Marine Department,
P.O. Box 3014, Wellington, 7th October, 1943.

NEW ZEALAND NAUTICAL ALMANAC AND TIDE-TABLES

MARINERS and others are hereby advised that only Part I of the Almanac will be published for 1944 owing to the paper shortage. Part I will be available to the usual purchasers and will contain a summary of alterations to bring the Port Information up to date. A limited number of Part II, Port Information, is still available to mariners who were unable to purchase the 1942 edition.

Part I will contain the following information: Astronomical ephemeris of the sun; daily times of sunrise and sunset at Auckland, Christchurch, Dunedin, and Wellington, with time differences for ascertaining similar times at Invercargill, Nelson, New Plymouth, and Westport; phases of the moon; mean places and meridian passage of stars and times of moonrise and moonset at Wellington.

Tidal predictions, giving the times and heights of high and low water for the ports of Auckland, Bluff, Dunedin, Lyttelton, New Plymouth, Wellington, and Westport; time differences by which the approximate times of high and low water at 104 places in the Dominion may be found; and tidal-stream predictions giving the approximate daily times of the flood and ebb streams making at Tory Channel and French Pass.

List of New Zealand lighthouses, radio beacons, and fog signals; list of latest dated charts of the New Zealand coast and harbours; list of licensed adjusters and coastal pilots, &c.; and a summary of alterations to bring the Port Information in the 1942 edition and Part II, 1943, up to 30th September, 1943.

Part II will contain the following information: Information and plans relative to ports in the Dominion; important Notices to Mariners issued by the Admiralty; caution when approaching and navigating within British ports; distress signals and procedure; regulations for preventing collisions at sea; signal letters of ships registered in the Dominion.

Part I will be published on the 1st November at Wellington, and afterwards may be purchased from Government Shipping Offices in the Dominion, or Marine Department, Wellington.

The Almanac is published by direction of the Hon. the Minister of Marine.

Price: Part I, 5s.; Part II, 5s.

The Farm Implements Control Order 1943

PURSUANT to the powers conferred on me by the Primary Industries Emergency Regulations 1939,* I, Ernest James Fawcett, the Primary Industries Controller appointed under the said regulations, do hereby make the following Order.

ORDER

1. This Order may be cited as the Farm Implements Control Order 1943, and shall come into force on the 15th day of October, 1943.

2. In this Order—

“Controller” means the Primary Industries Controller appointed under the said regulations:

“Farm implement” means an implement of any of the classes of farm implements specified in the Schedule hereto:

“Purchaser”, in relation to a farm implement, means a person who purchases or otherwise acquires the possession of any farm implement in accordance with this Order:

“Supplier”, in relation to any farm implement, means a person whose business comprises the retail sale of farm implements of any of the classes specified in the Schedule hereto.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

3. (1) This Order applies with respect to all new farm implements imported into New Zealand, whether before or after the coming into force of this Order, and also applies to such second-hand farm implements as, having been subject to this Order as new farm implements, are at any time in the possession or under the control of any supplier for the purposes of resale or other disposition by him.

(2) Except as provided in the last preceding subclause, nothing in this Order shall apply with respect to second-hand farm implements.

(3) Nothing in this Order shall apply with respect to farm implements manufactured in New Zealand.

RESTRICTIONS ON SALE AND PURCHASE OR OTHER FORMS OF DISPOSITION OR ACQUISITION OF FARM IMPLEMENTS

4. (1) While this Order continues in force no supplier of farm implements shall sell or otherwise dispose of any farm implement to which this Order applies, except pursuant to a permit issued under this Order.

(2) While this Order continues in force no person shall purchase from any supplier within the meaning of this Order or otherwise acquire from any such supplier the possession or control of any farm implement to which this Order applies except in accordance with a permit issued to the supplier.

(3) The restrictions imposed on suppliers and purchasers by the foregoing provisions of this clause shall not apply in any case where the purchaser of any farm implement is a supplier, and the implement is acquired by him for the purposes of his business as a supplier.

APPLICATION BY PURCHASERS FOR AUTHORITY TO ACQUIRE FARM IMPLEMENTS

5. (1) Any person engaged in any farming operations (including market-gardening, horticultural, poultry, or fruit-farming operations) may make application in writing, on a form to be made available for the purpose by the supplier, for authority to acquire any farm implement or farm implements to which this Order applies.

(2) On completion of the form of application, the applicant may deliver it to the supplier (to be dealt with by the supplier in accordance with the directions endorsed on the form) or the applicant may himself forward the completed form to the appropriate officer in accordance with those directions.

PERMIT TO SUPPLIER TO SELL OR OTHERWISE DISPOSE OF FARM IMPLEMENTS

6. After consideration of any application for the acquisition of any farm implement pursuant to this Order, the Controller, or any person acting with the authority of the Controller, may issue a permit to the supplier to sell or otherwise dispose of to the purchaser the farm implement or a farm implement of a kind specified in the permit.

OBLIGATIONS IMPOSED ON PURCHASERS OF FARM IMPLEMENTS

7. No purchaser of any farm implement acquired pursuant to this Order shall, while this Order continues in force, sell or otherwise dispose of that implement (otherwise than by way of hire) except with the consent of the Controller and subject to any conditions that the Controller may impose.

OBLIGATIONS IMPOSED ON SUPPLIERS

8. (1) Every supplier of any farm implements to which this Order applies shall, on or before the 7th day of each month, furnish in duplicate to the Controller a return showing—

- The number of each particular type or kind of farm implement sold or otherwise disposed of by him, pursuant to this Order during the immediately preceding month, together with the names and addresses of the purchasers:
- The number (if any) of each particular type or kind of farm implement sold or otherwise disposed of by him, pursuant to subclause (3) of clause 4 hereof, during the immediately preceding month to any other supplier, together with the name and business address of such supplier:
- The number of each particular type or kind of farm implement to which this Order applies that has been delivered to him during that month for the purposes of his business:
- The number of each particular type or kind of farm implement to which this Order applies held by him at the end of that month:
- Any other particulars in relation to any farm implement to which this Order applies that the Controller, by notice given to the supplier, may from time to time require.

(2) In addition to the monthly returns to be furnished pursuant to the last preceding subclause, every supplier, within seven days after the delivery to him for the purposes of his business of any farm implement to which this Order applies, shall furnish in duplicate to the Controller a return showing the number of each type and kind of farm implement so delivered to him, the country from which each such implement was imported, the date on which it was received by him, and (in the case of tractors), whether metal or pneumatic wheeled.

* Statutory Regulations 1939, Serial number 1939/164, page 728.

Delegation by the Chief of the Air Staff of Authority for the Convening of General Courts-martial

To Group Captain (Acting Air Commodore) JAMES LLOYD FRYDLAY, M.C., Head of New Zealand Joint Staff Mission, Washington.

WHEREAS I am empowered by Warrant of His Excellency the Governor-General bearing date 28th day of November, 1938, to direct my Warrant to any officer of the Air Force not under the rank of Squadron Leader, giving him a general authority to convene general courts-martial for the trial of any person who is subject to the Air Force Act, 1937, and the regulations made thereunder, and also to exercise (subject to the provisions of the said Warrant) in respect of the proceedings of such courts-martial the power of confirming the findings and sentences thereof according to law, or of directing him to reserve for my confirmation the proceedings of all or any such courts-martial:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the said Warrant, I do hereby authorize and empower you from time to time, as occasion may require, to convene general courts-martial for the trial of any person for the time being under or within territorial limits of your command who is subject to the Air Force Act, 1937, and the regulations made thereunder, and who shall be charged with any offence for which such person may be tried by court-martial:

And I do hereby empower you in respect of the proceedings of such court-martial to confirm the findings and sentences thereof according to law:

And for so doing, this shall be to you, as to all others whom it may concern, a sufficient Warrant.

Given under my hand at Wellington, this 9th day of October, 1943.

L. M. ISITT,

Air Vice-Marshal, Chief of the Air Staff,
Royal New Zealand Air Force.
