Selwyn Plantation Regulations, 1937.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

PURSUANT to section seventy-seven of the Reserves and other Lands Disposal and Public Bodies Empowering Act, 1910, I, George Vere Arundell, Viscount Galway, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the regulations hereinafter set out.

REGULATIONS.

PRELIMINARY.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Selwyn Plantation Regulations, 1937.

2. These regulations shall be read together with and be deemed to form part of the Selwyn Plantation Regulations, 1931 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations").

3. These regulations shall come into force on the 29th day of July, 1937.

4. In these regulations—

"Business of the Board" includes attendance at meetings of the Board or any committee of members of the Board, but otherwise does not include any business other than business authorized by law to be performed by a member and transacted by such member pursuant to a resolution of the Board.

5. Nothing in these regulations shall apply to a member of the Board who is an officer of the Public Service.

6. Regulation (2) of the principal regulations is hereby amended by the addition, after the words "Commissioner," means the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Canterbury Land District," of the words, "or his Deputy."

7. Regulation 33 of the principal regulations is hereby revoked.

FEEES.

8. Except as provided by subclause (c) of Regulation 13 hereof, there shall be paid to each member for each day or part of a day on which he is engaged upon the business of the Board a fee of 10s.

LOCOMOTION EXPENSES AND ALLOWANCES.

9. Subject as hereinafter provided, there shall be paid to each member all locomotion-expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in attending to the business of the Board, including the provision of first-class accommodation by rail, tram, motor-vehicle, or other public conveyance.

10. Where a public conveyance is available such locomotion-expenses shall be computed according to the most direct route from the member's usual place of residence, save that if public conveyances following the most direct route are, having regard to the time or place of departure or arrival, substantially inconvenient for the use of the member, he may with the permission of the Chairman use a public conveyance following some other route.

11. (1) Where a public conveyance is not available for any part of the journey or is available only at a cost greater than the sum allowable under paragraph (b) of this regulation, there shall be paid to a member in respect of his transport for such part of the journey as aforesaid whichever of the two following sums is the less, namely:—

(a) Fares actually paid for cab or other private conveyance not belonging to a member; or

(b) An allowance for the use of the member's own horse or vehicle at a rate of 6d. per mile (counted each way), together with the actual cost of stabling or garage expenses not exceeding 5s. for each night that a horse or vehicle has to be kept away from the member's usual place of residence:

Provided that where more members than one share the same means of transport only one set of charges shall be allowed under this regulation.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation a public conveyance shall be deemed to be not available when no public conveyance is available except such as having regard to the time or place of departure or arrival are in the opinion of the Chairman substantially inconvenient for the use of the member.

12. An allowance equivalent to the expenses and allowances aforesaid shall be paid if in lieu of using a public conveyance or privately hired conveyance the member in fact elects to use any other means of transport.

LIVING EXPENSES AND ALLOWANCES.

13. (a) When his attendance on the business of the Board requires a member to absent himself from his usual place of residence continuously for a period of twenty-four hours or longer, there shall be paid to such member an allowance for living-expenses at the rate of £1 per day of twenty-four hours and a proportionate sum for any part of a day with a minimum of 10s. for every day (counted from midnight to midnight) in respect of which the allowance provided by this regulation is claimed for and paid.

(b) Such period shall be computed from and to the exact hours nearest to the times of departure from and return to the member's usual place of residence.

(c) In respect of any period for which the sum payable under this regulation is allowed, the fees payable under Regulation 8 hereof shall not be payable.

(d) The Board may with the sanction of the Controller and Auditor-General approve payment to any member in lieu of the payment set out in the foregoing provisions of this regulation a sum not exceeding the expenses actually and reasonably incurred and paid by that member, and such approval may be given either generally in respect of the expenses of any member or in respect of a particular occasion, and may be given either before or after the business of the Board is attended to which gives rise to the claim.

DOUBLE ALLOWANCES.

14. No locomotion expenses or allowances or living expenses or allowances shall be paid in respect of any occasion on which locomotion expenses or allowances or living expenses or allowances are paid to the member from any other person, body corporate, or public or administrative body:

Provided that nothing contained in this regulation shall prevent the Board from making or receiving payments to or from any such person or body by way of apportionment of expenses or allowances payable to any member by reason of his being engaged both upon the business of the Board and also upon the business of such person or body.

CERTIFICATE.

15. No payment to any member for fees or expenses under these regulations shall be made until such member has signed a claim setting out the particulars of the amounts payable and unless such claim is accompanied by a certificate signed by the member stating that on the days claimed for he was engaged on the business of the Board and incurred any expenses set out as such in the claim and that the claim is correct in all particulars, and further stating and undertaking that the member has not already been paid any sum and will not claim or accept any sum by or from any other person, body corporate, or public or administrative body in respect of the same locomotion expenses or allowances or living expenses or allowances or in respect of travelling or living expenses on the same occasion.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 22nd day of July, 1937.

H. G. R. MASON,
For Minister of Transport.

(TT. 10/70.)

Warrant of Appointment under Section 11 of the Transport Licensing Amendment Act, 1936.

TO THE HONOURABLE SIR FRANCIS VERNON FRAZER, of Wellington, Knight, LESLIE HARWOOD HESLOP, Esquire, of Wellington, Public Accountant, and SYDNEY SMITH MILLINGTON, Esquire, of Wellington, Civil Servant.

WHEREAS certain goods-services or portions thereof (hereinafter referred to as "the said services"), of which it is intended that particulars will from time to time be supplied by me to you, are in competition with or supplement the services provided by the New Zealand Government Railways:

And whereas it has been decided to negotiate for acquisition of the said services, and as a guide for this purpose it has been decided that the following considerations shall apply in such negotiations, namely:—

- (1) The Government will not pay anything for any monopoly value created as a result of the Transport Licensing Act, 1931:
- (2) With the above qualification, the Government gives the tribunal a free hand as to its recommendations regarding the proportion of the service and assets to be taken over in each case and the amount of compensation to be paid, and relies on it to deal fairly with the operators on the one hand while at the same time safeguarding the interests of the taxpayers on the other:
- (3) No operator will receive less than the present-day market value of land, buildings, vehicles, and other tangible assets used in the business and valued as a complete operating unit, plus a sum of not less than 20 per cent. of the value of the aforesaid tangible assets:

Now, therefore, I, Henry Greathead Rex Mason, acting for the Minister of Transport, do in terms of section 11 of the Transport Licensing Amendment Act, 1936, hereby appoint you the said Sir Francis Vernon Frazer, Leslie Harwood Heslop, and Sydney Smith Millington to make inquiries and report to me in respect of such goods-services or portion of a goods-service particulars of which are hereafter supplied by me to you your opinion as to what would comprise a fair and equitable basis of settlement as between the owner of such service and His Majesty the King, having view to the considerations aforesaid, and, in particular, as to what assets should in each case be acquired by His Majesty the King and what consideration should be given to the owner for the assets to be acquired:

And in so far as these presents have the effect of an appointment of you the persons aforesaid as a Commission of Inquiry, I hereby appoint you the said Sir Francis Vernon Frazer to be the Chairman of such Commission.

Dated at Wellington, this 23rd day of July, 1937.

H. G. R. MASON,
For Minister of Transport.

Land in North Auckland Land District for Selection on Optional Tenures.

North Auckland District Lands and Survey Office,
Auckland, 27th July, 1937.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned section is open for selection on optional tenures under the Land Act, 1924; and applications will be received at the North Auckland District Lands and Survey Office, Auckland, up to 4 o'clock p.m. on Monday, 16th August, 1937.

Applicants should appear personally for examination at the North Auckland District Lands and Survey Office, Auckland, on Wednesday, 18th August, 1937, at 10.30 o'clock a.m., but if any applicant is unable to attend he may be examined by any other Land Board or by any Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Applicants are required to produce for inspection when examined documentary evidence of their financial position, such as bank pass-books, certificates or letters of credit from managers of banks, financial institutions, or mercantile firms, or from private persons or parents undertaking to give financial assistance. Persons undertaking to assist financially should state to what extent they are prepared to do so and supply guarantees of their own financial position.

The ballot will be held immediately upon conclusion of the examination of applicants, and the successful applicant is required to pay immediately at conclusion of ballot a deposit comprising the first half-year's rent, broken-period rent, lease and mortgage fees, and deposit on account of improvement loading.

SCHEDULE.

STATE FOREST SERVICE NOTICES.

Milling-timber for Sale by Public Tender.

State Forest Service,
Rotorua, 27th July, 1937.

NOTICE is hereby given that written tenders for the purchase of the undermentioned milling-timber will close at the office of the State Forest Service, Rotorua, at 4 o'clock p.m. on Friday, the 20th day of August, 1937.

SCHEDULE.

ROTORUA FOREST-CONSERVATION REGION.—AUCKLAND LAND DISTRICT.

ALL the milling-timber on that area containing 423 acres, more or less, being part Block VI, Rotoma Survey District (Provisional State Forest No. 32), situated about twenty-eight miles by road from Rotorua.

The total estimated quantity of timber in cubic feet is 153,056, or in board feet 1,052,900, made up as follows:—

Species.	Cubic Feet.	Board Feet.
Rimu	137,783	955,730
Miro	1,346	8,900
Mangeao	5,038	31,660
Tanekaha	1,235	7,990
Tawa (portion only)	7,654	48,620
	153,056	1,052,900

Upset price: £1,456.

Term of license: Eighteen months.

Terms of Payment.

A marked cheque for one-fourth of the amount tendered, together with £1 ls. license fee, must accompany the tender, and the balance paid in four quarterly instalments, the first falling due three months after the date of the sale and the others at quarterly intervals thereafter.

Terms and Conditions.

1. All instalment-payments shall be secured by "on demand" promissory notes made and endorsed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of State Forests, and interest at the rate of 1 per cent. per annum in excess of current bank overdraft rates will be charged on all notes overdue from the date of maturity to the date of payment.

2. The right to cut and remove the timber will be sold in accordance with the provisions of the Forests Act, 1921-22, the regulations in force thereunder, and these conditions.

3. The aforementioned qualities, quantities, and kinds as to the said timber shall be taken as sufficiently accurate for the purposes of this sale, and no contract for the purchase shall be voidable, nor shall the successful purchaser be entitled to any abatement in price, by reason of the said timber being of less quantity, quality, or kind as stated herein or in any advertisement having reference to the said timber.

4. The attention of all tenderers is drawn to the fact that the local controlling body may require the successful tenderer to pay any claims or charges which may be made by that body for the maintenance of the road over which the timber may be transported, and before a sawmill license is issued a letter indicating that satisfactory arrangements have been made in this connection must be produced to the undersigned.

5. A return giving the number of logs cut of each species and their contents must be made quarterly by the licensee on the last days of March, June, September, and December respectively in each year. A return must also be made on the same dates showing the output of sawn timber of each species. These returns may be ascertained and verified by inspection of the books of the mill, or by such other means as the Conservator may require, and for this purpose the accounts and books shall be open to the inspection of the Conservator, a Forest Ranger, or other duly authorized officer.

6. Intending tenderers are expected to visit the locality and to satisfy themselves in every particular on all matters relative to the sale.

7. Each tenderer must state the total price that he is prepared to pay for the timber. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted, and the timber described is submitted for sale subject to the final acceptance of the tender by the Commissioner of State Forests.

8. The right is reserved to the Commissioner of State Forests to withdraw from sale any or all of the said timber either before or after the closing date for receipt of tenders.

9. If no tender is accepted for the timber herein mentioned it will remain open for application at the upset price for three months from the closing date of tenders.

10. Tenders should be on the special form obtainable from any office of the State Forest Service, and should be enclosed in envelopes addressed "Conservator of Forests, Rotorua," and endorsed "Tender for Timber."

The conditions which will be inserted in the license to be issued to the purchaser and further particulars may be obtained on application to the undersigned or to the Director of Forestry, Wellington.

W. T. MORRISON, Conservator of Forests.

These returns may be ascertained and verified by inspection of the books of the mill, or by such other means as the Conservator may require, and for this purpose the accounts and books shall be open to the inspection of the Conservator, a Forest Ranger, or other duly authorized officer.

5. The attention of all tenderers is drawn to the fact that the local controlling body may require the successful tenderer to pay any claims or charges which may be made by that body for the maintenance of the road over which the timber may be transported, and before a sawmill license is issued a letter indicating that satisfactory arrangements have been made in this connection must be produced to the undersigned.

6. Intending tenderers are expected to visit the locality and to satisfy themselves in every particular on all matters relative to the sale.

7. Each tenderer must state the total price that he is prepared to pay for the timber. The highest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted, and the timber described is submitted for sale subject to the final acceptance of the tender by the Commissioner of State Forests.

8. The right is reserved to the Commissioner of State Forests to withdraw from sale any or all of the said timber either before or after the closing date for receipt of tenders.

9. If no tender is accepted for the timber herein mentioned it will remain open for application for three months from the date tenders close.

10. Tenders should be on the special form obtainable from any office of the State Forest Service, and should be enclosed in envelopes addressed "Conservator of Forests, Nelson," and endorsed "Tender for Timber."

The conditions, which will be inserted in the license to be issued to the purchaser, and further particulars may be obtained on application to the undersigned or to the Director of Forestry, Wellington.

F. W. FOSTER, Conservator of Forests.
