suzerainty, nor to any mandated territories in respect of which the mandate is exercised by his Government in the United Kingdom, but His Majesty may at any time, while this Convention is in force under article 7 by a notification given through his representative at Prague, extend the operation of the Convention to any of the above-mentioned territories.

Article 9.

(1) The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, may at any time, while the present Convention is in force, either under article 7 or by virtue of any accession under this article, by a notification given through the diplomatic channel, accede to the present Convention in respect of any member of the British Commonwealth of Nations whose Government may desire that such accession should be effected, provided that no notification of accession may be given at any time when the President of the Czechoslovak Republic has given notice of termination in respect of all the territories of His Majesty to which the Convention applies. Any such accession shall take effect one month after the date of its notification.

(2) After the expiry of three years from the date of the coming into force of any accession under paragraph (1) of this article, either of the High Contracting Parties may, by giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel, terminate the application of the Convention to any country in respect of which a notification of accession has been given. The termination of the Convention under article 7 shall not affect its application to any such country.

(3) Any notification of accession under paragraph (1) of this article may include any dependency or mandated territory administered by the Government of the country in respect of which such notification of accession is given; and any notice of termination in respect of any such country under paragraph (2) shall apply to any dependency or mandated territory which was included in the notification of accession in respect of that country.
