NEW ZEALAND ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE AND ROYAL NAVAL VOLUNTEER RESERVE OFFICERS.—CONFIRMATION AND PROMOTION IN TIME OF WAR.

The rules for promotion and confirmation of New Zealand Reserve Officers in time of war have been revised, and are issued herewith for information.

2. The names of officers who are eligible for confirmation or promotion should be reported to the Naval Board, certifying the dates on which each of the requirements has been satisfied.

3. The Naval Watchkeeping Certificate should be appropriate to the particular type of craft in which an officer is serving. Commanding Officers should note on the certificate the type of vessel for which it has been granted. A copy of this certificate is to be sent with the officer, if he is appointed to another ship. Commanding Officers should add to this certificate additional qualifications as they are earned. Where officers have not had an opportunity of qualifying for a Naval Watchkeeping Certificate owing to the exigencies of the service, the requirement may be dispensed with if they are certified by their Commanding Officers as competent to carry out, in an efficient manner, the duties upon which they are employed. In such cases, officers without Watchkeeping Certificates will be promoted to Acting Lieutenant only.

4. In the case of officers borne in H.M.S. "Philomel" for duties outside "Philomel," the award is to be made by the Commanding Officer, H.M.S. "Philomel," on the representation and recommendation of—

- (a) The Senior Officer, New Zealand Minesweeping Flotilla; or
- (b) The Commanding Officer concerned.

5. Notwithstanding this Navy Order, officers are not entitled to count for promotion any time served in the rank of Probationary Sub-Lieutenant or Sub-Lieutenant below the age of twenty-one.

6. In the appended tables, columns (i) and (ii) are a reprint of the peace-time rules for confirmation or promotion of permanent Reserve Officers, given in Reserves Regulations (New Zealand); column (iii) contains the rules for confirmation or promotion of all Reserve Officers during war. Officers of the permanent Reserves may qualify for confirmation or promotion under either the peace-time or war-time rules, whichever is the more advantageous, but temporary officers may only qualify under the war-time rules.

7. The Regulations promulgated in this Navy Order are not retrospective. Promotions of Reserve Officers dated prior to 8th May, 1940, are governed by Regulations for the Government of the Royal Naval Reserves (New Zealand).

8. A notation "see Navy Order 320," is to be inserted in Reserves Regulations (New Zealand) Part I against Articles 17, 21, 63, 64, 68, 97, 99, 118, 123, 124, 142.
