The Oil Fuel (Horse Transport) Control Notice 1944

PURSUANT to the Supply Control Emergency Regulations 1939 and the Oil Fuel Emergency Regulations 1939, I, Daniel Giles Sullivan, the Minister of Supply and Munitions, hereby give notice and direct as follows:—

1. This notice may be cited as the Oil Fuel (Horse Transport) Control Notice 1944.

2. Except as provided in clause 3 hereof, no person shall use oil fuel, as defined in the Oil Fuel Emergency Regulations 1939, in any motor-vehicle which is being used for the transport of any horse or horses upon any road or street, whether the horse or horses are in the vehicle or in any trailer being towed by the vehicle.

3. Nothing in the last preceding clause shall apply to prohibit the use of a motor-vehicle for the transportation of any horse for farming purposes only or on a journey which does not exceed thirty miles by road from the starting-point to the destination:

Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to permit the use of a motor-vehicle for any such purpose if that use is prohibited under any other enactment.

Dated at Wellington, this 7th day of March, 1944.

D. G. SULLIVAN,
Minister of Supply and Munitions.
