Public Notice, as to Retail Sales of Eggs by Producers, given under the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942.

PURSUANT to the powers conferred on me by the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942* and the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942, Amendment No. 1†, I hereby give directions, in accordance with the provisions of this notice, with respect to retail sales of eggs by producers.

NOTICE.

1. This notice may be cited as the Sale of Eggs Notice 1943, No. 1.
2. In this notice "Producer" means the occupier of a poultry-run registered under the Poultry-runs Registration Act, 1933.
3. While this notice continues in force, no producer shall sell by way of retail more than one dozen eggs to or on account of any one purchaser on any one day.
4. Every producer who sells any eggs by way of retail shall keep a record of all retail sales, showing in respect of each transaction the date of sale, the name and address of the purchaser, and the place of delivery. All such records shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any officer of the Internal Marketing Division of the Marketing Department or by any other person who is for the time being authorized under and for the purposes of Regulation 30 of the Egg Marketing Regulations 1940‡.
5. Every person who fails to comply with the terms of this notice is guilty of an offence and is liable accordingly to the penalties prescribed by clause 9 of the Egg Marketing Emergency Regulations 1942.

Dated at Wellington, this 24th day of March, 1943.

J. G. BARCLAY, Minister of Marketing.

The Motion-picture Operators' Labour Legislation Suspension and Modification Order 1943.

WHEREAS an agreement dated the 20th day of August, 1942, was entered into between the New Zealand Federated Motion-picture Projectionists' Industrial Association of Workers and the New Zealand Motion-picture Exhibitors' Association, Incorporated, for the training of male and female motion-picture operators on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Labour Legislation Emergency Regulations 1940, the Minister of Labour doth hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Motion-picture Operators' Labour Legislation Suspension and Modification Order 1943.
2. For the purposes of this Order—
 - (1) Terms defined in the Cinematograph Operators Licensing Regulations 1938, when used in this Order, have the meanings severally assigned thereto by those regulations:
 - (2) "Supervising operator" means a motion-picture operator who is authorized under the Cinematograph Operators Emergency Regulations 1943 to supervise the training of a trainee, and who is employed in that capacity:
 - (3) "Trainee" means a person, male or female, who is the holder of a training license issued under the Cinematograph Operators Emergency Regulations 1943:
 - (4) "Union" means the New Zealand Federated Motion-picture Projectionists' Industrial Association of Workers and includes any union affiliated thereto.
3. This Order applies to trainees and supervising operators employed in places where silent or sound films are exhibited for pecuniary gain, and to the employers of such workers.
4. The provisions of the New Zealand Motion-picture Operators' award dated the 31st day of March, 1939, and recorded in 39 Book of Awards 314, shall be and are hereby (1) suspended in so far as they operate to prevent or restrict the employment of trainees on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth and applicable to such workers; and (2) modified in respect of supervising operators to the extent hereinafter provided.

5. Trainee's work shall consist generally of learning, under the supervision of a supervising operator, the projection of films, the preparation of films to be screened for public exhibition, and the care of all projection and sound apparatus, including motive power and anything pertaining thereto. At no time, however, shall any trainee be employed at cleaning-work outside of the projection box, or bill-sticking or changing signs, or any other class of work not calculated to further the trainee's knowledge of projection work.

6. A female trainee shall not enter, and her employer shall not permit her to enter, a projection box unless she is attired in slacks or overalls, which shall be provided by or at the expense of the employer. The employer shall provide female trainees with reasonable facilities for changing clothes and reasonable sanitary facilities to the satisfaction of an Inspector of Factories appointed under the Factories Act, 1921-22.

7. (1) Wages shall be paid weekly and in cash in the employer's time not later than Friday in each week. A trainee who is called upon to wait in his or her own time for payment of wages shall be paid waiting-time at the same rate as is prescribed for operators in clause 8 (f) of the award. A trainee shall be paid as from the date he or she is first employed in the projection box at the following minimum rates of wages:—

	Per Week.
For first two months	2	0	0
For second two months	2	10	0
For balance of period of training	3	0	0

Provided, however, that a trainee employed in a picture theatre showing not more than five screenings per week shall be paid in lieu of the foregoing at the rate of 8s. for each screening:

Provided further that the wages of any trainee who at the date of coming into operation of this Order is employed and engaged as such shall not be reduced by reason of the provisions hereof, but he or she shall in all other respects be subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Order:

Provided further that any assistant operator who becomes a trainee shall not have his wages reduced by the operation of this Order.

(2) An operator while employed as a supervising operator shall be paid £1 per week by the employer in addition to wages or any other payment to which he is entitled:

Provided, however, that a supervising operator employed in a picture theatre showing not more than five screenings per week shall be paid in lieu of the foregoing at the rate of 5s. per screening in addition to wages or any other payment to which he is entitled.

(3) No deduction shall be made from the weekly rates of wages prescribed herein except for time lost by default of the worker or through sickness or accident suffered by the worker, or through fire, earthquake, or epidemic.

(4) The effect of the two general orders made under the Rates of Wages Emergency Regulations 1940, and dated the 9th August, 1940, and 31st March, 1942, respectively, shall be deemed to be incorporated and included in the rates of wages hereinbefore specified, but any subsequent order or orders issued in pursuance of the said regulations, or of the Economic Stabilization Emergency Regulations 1942, increasing or decreasing wages shall be applicable to these rates of wages according to their tenor.

8. The ordinary weekly hours of work or the number of weekly performances or screenings for trainees shall not exceed those respectively prescribed in the award for the operator employed at the particular picture theatre in which the trainee is also employed, and the trainee shall be employed at all screenings at which the supervising operator is present, except in respect of Sundays or holidays when the employment of the trainee shall be optional.

9. All time worked by trainees in excess of the hours prescribed in clause 8 hereof shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.

10. For screenings on Sundays the payment in the case of trainees shall be not less than £1 per screening in lieu of £1 5s. as prescribed by the award.

11. The employer shall place a copy of this Order on the inside wall of the projection box of each theatre in which a trainee is employed.

12. Except as hereinbefore provided the provisions of the award shall apply to the employment of trainees and supervising operators.

13. This Order shall come into force on the day of the date hereof.

Dated at Wellington, this 24th day of March, 1943.

P. C. WEBB, Minister of Labour.
