Remembrance Day, 1946

Prime Minister's Office,
 Wellington, 31st October, 1946.

ADVICE has been received from the Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs that His Majesty has approved of the Sunday before the 11th of November in each year (unless the 11th or 12th of November be a Sunday) being observed as Remembrance Day for the wars 1914-18 and 1939-45.

Sunday the 10th November, 1946, will therefore be observed in New Zealand as Remembrance Sunday.

It is requested that the observance of this day should be similar to that of Armistice Day in past years, and that two minutes' silence be observed from 11 a.m. and all vehicular traffic be suspended during that period. Citizens and traffic authorities throughout New Zealand are asked to co-operate in this observance.

Where a memorial service is held it is suggested that it should be at the local cenotaph or war memorial as the case may be. As Remembrance Day falls on a Sunday it is hoped that the churches will agree to arrange, so far as practicable, for the morning service to commence at 10.45 a.m. and that two minutes' silence be observed at 11 o'clock.

P. FRASER, Prime Minister.
