Immediate Operational Awards approved by His Majesty the King

Office of the Minister of Defence,
Wellington, 22nd February, 1944.

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the following Immediate Operational Awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy in the Solomon Islands:—

Distinguished Flying Cross

Pilot Officer Donald Fraser AYSON (NZ 402538), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 1 Squadron.

On 24th December, 1943, Pilot Officer Ayson was the Captain and Pilot of a Ventura aircraft returning from a patrol in the vicinity of Bougainville Island and New Britain. The aircraft was suddenly attacked by nine Zero fighters. In spite of skilful evasive action taken by Pilot Officer Ayson, the fire controller was wounded and the intercommunication system was wrecked. Pilot Officer Ayson continued to take such evasive action as he could until another member of the crew took over fire control and was able to give him intermittent reports of the enemy attacks. During one attack his rudder controls were shot away, and it was only by his courage and determination and his coolness in handling a crippled aircraft in the face of strong enemy opposition that he succeeded in bringing his crew safely back to base. By his skilful manœuvring of the aircraft during the action Pilot Officer Ayson contributed materially to the certain destruction of two Zeros, and the probable destruction of three more and damage to two others.

Warrant Officer William Noel WILLIAMS, D.F.M. (NZ 40952), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 1 Squadron.

On 24th December, 1943, Warrant Officer Williams was Navigator in the crew of a Ventura aircraft returning from patrol in the vicinity of Bougainville Island and New Britain. They were suddenly attacked by nine Zero fighters. During the attack the fire controller was wounded and the inter-communication system was wrecked. Warrant Officer Williams promptly took over the duties of fire controller, and, by running between the Astro hatch and the pilot, and giving the latter verbal information of the enemy's movements, enabled the pilot to take successful evasive action. On observing a Zero attacking from astern and below the level of the turret guns, Warrant Officer Williams took over the bally guns and operated them to such effect that the Zero was forced to pull up, and it fell to the turret guns. He is considered to have shared in the destruction of this enemy aircraft. By his quick thinking, immediate action, and skilful shooting in a hazardous operation, Warrant Officer Williams materially assisted in beating off the enemy and in the preservation of his crew and aircraft.

Distinguished Flying Medal

NZ 421275 Flight Sergeant George Edwards HANNAH, Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 1 Squadron.

On 24th December, 1943, Flight Sergeant Hannah was turret gunner in the crew of a Ventura aircraft returning from patrol in the vicinity of Bougainville Island and New Britain. They were suddenly attacked by nine Zero fighters. In the course of the engagement, Flight Sergeant Hannah so skilfully operated the turret guns, withholding his fire until the enemy were at the most effective range, that he destroyed one enemy aircraft, shared in the destruction of another, and damaged five others—three so severely that they probably did not get back to base. He displayed great coolness and courage in the face of determined attacks by a vastly superior force of enemy aircraft.
