NOTE.—The coldest March ever experienced in Wellington. Light hail fell on the afternoons of the 3rd and 29th.

NOTES ON THE WEATHER FOR MARCH, 1936.

General.—March was a cold month with several very stormy periods. Over much of the North Island there was a dearth of sunshine, and while the South had an ample amount its effects were largely offset by the cold winds. Though not nearly so much so as February, the month was a wet one in most districts, and there are few in which the soil is really dry. Vegetation is very green, but growth has not been vigorous and fruiting and flowering processes have been checked. Feed is abundant and stock are reported to be in good condition. Pastures are, however, rank and soft, and lambs still fail to fatten well. The management of pastures in the winter promises to be difficult and the effect of parasites is feared. The milk yield appears, on the whole, to be well maintained, though in Taranaki cold winds had a deleterious effect. Little progress has been made with the harvesting of the wheat crop, much of which is now in the stack. In Canterbury there was considerable sprouting of both standing and stooked wheat. The situation regarding root-crops varies considerably from district to district, growth being poor and pests numerous in some, while in others the reports are favourable. Supplies of feed for the winter, however, seem fairly well assured. A certain amount of haymaking still continued in the North Island. White butterflies are numerous in many places.

Rainfall.—Rainfall was again very heavy in the northern portion of the Auckland Peninsula. It was much above normal also in the Bay of Plenty, East Coast, south central regions, and the South Taranaki Bight. Elsewhere in the North Island it was below normal. In the South Island conditions were variable in western districts and about the main ranges generally, but elsewhere the month was a very wet one. Large areas of Canterbury had three times the average fall.

Temperature.—Temperatures were everywhere below normal. In the far North the departures were small, but they increased to the southward and were greater on the east coast than on the west. In Marlborough and the interior of Canterbury and Otago many places had mean temperatures upwards of 4° below the average for March. For the country as a whole it was one of the coldest Marches hitherto experienced. Frosts were not particularly numerous or severe.

Sunshine.—There was much less sunshine than usual in most of the North Island though the Bay of Plenty and Wellington fared well enough. In the South Island all reports indicate more than the normal amount, and in most cases the excess was considerable. It was too late in the year, however, for the sun to be sufficiently powerful to make up for the previous deficit, especially with the cold winds which ruled.

Storm Systems.—On the night of the 2nd to the 3rd a depression which had been shallow when it crossed the country deepened very much while to the eastward. In consequence, southerly gales blew and heavy rain fell over the South Island and across Cook Strait to the southern portion of the North. Snow fell on the ranges and a tornado was reported near Tauranga on the 3rd.

Following this, an intense anticyclone moved on to the Dominion and fine weather ruled for several days. On the night of the 6th to 7th, however, a depression moved from the north to the vicinity of East Cape and, though shallow, it caused very heavy rain between Hawke's Bay and East Cape and, in places, severe flooding.

Following the passage of an innocuous depression on the 7th, pressure again fell rapidly to the east of New Zealand on the 8th and continued low until the 11th. Gales from between west and south were experienced at many places, and heavy rain was almost general. The falls were particularly heavy in eastern districts of the South Island and widespread floods occurred; Canterbury and Banks Peninsula fared the worst. There were heavy snowfalls on the high levels.

Heavy rain again fell over the South Island in connection with a depression which moved on to the Dominion during the 20th and 21st. Though vigorous at first this depression lost energy when a cyclone moved down from the north and, keeping to the eastward, passed near Chatham Islands.

On the 25th a deep cyclone, which had first appeared off the Queensland coast on the 18th, passed Norfolk Island on the westward side and on the 26th was centred near Cape Maria van Diemen. Moving in a south-easterly direction it was centred off East Cape on the morning of the 27th and soon moved away. It was responsible for very severe gales and remarkably high tides from Auckland northwards, and much damage was done. Heavy rain was recorded over most of the North Island, but the amounts, nevertheless, were surprisingly small for so deep and slow-moving a cyclone.

From the 28th until the end of the month a westerly depression followed by a series of secondaries caused a second series of westerly or south-westerly gales which were severe in many places. On the 29th a tornado of unusual size for New Zealand did considerable damage at Greymouth. There were heavy rains in western districts of the South Island.

Terms of Payment.

A marked cheque for one-tenth of the amount tendered, together with £1 ls. license fee, must accompany the tender, and the balance be paid in sixteen equal quarterly instalments, the first falling due nine months after the date of sale unless cutting commences at an earlier date.

Tributary Timber.

A block of about 2,000,000 ft. board measurement tributary timber will be offered to the successful tenderer at an appropriate time, at an upset price to be fixed by the Service; and, if not accepted, the tributary timber will then be offered for sale by public competition in the usual way.

Terms and Conditions.

1. All instalment-payments shall be secured by "on demand" promissory notes made and endorsed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of State Forests, and interest at the rate of 1 per cent. per annum in excess of current bank overdraft rates will be charged on all notes overdue from the date of maturity to the date of payment.

2. The right to cut and remove the timber will be sold in accordance with the provisions of the Forests Act, 1921-22, the regulations in force thereunder, and these conditions.

3. The aforementioned qualities, quantities, and kinds as to the said timber shall be taken as sufficiently accurate for the purposes of this sale, and no contract for the purchase shall be voidable, nor shall the successful purchaser be entitled to any abatement in price, by reason of the said timber being of less quantity, quality, or kind as stated herein or in any advertisement having reference to the said timber.

4. A return giving the number of logs cut of each species and their contents must be made quarterly by the licensee on the last days of March, June, September, and December, respectively, in each year. A return must also be made on the same dates showing the output of sawn timber of each species. These returns may be ascertained and verified by inspection of the books of the mill, or by such other means as the Conservator may require, and for this purpose the accounts and books shall be open to the inspection of the Conservator, a Forest Ranger, or other duly authorized officer.

5. The attention of tenderers is drawn to the fact that the local controlling body may require the successful tenderer to pay any claims or charges which may be made by that body for the maintenance of the road over which the timber may be transported, and before a sawmill license is issued a letter indicating that satisfactory arrangements have been made in this connection must be produced to the undersigned.

6. Intending tenderers are expected to visit the locality and to satisfy themselves in every particular on all matters relative to the sale.

7. Each tenderer must state the total price that he is prepared to pay for the timber. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted, and the timber described is submitted for sale subject to the final acceptance of the tender by the Commissioner of State Forests.

8. The right is reserved to the Commissioner of State Forests to withdraw from sale any or all of the said timber either before or after the closing date for receipt of tenders.

9. If no tender is accepted for the timber herein mentioned it will remain open for application for three months from the date tenders close.

10. Tenders should be on the special form obtainable from any office of the State Forest Service, and should be enclosed in envelopes addressed "Conservator of Forests, Invercargill," and endorsed "Tender for Timber."
