WHEREAS We in Our Government of New Zealand have taken into Our Royal consideration the services rendered during the war of 1939 to 1945 by all members of the New Zealand Armed Forces and Merchant Navy and by aircrews of New Zealand registered Civil Air Services which operated outside New Zealand, who, when their country was in danger, answered the call and saw service at home or abroad in their country's defence:

And whereas We are desirous of recognizing this service to New Zealand:

We do by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors institute and create a new medal.

1. The medal shall be designated and styled "The New Zealand War Service Medal."

3. The persons eligible for the medal shall be those of Our faithful subjects and others, male and female, who, between the 3rd September, 1939, and the 2nd September, 1945, rendered the required service in the New Zealand Armed Forces, including the Naval Auxiliary Patrol Service, the New Zealand Territorial Force, the New Zealand National Military Reserve, the Home Guard, or the commissioned ranks of the Air Training Corps, or rendered the required service in the New Zealand Merchant Navy, or as members of the crew of an aircraft operated by a Civil Air Line registered in New Zealand.

The part-time service in the Home Guard, which may be reckoned towards the period of six months, shall be restricted to service between 16th August, 1940, and 1st January, 1944. The part-time service in the Naval Auxiliary Patrol Service, which may be reckoned towards the period of six months, shall be restricted to service between the 31st December, 1941, and 31st July, 1944.

8. Service brought to an end by death on duty, or due to wounds or injuries sustained on duty, or honourable discharge as a direct result of injuries sustained while on duty, shall qualify for the award of the medal even though the service may not amount to twenty-eight days or six months, as the case may be.

9. Full-time uniformed civilians who served as members of the New Zealand Armed Forces shall qualify in the same way as full-time members of such Forces.

10. It shall be a condition of award that a recipient, not still serving in the New Zealand Forces or the Merchant Navy of New Zealand, or in a Civil Air Line registered in New Zealand, shall have been honourably discharged. 16. It is ordained that it shall be competent for Our Governor-General for the time being to make regulations to carry out the purposes of this Warrant.
