Varying the Determinations in respect of the Waiapu County Council's Loan of £8,000.

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 1st day of October, 1941.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council made on the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, and subject to the determinations as to borrowing and repayment therein set out, consent was given to the raising in New Zealand by the Waiapu County Council (hereinafter called "the said local authority") of a loan of eight thousand pounds (£8,000) to be known as "Housing Loan, 1941" (hereinafter called "the said loan"):

And whereas the authority conferred by the said Order in Council has not yet been exercised and it is expedient to vary certain of the determinations aforesaid in respect of the said loan:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by section eleven of the Local Government Loans Board Act, 1926, as set out in section twenty-nine of the Finance Act, 1932 (No. 2), and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, doth hereby vary the determinations in respect of the said loan by prescribing as follows:—

(1) In lieu of a rate of interest not exceeding four pounds (£4) per centum per annum, as specified in clause two of the said Order in Council, the rate of interest that may be paid in respect of the said loan shall be such as shall not produce to the lender or lenders a rate exceeding three pounds twelve shillings and sixpence (£3 12s. 6d.) per centum per annum.

(2) In lieu of no amount being payable for brokerage, underwriting, and procuracy fees in respect of the raising of the said loan or any part thereof, as specified in clause five of the said Order in Council, a rate may be payable not exceeding one half per centum of any amount raised.

(3) The said local authority may contract that upon default being made in payment of any instalment specified in clause three of the said Order in Council, the principal moneys represented by any instalment to be subsequently due shall, at the option of the holder or holders for the time being of the debenture or debentures representing such instalment or instalments, be deemed to be immediately payable with interest thereon as specified in clause one above pending payment.

By-laws of the Takitimu District Maori Council, under the Maori Councils Act, 1900, and the Health Act, 1920, approved.

Native Minister's Office,
Wellington, 29th September, 1941.

IT is hereby notified that His Excellency the Governor-General has been pleased to approve of the following by-laws made by the Maori Council of the Takitimu Maori District, under the provisions of section 16 of the Maori Councils Act, 1900.

H. G. R. MASON,
For the Native Minister.

Approved—

C. L. N. NEWALL, Governor-General.

THE MAORI COUNCIL OF THE TAKITIMU MAORI DISTRICT.

BY-LAWS.

THE Maori Council of the Takitimu Maori District, constituted under the Maori Councils Act, 1900, and its amendments, and the Health Act, 1920, hereby makes the following by-laws, such by-laws to come into operation upon approval thereof by the Governor-General and the publication of the same in the Gazette.

INTERPRETATION.

In these by-laws, except where inconsistent with the context or when otherwise expressly provided, the following expressions shall have the meanings attached thereto:—

- “The said Acts” means the Maori Councils Act, 1900, and its amendments, and the Health Act, 1920;
- “The Council” means the Maori Council of the Takitimu Maori District constituted under the said Acts;
- “Committee” or “Village Committee” means the Village Committee (Komiti Marae) of a Maori kainga, village, or pa appointed by the Maori Council under the provisions of the said Acts;
- “District” means the Takitimu Maori District proclaimed by the Governor-General under the provisions of the said Acts;
- “Native Township” means a township constituted under the Native Townships Act, 1910;
- “Prescribed” means prescribed by rules or regulations made under the said Acts or by these by-laws.

A.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. Upon the death of any Maori the particulars required to be registered concerning such death shall be furnished to the nearest Registrar of Births and Deaths of Maoris within two weeks after the date of death, and in accordance with Part IV of the regulations providing for the registration of Births and Deaths of Maoris by the persons on whom this responsibility is laid by these regulations.

Failure to comply shall render the offender liable for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding £2.

2. In every case of death, where the deceased has not been attended by a qualified practitioner or by a district health nurse, the committee shall investigate the circumstances surrounding such death with regard to the nature of illness, duration, treatment, and names of persons who treated or were in attendance on deceased, and report the result of this investigation to the Registrar of Births and Deaths of Maoris.

3. Human corpses shall be buried, if the death occurs between the 15th day of March and the 15th day of September (both days inclusive) in any year, within four days after death; and if the death occurs between the 16th day of September and the 14th day of March of the following year (both days inclusive), within three days after death unless the Medical Officer of Health or any person authorized by him shall otherwise direct.

4. Where death has occurred from an infectious disease, the corpse shall be buried within twenty-four hours after death. The corpse shall be removed from the dwelling, tent, hospital, or place where death occurred to the place of burial without being allowed to lie in state, and no tangi shall be held.

5. It shall be the duty of the nearest relatives of the deceased, or, in their absence, of the owner or occupier of the house or premises wherein deceased died, to comply with the provisions of by-laws 3 and 4; and all or any of them shall be deemed guilty of a breach thereof as the Council may deem fit, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5 for each offence.

6. (1) No human corpse shall be buried, except with the permission of the Council, in any other place than a burial-ground recognized by the inhabitants of a Maori kainga, or reserved or set apart by them or some duly constituted authority as a burial-ground.

(2) Coffins shall be constructed of sound timber to the specifications laid down by the Inspector of Health of the district. The boring of holes in the coffin to allow of the escape of liquids is prohibited, but when the corpse is in such condition as to render liable the escape of fluids sufficient absorbent material shall be placed in the coffin to absorb such fluids.

7. No human corpse shall be permitted to lie in state inside or in front of any meetinghouse, but may, if encased in a casket, lie in state at some other spot in the vicinity that may be indicated by the chairman of the committee.

B.—BUILDINGS.

8. No person shall erect a dwellinghouse upon any site not having natural or artificial subsoil drainage sufficient to prevent such site being damp, or upon any site having matter thereon which may prove injurious to the health of the occupants of such buildings. The ground underlying every dwellinghouse shall be so formed and graded that no water can flow or lodge thereon or under any part of such building. Where the site of an erected dwellinghouse is considered injurious to the health of the occupants, the Council may order the owner or occupier to remove such building to a more healthy site.

9. Every person who shall erect a dwellinghouse shall construct every room intended to be used as a living-room or sleeping-room so that the same shall be not less than 8 ft. 6 in. in height from the floor to the ceiling in every part; provided that every room intended to be used as aforesaid with a sloping roof shall be not less than 8 ft. in height from the floor to the roof, over one-half the superficial area of such room, and no wall thereof shall have a height of less than 5 ft. before any slope of the roof commences.

10. Every person who shall erect a dwellinghouse shall provide that for every sleeping-room therein shall be at least 63 square feet of floor space to each adult or every two children under ten years of age sleeping in that room, and there shall be a window space clear of frames equal in area to at least one-tenth of the area of the floor of such room, of which window space at least one-half shall be made to open.

11. Every person who shall erect a dwellinghouse must provide each sleeping-room with a boarded floor so that there shall be between the underside of every joist, plate, stringer, and bearer on which such floor may be laid or supported, and the upper surface of the ground a space of 9 in. at the least in each part, and he shall cause the area below such floor to be thoroughly ventilated by some effectual method.

12. In the case of houses already erected, the Council may require the owner or occupier of any dwellinghouse which does not comply with section B, clauses 10 and 11, to make such alterations or additions as may be deemed necessary.

13. The Council may, or shall, if the Medical Officer of Health so directs, order the removal or destruction of any building in a dirty and unwholesome state, if in its opinion it is unsuitable for human habitation, or if the owner or occupier thereof fails, after due notice, to clean, renovate, or himself remove or destroy the same.

14. The chairman of the committee, or any person duly authorized by the committee in that behalf, may, by notice in writing, direct the owner or occupier of any house or other building in a dirty and unwholesome state to clean or cause the same to be cleaned within a time to be specified in such notice.

15. Any person refusing or neglecting to comply with notice for removals, alterations, or cleaning under clauses 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £1 for the first offence and £5 for every subsequent offence, and in the case of persistent refusal or neglect to comply, the committee may order the work to be done. Any costs incurred by the committee in and about such removals, alterations, or cleanings shall be a debt due to the committee, recoverable as liquidated damages by process in a Magistrates' Court.

16. The committee may, in its discretion, ease or modify the application of the foregoing clauses 8, 12, 13, and 14, in the case of any old, ill, or feeble person occupying any such buildings as aforesaid, so that such clauses shall not press heavily on such person. The chairman of the committee shall report the case and all the circumstances to the chairman of the Council, whereupon the Council shall consider such case and decide whether it shall devote part of its funds towards cleaning and otherwise improving the dwellings of such sick, old, or feeble persons.

17. The occupier of a dwellinghouse shall be held responsible for preventing more persons sleeping in any room thereof than are allowed by the floor-space laid down in clause 10. Failure to comply with this shall render him liable to a penalty not exceeding 5s. for a first offence and not exceeding 10s. for every subsequent offence.

Movable and Temporary Dwellings.

18. Every person who shall own or occupy temporarily a tent, shed, whare, or similar structure shall be responsible that the same is clean, dry, weatherproof, and ventilated. Each adult and every two children under ten years of age shall be provided with 20 square feet of floor-space.

19. Every person who shall own or occupy a tent, shed, whare, or similar structure which is in such a state as to be a nuisance or injurious to health, or which is so overcrowded as to be injurious to the health of the inmates, whether or not members of the same family, shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £1 for the first offence, and not exceeding £5 for every subsequent offence.

Meetinghouses.

20. All provisions of the clauses in these by-laws relating to buildings used as a dwellinghouse shall apply to meetinghouses.

21. All meetinghouses shall be provided with sufficient privy-accommodation for each sex to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health.

22. No sweepings or rubbish shall be deposited under the floor of a meetinghouse.

23. The committee shall direct the carrying out of any necessary alterations or additions under these by-laws, and in the event of the owner or persons concerned in the meetinghouse refusing to carry out such alteration or additions such meetinghouse may be closed down until the by-laws are complied with.

C.—DRAINAGE.

24. The Council shall make such by-laws regarding drainage to suit the particular circumstances of their district as the Medical Officer of Health approves.

25. It shall be an offence for any person to cause any waste water from any dwellinghouse in a Maori kainga to be discharged over the ground in such a manner as to cause a nuisance, or into any dry ditch or watercourse flowing through a Maori kainga.

26. Where any system of drainage for the disposal of waste water is installed in any dwellinghouse it shall be an offence if the occupier does not keep such drainage system in good order and repair, and he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £2.

D.—NUISANCES.

27. No nightsoil, refuse, or offensive rubbish shall be cast or deposited or allowed to flow into any spring, stream, or watercourse.

28. No person who is the owner or occupier of any premises within a Maori kainga shall permit or suffer any nightsoil or refuse or any offensive rubbish or matter of any kind whatever to accumulate or remain or be in or upon such premises so as to be injurious or dangerous to health or as to cause an offensive smell.

29. No horses, cattle, sheep, dogs, or other animals shall be buried within a Maori kainga.

30. No person shall throw or leave any dead animal, or cast or deposit any nightsoil or refuse or any offensive rubbish or matter of any kind whatever, on any property within a Maori kainga whereby any nuisance is or is likely to be created.

31. The occupier of every dwelling in a Maori kainga shall cause all household refuse and rubbish either to be disposed of in a place set apart for such purpose in such Maori kainga by the Council or committee, or in the absence of such place, to be buried or burnt on his section in such a manner as to cause no nuisance.

32. Every person who commits a breach of any of the by-laws 27, 28, 29, and 30 shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

E.—KEEPING OF ANIMALS.

33. No person shall keep or allow any pigs to run loose within a Maori kainga, nor in any case to keep them so as to be a nuisance or injurious to health, nor in such a manner as to pollute any water used or likely to be used by man for drinking or domestic purposes or for use in a dairy; nor shall any person after the coming into force of this by-law permit to remain any pigsty at a less distance than 150 ft. from any house or building used as a dwellinghouse or school or any buildings within which food intended for human consumption is prepared or stored or at a less distance than 50 ft. from any road or the boundary of any occupied neighbouring property.

F.—PRIVIES.

Regulating all Privies.

34. The owner or occupier of every dwellinghouse shall provide the same with a privy.

35. Every person who shall construct a pan or tube privy in connection with a building shall construct such privy at a distance of 10 ft. at the least from any living-room, bedroom, or any room where foodstuff is intended to be stored.

(b) Water closets may be attached to a dwelling and every water closet shall have a sufficient and permanent supply of water for flushing purposes and shall be connected to a sewer or septic-tank installation, or other such means of disposal as the Inspector of Health may approve. All drainage-work, connections, and plumbing-work shall be constructed to the satisfaction of the Inspector.

36. It shall be an offence for any person to construct a privy in connection with a building within a distance of 40 ft. from any well, spring, or stream of water used or likely to be used by man for drinking or domestic purposes, or otherwise in such a position as to render any such water liable to pollution.

37. Every privy shall, in all respects, be well and substantially erected. It shall be provided with a sufficient opening for ventilation as near the top as practicable and shall communicate directly with the open air. It shall be enclosed on all sides and be provided with a door.

38. The occupier of the premises on which any privy is situated shall keep such privy in good state of repair and in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition.

39. The owner or occupier of any premises in connection with which a privy has been erected shall use or cause to be used a sufficiency of dry earth or sawdust or ashes so that the excrement shall be so covered that no nuisance shall arise therefrom.

Regulating Pan-privies.

40. Where a pan-privy is used, such privy shall be constructed and cleansed in the following manner:—

(a) Every person who shall construct a pan-privy in connection with a building shall construct such privy in such a manner and such a position as to afford ready means of access to such privy for the purpose of cleaning such privy and of removing filth therefrom.

(b) The seat of a pan-privy, the aperture in such seat, and the space beneath such seat shall be of such dimensions as to admit of a movable receptacle for nightsoil of a capacity of not less than one cubic foot being placed and fitted beneath such seat in such a manner and in such a position as may effectually prevent the deposit upon the floor or sides of the space beneath the seat, or elsewhere than in such receptacle, of any filth which may from time to time fall or be passed through the aperture of such seat.

(c) The seat of such pan-privy shall be so constructed that the whole of such seat or a sufficient part thereof may be readily removed or adjusted in such a manner as to afford adequate access to the space beneath such seat for the purposes of cleansing such space or removing therefrom or placing or fitting therein the appropriate receptacle.

(d) The receptacle in any pan-privy shall be constructed of such material and in such a manner as to prevent any escape by leakage or otherwise of any part of the contents of such receptacle. The aperture of the seat shall be provided with a cover, which must be kept over the aperture when the seat is not in use.

41. The occupier of every house shall cause the pans of all pan-privies used in connection with such house to be emptied and properly cleaned at least once in every week, and in any case so frequently as to prevent overflow.

42. It shall not be lawful for any person to bury nightsoil otherwise than in a pit or trench in such a manner and to such a depth as to provide that it shall have a covering of earth of at least 6 in. when the pit or trench is closed.

43. No nightsoil shall be buried within 30 ft. of any dwelling nor 60 ft. of any well.

Regulating Pit-privies.

44. A privy of an approved type may be provided with a pit for the reception of faecal matter in place of a pan, but such pit shall not be placed within 60 ft. of any stream, spring, or well, and shall be at least 30 ft. from any dwelling or place in which food is stored.

45. The pit of every pit-privy shall be covered by a seat so constructed as to prevent the access of flies to such pit, and for this purpose the aperture of the seat shall be provided with a cover which must be in place when the privy is not in use.

46. The pit of every pit-privy shall be covered in with clean earth before the faecal matter therein rises to within 12 in. of the surface of the ground, and the privy shall be thereafter moved.

G.—INFECTIOUS DISEASES.

47. Where the Medical Officer of Health notifies that an infectious disease exists in a village or district, no hui, gathering, or tangi shall be held until such time as the village or district is declared clean of the disease.

48. Where an infectious disease has been notified in a village or district, the Council and the committee shall render every possible assistance to school-teachers, district nurses, health inspectors, and medical officers in the early tracing of cases of sickness in the village or district. The Council and the committee shall make it as widely known as possible that such an infectious disease exists. Any person, after receiving such notice, who does not notify cases of sickness existing in a house or camp owned or occupied by him shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

49. No person suffering or suspected to be suffering from an infectious disease shall travel or be removed to other dwelling-houses or camps already occupied, unless to a hospital, without the consent of a nurse, sanitary inspector, or medical officer.

50. Where so directed by an inspector, nurse, or qualified medical practitioner, no person living in a house, building, or camp where infectious disease exists shall travel about to other occupied houses or districts unless he possesses a certificate from a qualified medical practitioner that he is free from infection.

51. Any person, not acting under the instructions of a qualified medical practitioner or an official of the Department of Health, who treats cases of sickness other than in his own immediate family, or allows cases of sickness to collect in a house or camp owned or occupied by him, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

52. No clothing, blankets, or domestic utensils shall be removed for further use from a house in which infectious disease exists or has existed until such material has been properly disinfected to the satisfaction of a nurse, inspector, or qualified medical practitioner.

53. Any person infringing any of by-laws 47, 48, 49, and 50 shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5 for each offence, and for an infringement of by-law 51 shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

H.—TANGI, HUI, AND GATHERINGS.

54. When any tangi, hui, or gathering is held in a village or district it shall be the duty of the committee to take all necessary sanitary precautions.

55. The committee shall take steps to ensure that proper precautions are carried out with regard to cleanliness, ventilation, and prevention of overcrowding of meetinghouses, cleanliness of the marae and cookinghouses, and places used for the storage of food and the proper disposal of refuse and rubbish.

56. The committee shall take steps to ensure that sufficient privy-accommodation to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health is provided for each sex, and that such privies are kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

57. The committee shall take steps to prevent the fouling of water-supplies.

58. The committee shall take steps to prevent any tangi, hui, or gathering being so unduly prolonged as to be a menace to public health.

59. The committee shall prevent any acute cases of sickness remaining in a meetinghouse, and shall insist on their being removed to a detached dwellinghouse, tent, or to their own homes.

60. Any person depositing excreta or urine within a Maori kainga at other than places appointed shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 10s. for each offence.

61. The committee may appoint a sanitary squad to carry out the provisions of this section. Where any expense is incurred, it shall be a charge upon the funds of the tangi, hui, or gathering, or may be raised as a levy or contribution as the committee may deem fit.

62. Where there is no duly constituted health committee in a village where the tangi, hui, or gathering is held, the relatives of the deceased or the promoters of the hui or gathering shall be held responsible for the carrying out of the clauses of this section.

I.—WATER-SUPPLIES.

63. The Council shall make such by-laws regarding water-supplies to suit the particular circumstances of their district as the Medical Officer of Health approves.

64. Where the water-supply of any dwellinghouse is drawn from a rain-water tank it shall be the duty of the owner or occupier of every such dwellinghouse to cause such rain-water tank to be cleaned out at least once in every year and at any more frequent intervals should circumstances require.

J.—HAWKERS.

65. The following by-laws shall apply to Indian, Assyrian, and other hawkers selling their goods in the Maori kaingas within the district, that is to say,—

- (1) Such person shall have a license from the Council before he may sell his goods in the kaingas of the district.
- (2) The license in the Form B in the Schedule hereto shall have force throughout the whole of the district, and the fee therefor shall be £2.
- (3) The Chairman or Clerk of the Council or a member of the Council duly authorized by the Council in that behalf is empowered to issue such licenses.
- (4) All fees paid for licenses shall be forwarded to the office of the Council.
- (5) Any person hawking goods without a license within any Maori kainga in the district shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

A special license may be issued by the Chairman or Clerk or any member of the Council, or by the chairman of the village committee of a kainga where any hui or gathering is held, to any person desirous of hawking and selling goods at such hui or gathering on payment of 10s. or for any other kind of sale 5s. Such license shall be in force only while such hui or gathering lasts, and no longer. Any person hawking or selling goods at such hui or gathering without a special license or without a license as provided in the foregoing by-laws, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

Regulating Shell-fish.

66. (1) No person shall transport into any place being a Maori village, pa, or assemblage of houses, in respect of which a Komiti Marae has been appointed, for consumption in such place any shell-fish taken from any area declared in respect of such place to be a prohibited area.

(2) If a Medical Officer of Health or Inspector of Health is of opinion that any area is contaminated or liable to contamination from sewage outfall or nightsoil-deposit he may advise the Maori Council to declare such area to be a prohibited area for the purpose of this by-law.

(3) The Maori Council may thereupon by its Chairman instruct the Chairman of any Komiti Marae to publish at the meetinghouse of such place or at some other suitable place a notice that the area is a prohibited area for the purposes of this by-law, and such area shall thereupon in respect of such case be a prohibited area accordingly.

(4) Proof that any notice has been published in any place as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof that all necessary steps have been taken under this by-law for constituting the area referred to in such notice a prohibited area in respect of such place for the purposes of this by-law, and shall be prima facie evidence that such area continues to be a prohibited area as aforesaid.

(5) Any such declaration may from time to time by like procedure be revoked.

(6) Any person committing a breach of this by-law is liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

The powers under this by-law are in addition to and not in substitution for powers conferred by any other Act.

K.—DRUNKENNESS.

67. Any person shall be guilty of an offence who—

- (1) Takes any alcoholic or intoxicating liquor into any Maori kainga or into any Maori meetinghouse, church, or public building;
- (2) Being under the influence of alcoholic or intoxicating liquor enters any meetinghouse or church or public building in a Maori kainga;
- (3) Drinks, or causes anyone else to drink, or supplies or causes to be supplied any alcoholic or intoxicating liquor, methylated spirit, or mixture containing methylated spirit in any meetinghouse, church, or public building, or at any public meeting in a Maori kainga; and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

L.—SMOKING.

68. Every person, whether European or Maori, who sells, gives, or supplies any cigarette, tobacco, or torori, to any Maori under the age of fifteen years shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

Every Maori under the age of fifteen years who smokes tobacco, torori, or cigarettes, or any part of a cigarette, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable for the first offence to a fine not exceeding 5s., and for the second offence to a fine not exceeding 10s., and for a third and subsequent offence to a fine of £1.

M.—GAMBLING.

69. Any person, whether Maori or otherwise, desirous of establishing a billiard-room in any kainga, village, or pa, and any Maori desirous of establishing a billiard-room at any other place within the district, except townships (but not Maori lots within a Native township) and European settlements, shall first obtain a license from the Council, which may be granted subject to the following terms and conditions:—

- (1) Such license shall be in Form C in the Schedule hereto.
- (2) The fee for such license shall be £10.
- (3) Such license shall remain in force for twelve months from the date thereof, unless sooner revoked by the Council as hereinafter provided.
- (4) Renewal of license must be applied for before the expiry of the term for which a license has been granted.
- (5) All billiard-rooms shall be properly ventilated, and shall at all times be kept clean and in good order.

They shall be provided with privy and urinal accommodation to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health or Inspector of Health.

- (6) All billiard-rooms shall remain open on week-days only between the hours 9 a.m. and 10 p.m. Any person committing a breach of this by-law shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £1 for the first offence, not exceeding £2 for the second offence, and for a subsequent offence shall be liable to have his license revoked.
- (7) No Maori under the age of fifteen shall be permitted to play billiards on such licensed premises, and if discovered playing therein the licensee or the person for the time in charge of the premises shall be liable to a fine of £5 for the first offence, and for a second offence the Council may revoke the license.
- (8) Any Maori under the age of fifteen years found playing billiards in any place whatsoever shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 5s. for the first offence, not exceeding 10s. for the second offence, and not exceeding £1 for the third offence or for every subsequent offence.
- (9) Any person keeping a billiard-room or a billiard-table in any Maori kainga and any Maori keeping such a room or table at any other place within the district, except townships (but not Maori lots within a Native township) and European settlements, without license from the Council, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £20.
- (10) Any person found playing for money, whether by cards or any other game (except by billiards on licensed premises), within the precincts of any kainga shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5 for the first offence, not exceeding £10 for the second offence, and not exceeding £20 for every subsequent offence.
- (11) Any person, the owner, or occupier of any house or premises situate in any Maori kainga, who shall permit or allow gambling or playing for money (except by billiards on licensed premises) in such house or upon such premises shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5 for the first offence, not exceeding £10 for the second offence, and not exceeding £20 for every subsequent offence.

N.—VILLAGE COMMITTEES.

70. The Council may delegate wholly or in part its powers under the prescribed rules or regulations to any village committee, and such committee shall thereupon be enabled to exercise such powers within its own kainga.

The village committee shall have power to impose a penalty or a fine for any breach of regulation, and if such fine be not paid within the prescribed period the chairman of the committee shall forward a report on and evidence of such breach of regulation and of the non-payment of such fine to the chairman of the Council.

71. The Council shall prescribe fines for by-laws for which no provision has been made.

O—WELFARE AND MORAL WELL-BEING OF THE MAORI INHABITANTS OF THE DISTRICT.

72. (1) Any person who having custody, control, or charge of a child, being a boy under fourteen years and a girl under the age of sixteen years, wilfully ill-treats, neglects, abandons, or exposes such child in a manner likely to cause such child unnecessary suffering or injury to its health, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than £20.

(2) It shall be an offence, within any Maori kainga or Maori settlement surrounding a Maori kainga, to practise as a Tohunga, or practise on the superstition and credulity of the Maori people, by pretending to possess supernatural powers of treatment and cure of disease.

Any person infringing this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence.

(3) Every person within a Maori village, pa, or assemblage of houses who ill-treats any animal or leaves any animal for any time without sufficient food or water is liable to a fine not exceeding £5.

(4) Any person who wilfully trespasses within a Maori village and refuses to leave such village after being warned to do so by a member of the Council or of the village committee, or such person as the Council or village committee may depute for the purpose, is liable to a fine not exceeding 10s.

(5) (a) No person shall conduct a picture show or other entertainment for profit or gain within a Maori village unless licensed to do so by the village committee. Such license shall be valid if signed by any two members of the village committee.

(b) The fee for any such license shall be £1 per month or part of a month, but the village committee may remit such license fee either wholly or in part.

(c) Any person infringing against this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

(6) No person shall promote or organize any hui or Maori meeting to be held within any Maori settlement without having first obtained the consent of the Maori Council or village committee thereto. Any person offending against this part of the by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.
