Royal Commission to Inquire Into and Report Upon Claims Made by Certain Maoris in Respect of the Wanganui River

GEORGE THE SIXTH by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith.

To Our Trusty and Well-beloved SIR HAROLD FEATHERSTON JOHNSTON, Knight, of Oputama, one of Our Counsel learned in the law, and sometime a Judge of Our Supreme Court of New Zealand: GREETING:

WHEREAS upon proceedings taken in the Native Land Court (now called the Maori Land Court) for the investigation of title to the portion of the bed of the Wanganui River between the tidal limit at Raorikia and the confluence of the Wanganui and Whakapapa rivers the Court, on the twentieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, made a provisional or preliminary determination that the said portion of the bed of the Wanganui River was, at the time of the making of the Treaty of Waitangi, land held by Maoris under their customs and usages:

And whereas upon proceedings taken in the Native Appellate Court (now called the Maori Appellate Court) by way of appeal from the provisional or preliminary determination aforesaid, the Native Appellate Court, on the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, dismissed the appeal so brought:

And whereas upon later proceedings taken in the Supreme Court it was, in effect, declared that by virtue of section 14 of the Coal-mines Act Amendment Act, 1903 (now represented by section 206 of the Coal-mines Act, 1925), the bed of the Wanganui River, so far as the same is navigable, is, and is deemed to have always been, vested in Us:

And whereas it is contended by or on behalf of certain Maoris that they would, but for the provisions of the said section 14 of the Coal-mines Act Amendment Act, 1903, be the owners, according to Maori custom and usage, of the aforesaid portion of the bed of the Wanganui River, and that they have by the operation of that section been deprived of their right and title to that portion of the bed of the Wanganui River without their consent, and have suffered loss by reason of that enactment:

And whereas the Government in and for Our Dominion of New Zealand desires that inquiry should be made into the claims aforesaid to the end that, if those claims are well-founded and of substance, the General Assembly may be enabled to consider what relief, if any, should be accorded or granted to those so claiming:

Now know you that We, reposing trust and confidence in your impartiality, knowledge, and ability, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you the said

Sir Harold Featherston Johnston

to be a Commission—

- (a) To inquire and report whether it is established that, but for the provisions of the said section 14 of the Coal-mines Act Amendment Act, 1903, any Maori or any group or class of Maoris would have been the owner or owners, according to Maori custom and usage, of the aforesaid portion of the bed of the Wanganui River;
- (b) To inquire and report whether it is established that any Maori or any group or class of Maoris has, by reason of the enactment of the said section 14, suffered such loss or deprivation in respect of the aforesaid portion of the bed of the Wanganui River as would, in equity and good conscience, entitle him or them to compensation;
- (c) If it be reported that there has been any such loss or deprivation as aforesaid, then to recommend what compensation in money or money's worth should now be granted to the Maori claimants:

- (d) If it be recommended that any such compensation should be so granted, then to report for whose benefit, that is to say, that of any particular Maori, hapu, tribe, or other group or class of Maoris, and in what manner, the amount of such compensation should be appropriated and applied:
- (e) If it be recommended that any compensation should be so granted, then to report whether any terms or conditions, whether as to the abandonment or surrender of any rights or otherwise, should attach to the grant of such compensation.

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect, you are hereby authorized and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents at such times and places as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force, and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose save to His Excellency the Governor-General, in pursuance of these presents or by His Excellency's direction, the contents of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to His Excellency the Governor-General in writing under your hand not later than the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fifty, your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And, lastly, it is hereby declared that these presents are issued under the authority of the Letters Patent of His late Majesty dated the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and under the authority of and subject to the provisions of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1908, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Dominion of New Zealand.

In witness whereof We have caused this Our Commission to be issued and the Seal of Our Dominion of New Zealand to be hereunto affixed at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty, and in the fourteenth year of Our Reign.

Witness Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir Bernard Cyril Freyberg, on whom has been conferred the Victoria Cross, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Companion of Our Distinguished Service Order, Lieutenant-General in Our Army, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion.
