Remembrance Day 1954

CITIZENS and traffic-control authorities throughout New Zealand are requested to observe Remembrance Day on Sunday, 7 November 1954.

The observance of this day should be similar to that of Remembrance Day last year. Two minutes' silence to be observed from 11 a.m., and all vehicular traffic to halt during that period.

The New Zealand Government trusts that churches will agree to arrange, as far as practicable, for a morning service on this day to commence at 10.45 a.m., and that two minutes' silence be observed at 11 o'clock.

Where a citizens' memorial service is held, it is suggested that it should be at the local cenotaph or war memorial, as the case may be.

Dated at Wellington this 27th day of October 1954.

W. A. BODKIN, for the Prime Minister.
