4. (1) Every person already registered who is not wholly exempt from the registration levy, and who has not heretofore obtained a coupon-book, shall forthwith after the commencement of these regulations present his certificate of registration at a money-order office, and shall thereupon receive a coupon-book.

(2) Every person who is hereafter registered under the Act and who is not wholly exempt from the registration levy shall, on completion of his registration, if such registration is effected at a money-order office, or, in any other case, on presentation of his certificate of registration at a money-order office, receive a coupon-book.

(3) Every person who, not being wholly exempt from the registration levy, fails to take the necessary steps to obtain a coupon-book on or before the last day on which payment without default may be made of the first instalment of the registration levy for which he is liable, commits an offence against these regulations, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of £1.

(4) On payment of the last instalment in relation to which a coupon is inserted in his book of coupons (or, in the case of a person claiming temporary exemption, on producing evidence of temporary exemption from liability for that instalment), every person required to be registered under the Act who is not wholly exempt from payment of the levy shall obtain a further book containing coupons relating to subsequent quarterly instalments.

(5) If the coupon-book issued to any person is lost or destroyed or becomes dilapidated, application for a new coupon-book in substitution therefor, accompanied by a fee of 1s., shall be made in writing to any authorized officer on a form to be provided for the purpose. Such application shall be forthwith transmitted to the Commissioner, and an acknowledgment of the application, signed by the authorized officer, shall be given to the applicant. For the period specified in such acknowledgment, being not more than one month, such acknowledgment shall be sufficient evidence for an employer or prospective employer that the applicant has complied with the provisions of the Act and these regulations.

If, on examination of the application, it appears that the application is in order, a new coupon-book shall be issued to the applicant.

Every new coupon-book issued in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall contain a statement, signed or initialled by an authorized officer, disclosing the date up to which instalments of the registration levy have been paid.

(2) The authorized officer shall thereupon detach and retain the relative coupon, and shall give a receipt on the counterfoil for the amount of the instalment and for any penalty that may have been paid in connection therewith.

(3) The requirement to complete the coupon by filling in particulars may be dispensed with in any case where by arrangement the collection and payment of instalments is made by an employer on behalf of persons employed by him. In any such case the employer shall furnish such particulars as may be required with reference to the several persons on whose behalf any payment is made by him as aforesaid.

(2) Every person who claims to be wholly exempt from the registration levy shall, if and whenever required so to do, make and furnish to any authorized officer a declaration of the grounds on which such exemption is claimed.

Any such list may be delivered to any Postmaster or other authorized officer for transmission to the Commissioner.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person to whom any such list relates, unless he is wholly exempt from the registration levy, or unless by reason of mental or physical infirmity or other sufficient cause it is not practicable for him so to do, to take steps to present his coupon-book to an authorized officer, or to cause the same to be so presented, within seven days after the last day on which payment may be made without default of any instalment of the registration levy, together with a certificate from a responsible officer of the institution or other documentary evidence in support of his claim for exemption.

(c) Other Persons.

9. To the extent hereinafter appearing, and until further provision in that behalf shall be made by subsequent Order in Council, the following persons and classes of persons are declared to be exempt from the payment of any quarterly instalment of levy under the said Act:—

- (a) Every person who on the due date of such quarterly instalment, and for at least the whole of the month on the first day of which such instalment is due, is through any physical or mental disability unable regularly to follow any occupation or calling for a livelihood, and whose income from all sources during the three months immediately preceding such due date has not exceeded an average sum of £2 per week.
- (b) Every person who is for the time being a member of a religious body whose rules forbid the possession by its members of any personal property except clothing and similar personal effects.

(c) Every person who on the due date of such quarterly instalment and during the whole of the month immediately preceding such due date has been registered as unemployed at an office of the Department of Labour, and has not received any income.

(d) Every person in respect of whom the Commissioner is satisfied that, by reason of sickness or poverty, it would produce undue hardship upon such person or his dependants to require such person to pay the said instalment.

10. Persons other than those referred to in Regulations 7, 8, and 9 who claim temporary exemption in respect of any instalment of the registration charge shall, not later than the last day for payment of that instalment without default, produce such evidence as the Commissioner may reasonably require in support of the claim for exemption.

ENTRIES IN COUPON-BOOKS IN CASES OF EXEMPTION.

11. On presentation to an authorized officer of the coupon-book of any person who claims exemption from liability for any instalment of the registration levy the authorized officer shall detach and retain the relative coupon, and shall mark the counterfoil with the word "Exempt," and shall enter thereon such other particulars as may be required for the completion of the counterfoil, as indicated thereon. If any authorized officer or the Commissioner has reason to believe that any coupon or counterfoil has been marked "Exempt" in error, he may require the coupon-book to be produced for amendment, and may, on such production, amend the counterfoil accordingly.

12. Every person entitled to total or partial exemption who desires to become liable for payment of employment tax shall notify the Minister his election in writing on a form to be supplied for the purpose by the Minister. If the consent of the Minister is given thereto, such person shall become liable as from a date approved by the Minister, being not in any case earlier than the due date of the instalment last past at the date of election.

EMPLOYMENT CHARGE ON SALARIES AND WAGES.

13. (1) Payment of the employment charge in respect of salary or wages may be denoted as follows:—

(a) By means of employment stamps of an appropriate amount affixed to a receipt for the salary or wages in respect of which the charge is payable, and cancelled by the payee at the time of receipt by writing his name or initials and the date of receipt across the stamps so as effectually to cancel the same.

(b) By means of employment stamps of an amount equivalent to the aggregate amount of the charge payable in respect of the total amount of the salaries and wages of all the persons whose names appear on any pay-sheet. Such aggregate amount shall be calculated by reference to the charge payable in respect of the salary or wages of each person separately, and every such charge shall be separately shown on the pay-sheet. In any case to which this paragraph applies, the employment stamps shall (where more than one sheet is used) be affixed to the last sheet of the pay-sheet, on which shall appear the total amount of the salaries and wages then paid or payable, and the total amount of the charge deducted therefrom. Such stamps shall be cancelled by the signatures or initials of not less than two responsible persons, together with the actual date of payment. No person shall be competent to cancel any such stamps who is not either the employer or his employee.

(c) In any case where the amount of the employment charge exceeds £5, or in any other case where payment of the employment charge in respect of any salaries or wages cannot conveniently be made by means of employment stamps, the amount of the charge may, in accordance with a prior arrangement made with an authorized officer, be paid by or on behalf of the employer to such authorized officer, who shall give a receipt for the same to be attached to the relative pay-sheet, the charge in respect of each person's salary or wages being shown separately thereon. Every payment under this paragraph shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by two responsible persons as to the total amount of the salaries and wages in respect of which the payment is made, and as to the total amount of the charge payable thereon. No person shall be competent to sign any such certificate who is not either the employer or his employee.

(d) The employment charge payable in respect of the salary or wages of persons employed by the General Government shall be paid in accordance with Treasury instructions to be issued in that behalf.

(2) All pay-sheets and receipts for wages and salaries to which the foregoing provisions of this regulation relate shall be retained by the employer for not less than five years after the date thereof, and shall during that period be open to inspection by any person having authority in accordance with these regulations to inspect books or other documents:

Provided that any such pay-sheets or receipts may, with the special permission of the Commissioner, be destroyed before the expiration of the said period if the Commissioner is satisfied that the employment charge has been duly paid.

(3) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this regulation shall apply with respect to—

- (a) The fees received by any person who, being engaged in business on his own account, and whether in partnership with any other person or not, is employed in a secretarial or professional capacity by any other person; or
- (b) The wages received by any person who, not being a resident of New Zealand, is employed in any capacity in any ship trading beyond New Zealand, notwithstanding that he may receive payment of wages while in New Zealand waters.

EMPLOYMENT STAMPS.

14. (1) The issue and custody of employment stamps shall be in accordance with regulations for the time being in force with respect to the issue and custody of revenue stamps under the Stamp Duties Act, 1923.

(2) If any employment stamps are destroyed, spoiled, or wasted by accident or error, other such stamps may be issued in exchange therefor, or the value of such stamps may be refunded out of the Employment Promotion Fund; in any such case the regulations for the time being in force under the Stamp Duties Act, 1923, in relation to revenue stamps that have been destroyed, spoiled, or wasted shall, with such modifications as may be necessary, be applicable.

(2) Every woman (including Native women) ordinarily resident in New Zealand and not exempt from liability in respect of the employment charge on income other than salary or wages, and whose income from any source (other than salary or wages) for the financial year ending on the 31st day of March, 1937, or the corresponding date in any financial year thereafter, is more than £50, shall furnish declarations as to her income in accordance with this regulation.

Substituted Balance Date.

16. (1) Where any person liable to make a declaration of income under Regulation 15 hereof satisfies the Commissioner that he is accustomed to prepare for a financial year ending on some date (hereinafter referred to as "the balance date") other than the 31st day of March, such accounts as may be necessary to show his annual income the provisions of this regulation shall apply:

Provided that a balance date once selected (whether before or after the coming into force of these regulations) shall not thereafter be varied except in a special case and with the express permission of the Commissioner.

(2) Such person may make a declaration of income derived for the financial year ending on the balance date, and such declaration shall be furnished within two months after the balance date.

(3) Where the balance date is any day between the 1st day of April and the 29th day of September (both dates inclusive), then the income of the declarant derived for the financial year ending on such balance date shall be deemed to be his income derived for the year ended on the last preceding 31st day of March.

(4) Where the balance date is the 30th day of September, then the income of the declarant derived for the financial year ending on such balance date shall, at the option of the declarant, be deemed to be his income derived for the year ended on the last preceding 31st day of March or for the year ending on the next succeeding 31st day of March:

Provided that an option once exercised (whether before or after the coming into force of these regulations) shall not thereafter be varied.

(5) Where the balance date is any day between the 1st day of October and the next succeeding 30th day of March (both dates inclusive), then the income of the declarant derived for the financial year ending on such balance date shall be deemed to be his income derived for the year ending on the next succeeding 31st day of March.

- (c) Where such accounts as may be necessary to show the annual income of any person have not been completely prepared by the 31st day of May in any year—then the person affected shall, on or before the 31st day of May, make a declaration as to his income derived (or, as the case may be, deemed pursuant to Regulation 16 hereof to be derived) for the year ended on the 31st day of March of the last preceding year.

(2) In any case to which the last preceding clause applies, instalments of the employment charge shall (subject to adjustment as provided in this regulation) be assessed, in the first place, on the amount of income disclosed in the declaration furnished pursuant to the last preceding clause hereof.

(3) Every person who has made a declaration pursuant to clause 1 of this regulation shall, on completion of his annual accounts, forthwith make the declaration as to income required by Regulation 15 hereof or Regulation 16 hereof, as the case may be.

(4) When in any of the cases set out in clause (1) of this regulation the further declaration required by Regulation 15 hereof or Regulation 16 hereof has been made, then if the amount of income disclosed in such last-mentioned declaration is in excess of the amount on which instalments of the employment charge were theretofore assessed—

- (a) The additional amount payable in respect of instalments of the employment charge which have theretofore fallen due shall be paid by the declarant forthwith;
- (b) Instalments of the employment charge subsequently falling due shall be increased so as to be payable according to the amount of income disclosed in the later declaration.

(5) If in any such case the amount of income disclosed in the later declaration is less than the amount on which instalments of the employment charge were theretofore assessed, then employment charge theretofore paid in excess shall be credited towards payments thereafter to be made or may be refunded on application in that behalf made by the declarant.

Further Information.

18. (1) For the purpose of the proper assessment of the employment charge in accordance with these regulations, every person required to make a declaration in accordance with the foregoing provisions of these regulations, or any other person, shall, upon a written request from an authorized officer, or from the Commissioner, or from any person authorized in writing by the Commissioner, furnish such further declaration or information as may in such written request be required.

moneys were paid or became payable, and the nature, purpose, and circumstances attending every payment or liability for payment, and every person to whom such a notice is given shall, within ten days thereafter, or within such longer period as the Commissioner may in such notice or any further notice think fit to specify, deliver to the Commissioner a declaration setting out the matters aforesaid.

(3) Any person authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner, and bearing evidence of such authority in writing under the hand of the Commissioner, may at all reasonable times inspect any wages-books or other documents with a view to determining whether or not any person has complied with the obligations of the Employment Promotion Act, 1936, and may require any person having the custody of any such books or documents to produce the same to him for such inspection.

(4) No person shall obstruct or hinder a person authorized as aforesaid in the exercise of his powers under the last preceding clause hereof.

(5) Every person having the custody of any such books or documents and being required to produce the same as aforesaid shall forthwith produce the same to the person authorized as aforesaid and so requiring.

(2) Every declaration made under these regulations as to the income of the declarant derived for the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1937, or derived for any financial year thereafter, shall, when delivered or forwarded to an authorized officer or to the Commissioner as hereinbefore provided, be accompanied by an amount of not less than one-fourth of the total amount of the charge payable in respect of the income disclosed in such declaration.

(3) If one-fourth only of such total amount of the charge is paid at the time when the declaration is made, the balance of such amount shall be payable by equal quarterly instalments on the first day of each of the months of August, November, and February thereafter :

Provided that with any quarterly instalment the person making such payment may, if he thinks fit, pay any one or more of the next instalments.

(4) Upon the receipt by an authorized officer or by the Commissioner of any payment of the employment charge under these regulations, he shall give a receipt for such payment in a form to be provided for the purpose.

(a) The amount of the declared income for the year ;

(b) The amount of the charge paid ;

(c) The due date and the amount of the next instalment—

and, unless such receipt is produced on the payment of such next instalment, the person liable therefor shall be required to make a new declaration as to his income for that year.

(6) If any instalment of the registration levy or employment charge on income other than salaries and wages under these regulations is paid in excess or is paid in error, an adjustment may be made at the time of any subsequent payment, or a refund of any amount that has been so paid in excess or in error may be paid out of the Employment Promotion Fund :

Provided that no adjustment or refund shall be made unless written application in that behalf is made to the Commissioner within three years after the end of the month on the first day of which the payment thereof became due (or would in the absence of error have become due).

(7) If any employment charge on salary or wages has (whether before or after the coming into operation of these regulations) been paid in error or in excess of the amount properly payable, the amount so paid in error or in excess may be deducted from any employment charge on salary or wages subsequently payable, or may be refunded from the Employment Promotion Fund if written application in that behalf is made to the Commissioner within three years after the date on which the payment became due (or would in the absence of error have become due).

IN pursuance of section 13 of the Engineers Registration Act, 1924, a certified copy of the names, qualifications, and addresses entered in the Register of Engineers, as at 31st March, 1936, is published for general information.

Under the heading of "Qualifications" is shown the particular clause of section 6 of the Act under which the applicant has been registered.

Section 6 of the Act is as follows:—

"6. (1) Every person shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be entitled to be registered under this Act as an engineer who—

"(a) Holds some recognized certificate as hereinafter defined, and who satisfies the Board that he has had not less than three years' practical experience in engineering; or

"(b) Has attained the age of twenty-five years, and has been engaged during a period of not less than six years before the commencement of this Act in the acquisition of professional knowledge or in the practice of engineering in a manner satisfactory to the Board, and who makes application for registration within twelve months after the commencement of this Act; or

"(c) Passes or has passed an examination or examinations approved by the Board, and who satisfies the Board that he has had not less than three years' practical experience in engineering.

"(2) For the purposes of this section the term 'recognized certificate' means a certificate, diploma, degree, or license granted by some university, college, or other public institution (whether in New Zealand or elsewhere), and which is recognized by the Board as furnishing sufficient evidence of the possession of the requisite knowledge and skill for the efficient practice of the profession of engineering."

In 1928 an amendment to the Act was passed.

Subsection (1) of section 2 of the amendment reads as follows:—

"2. (1) In addition to the classes of persons entitled to be registered as engineers under the principal Act any person may on payment of the prescribed fee be registered as an engineer who, being registered at the date of the passing of the principal Act as a licensed surveyor under the Surveyors' Institute and Board of Examiners Act, 1908, satisfies the Board that he had prior to the coming into operation of the principal Act substantial practical experience in engineering as part of his practice or employment, whether on his own account or otherwise howsoever, and who makes application for registration within six months after the passing of this Act."

C. E. RICHARDSON,

Chairman.

Christchurch, 27th May, 1936.

The Chairman and Members of the Christchurch Tramway Board, Christchurch.

DEAR SIRS,—

We, the Commission appointed by you in pursuance of the provisions of section 3 of the Christchurch Tramway District Act, 1920, and its amendment, as provided in section 2 of the Christchurch Tramway District Amendment Act, 1921, for the purpose of (vide section 4 of the principal Act and its amendments)—

- (a) Altering the boundaries of all or any of the subdistricts;
- (b) Naming or renaming any subdistrict;
- (c) Altering the number of members for any subdistrict;

but so that the total number of members of the Board shall not exceed nine (vide section 3 of the principal Act), do hereby furnish the following report.

By public advertisement due notice was given of the business of the Commission, and on the 25th instant an opportunity was offered for the submission of any evidence, information, or suggestions likely to be of value to the Commissioners.

Mr. Thomas Newburgh, Mayor of Sumner, appeared and advised that he had been deputed by a meeting of local bodies in and around Christchurch to attend before the Commission and convey the decisions and views of such meeting. He stated that it had been resolved unanimously that the meeting was fully in agreement with the principle of a Central Subdistrict having boundaries coterminous with those of the City of Christchurch, and represented by six members. He also reported the meeting's unanimous wish that two of the outer subdistricts should commence at South New Brighton and Sumner respectively, and that on no account should Sumner and any part of New Brighton be grouped in the same subdistrict.

These views were emphatically supported by other interested parties appearing before the Commission.

Messrs. W. S. MacGibbon and Seton F. Marshall, Chairman and Secretary of the Christchurch Citizens' Association respectively, appeared in support of a suggestion that certain portions of the more densely populated area of Riccarton and Fendalton should be incorporated in the Central Subdistrict, and the representation therefor increased to seven members.

After careful consideration of this proposal we were unable to act on the suggestion for the following reasons:—

- (1) The sound principle enunciated (with which interested parties had expressed their agreement), of making the boundaries of the city and the proposed Tramway Central Subdistrict coterminous would be destroyed.
- (2) The association's suggestion would exclude the outer areas of Riccarton and Fendalton districts and aggravate the difficulty of satisfactorily subdividing the remainder of the tramway district into two subdistricts.
- (3) Written advice received from the Riccarton Citizens' Association did not convey to the Commission any suggestion that Riccarton or any part of it should be incorporated in the proposed new Central Subdistrict.
- (4) The members of the Commission were of the opinion that until such time as Riccarton becomes part of Greater Christchurch it is not expedient to bring it within the limits of the Tramway Central Subdistrict.

Having decided upon the Central Subdistrict with boundaries coterminous with the Christchurch City boundaries, we directed our attention to the subdivision, into three parts, of the outer area of the Tramway District. The widespread nature of this outer area into at least four distinct units made it impossible to take into account any suggestion of community of interest. We considered the problem of dividing the outer area into three subdistricts having a more or less equal numerical representation. Owing to the relatively densely populated parts of Riccarton and Fendalton this could not be done without unreasonably extending the boundaries of two of the subdistricts. Having arrived at convenient and practicable boundaries for the Avon and Heathcote subdistricts, we considered it inadvisable to trench any further upon the compact Riccarton-Fendalton area just to obtain a levelling-out of the representation, any discrepancy in which being more apparent than real. We considered it more important to see than the users of the trams had within their subdistrict those lines in which they were directly interested.

From figures supplied by the Government Statistician the total population of the Tramway District was arrived at as follows:—

Old Central Subdistrict	65,541
Areas transferred to new Central Subdistrict	26,166
<hr/>
Population for new Central Subdistrict ..	91,707
Outer district	32,283

Total population for Tramway District .. 123,990

The following schedule sets out the names of the new subdistricts, the number of members, and the population in each.

	Members.	Population.	Representa- tion per Member.
Central Subdistrict—coloured red on plan	6	91,707	15,284
Avon Subdistrict—coloured yellow on plan	1	9,504	9,504
Heathcote Subdistrict—coloured green on plan	1	9,686	9,686
Riccarton Subdistrict—coloured blue on plan	1	12,093	12,093

NOTE.—The population in the mental hospitals is shown as 1,220. For comparative purposes we have reduced this by 1,000.

We were fortunate in having placed at our disposal the latest population figures as ascertained from the Census taken just a few weeks ago. We wish to place on record our appreciation of the assistance given by your General Manager, the Government Statistician, and other interested parties.

We submit that the subdivision conforms to the appropriate legislation and we do hereby declare that the Christchurch Tramway District, as defined in section 2 of the Act, has been divided by us into four subdistricts to be those set forth in the schedule and plan hereto. We also determine that the number of members of the Christchurch Tramway Board to represent each subdistrict respectively shall be as already set forth in this report.

Yours faithfully,

ALBERT FREEMAN
