The Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939.

GALWAY, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 6th day of September, 1939.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

PURSUANT to the Public Safety Conservation Act, 1932, and to a Proclamation of Emergency now in force under that Act, and to section 47 of the Customs Act, 1913, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Export Prohibition Emergency Regulations 1939.

2. No person shall export any goods without the permission in writing of the Minister of Customs.

3. The Minister may grant permission for the export of any goods or goods of any class either generally or to any country or countries or to any person or persons, and such permission may be subject to any conditions he may in his discretion impose.

4. Any person desiring to export goods shall, at least ten days prior to the date of intended shipment, apply in writing to the Collector of Customs at the port at which the goods are proposed to be placed on board the exporting vessel for permission to export such goods. The applicant shall furnish the following particulars:—

- (a) Description, quantity, and value of goods:
- (b) Port of intended shipment:
- (c) Name of intended exporting vessel:
- (d) Approximate intended date of shipment:
- (e) Ultimate destination of goods:
- (f) Name and address of consignee:
- (g) Any other particulars that may be required by the Collector.

The Minister may, in his discretion, dispense with all or any of the requirements of this clause.

5. Except with the permission of the Collector, entry for export of any goods for the export of which permission is granted shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 69 of the Customs Act, 1913, or in any other Act, be made at the Customhouse at the port of loading prior to shipment of the goods on the exporting vessel.

6. The Minister may delegate to the Comptroller of Customs or to a Collector of Customs authority to entertain any application for permission to export goods and to grant or withhold any permission that the Minister is empowered by these regulations to grant or withhold, and any permission given by the Comptroller or by a Collector, in the name of the Minister or in his own name, and the conditions thereof, shall for the purposes of these regulations be as effective as if given by the Minister in person.

7. (a) These regulations shall apply with respect to the export of all goods, notwithstanding that a license or other authority for the export of such goods may be in force under the Customs Acts or any other Act or under any regulations other than these regulations.

(b) The granting of permission to export any goods under these regulations shall not absolve any person from the obligation to comply with the requirements of any Act or of any other regulations with respect to the export of such goods.

8. These regulations shall come into force on the day following notification in the Gazette of the making thereof.

C. A. JEFFERY,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
