The Tongariro Hatchery Anglers' Camping Ground Regulations 1954

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 7th day of December 1954

Present:

THE RIGHT HON. S. G. HOLLAND PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 14 of the Maori Land Amendment and Maori Land Claims Adjustment Act 1926, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following regulations.

REGULATIONS

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Tongariro Hatchery Anglers' Camping Ground Regulations 1954.

(2) These regulations shall come into force on the day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The said area” means the Tongariro Hatchery Anglers' Camping Ground more particularly described in the Schedule to these regulations;

“To camp” means to occupy by living in or on any of the huts or sites on the said area on which huts are erected or on which caravans may be brought or tents may be erected for use as temporary living quarters under a permit for that purpose issued under these regulations;

“Camp site” means any site within the said area that is set apart or available or used for the erection or placing thereon of any temporary living quarters, and includes the site of any hut erected on the said area;

“Conservator” means the Conservator of Wildlife at Rotorua for the time being, and includes every person for the time being appointed as or discharging the duties of that Conservator, and also includes any officer of the Department of Internal Affairs or other person authorized in writing by the Secretary for Internal Affairs to issue permits under these regulations;

“Day” means a day computed from midnight to midnight;

“Open season” and “close season” mean respectively the open season and close season in the Taupo Trout Fishing District, as those terms are defined by regulation 2 (1) of the Taupo Trout Fishing Regulations 1950*;

“Permit” means a permit issued under these regulations by which any person is authorized to use the camp site specified therein in the said area for such periods as may be granted under these regulations and specified in the permit, subject to all conditions and restrictions contained in these regulations;

“Permit holder” means any person to whom a permit has been issued, notwithstanding the expiration or other determination of the permit, and includes his family, visitors, and servants, and all persons having business with him at the camp site indicated in the permit;

“Secretary” means the Secretary for Internal Affairs.

PART II—OCCUPATION AND USE OF THE AREA

3. (1) No person (other than the Conservator) shall camp within the said area other than upon a camp site.

(2) No person (other than the Conservator) shall camp upon the said area otherwise than by virtue of a permit, whether by erecting or bringing thereon any hut or other structure or any tent, caravan, or motor vehicle, or otherwise howsoever.

4. (1) A permit holder shall be entitled to erect on the camp site indicated in the permit not more than two tents or other structures of a nature approved by the Conservator, and shall remove every such tent or other structure on the expiration or sooner determination of the period for which the permit is granted:

Provided that it shall not be lawful for any person to erect any tent or other structure within the said area except for use in conjunction with a caravan or hut occupied by him on a site within the said area.

(2) No person shall erect any tent or other structure on any camp site, unless there is an open space of not less than 10 ft. between that tent or other structure and any other structure existing permanently or temporarily on that camp site.

(3) No person shall erect a tent or other structure on any camp site within 5 ft. of any boundary of the site, or use for camping any part of a camp site that is within 5 ft. of any boundary of the site.

5. No person shall bring any caravan upon the site of any hut erected upon the said area.

6. Every permit holder shall at all times during the continuance of his permit—

(a) Keep any camp site for the time being occupied by him and all erections thereon in a clean, orderly, and tenable condition;

(b) Dispose of all refuse (other than any wet refuse, waste food matter, any dead fish, any cleanings, or any offal or other parts of fish) in the garbage collection container provided at his camp site;

(c) Dispose of any wet refuse, waste food matter, dead fish, cleanings, offal, or other parts of fish in a place and in a manner directed by the Conservator;

(d) Use all reasonable precautions to prevent damage by fire to the said area, or to adjoining or neighbouring land, or to anything growing or erected thereon respectively.

7. No permit holder shall—

(a) Destroy, damage, deface, or interfere with, or cause or suffer to be destroyed or damaged or defaced or interfered with in any other way, any hut, tent, caravan, or other erection, or any boat, vessel, or motor vehicle within the said area belonging to any other person;

(b) Destroy or damage or cause or suffer to be destroyed or damaged any trees, growing timber, bushes, or other vegetation on the said area;

(c) Use any camp site or cause or suffer the same to be used for the purpose of any trade or business or for any illegal or improper purpose or otherwise howsoever than as a camp site;

* Statutory Regulations 1950, Serial number 1950/186, page 849.

Amendment No. 2: Statutory Regulations 1952, Serial number 1952/169, page 836.

Amendment No. 3: (Revoked by serial number 1953/125).

Amendment No. 4: Statutory Regulations 1953, Serial number 1953/125, page 647.

- (d) Light any fire within the said area except in such places or areas provided for this purpose by the Conservator:
- (e) On any part of the said area do, cause, suffer, or permit to be done any act, matter, or thing which may be or become a nuisance or inconvenience to or in any way interfere with the quiet and comfort of any other permit holder or any owner or occupier of any adjoining or neighbouring land:
- (f) Discharge firearms or explosives on any part of the said area:

Provided that it shall not be deemed a breach of this regulation if the act, matter, or thing was done with the express authority of the Conservator.

8. (1) The Conservator may at any reasonable time enter into and upon any portion of a camp site and into or upon any buildings, erections, or other structures erected, brought, or placed thereon, for the purpose of inspecting the same and the condition thereof.

(2) The Conservator may direct any permit holder to take action or do such things as may be necessary to restore any camp site to a clean, orderly, and tenable condition, and the permit holder shall comply with that direction.

9. A permit holder may keep his motor vehicle within the said area provided it is kept either on the parking area provided or on his camp site.

10. (1) The Conservator may at any time require any permit holder to remove his dog or other domestic pet from the said area.

(2) No person shall keep any animal within the said area unless it is kept under proper restraint and control.

11. (1) A permit holder shall, immediately prior to the expiration or the sooner determination of the period for which the permit was granted, remove or destroy all refuse and all articles and matter of any kind taken or brought on the camp site during the currency of the permit.

(2) A permit holder shall yield up the camp site indicated in the permit and every hut or other structure thereon in a clean, orderly, and tenable condition.

PART III—PERMITS

12. Every permit shall be in a form to be provided for the purpose by the Conservator, shall be issued under the hand of the Conservator, shall set out the period for which the permit is granted, and shall relate only to the camp site specified therein.

13. Application for a permit shall be made personally or in writing to the Conservator and shall state the period for which a permit is desired.

14. No permit shall be transferable, and no person shall assign, transfer, or make over to any other person any permit, or any rights conferred on him by any permit, or assign, demise, sublet, or otherwise assure, or purport so to do, any camp site occupied by him by virtue of a permit, or use any part of the said area otherwise than for his own personal occupation as a permit holder and for that of any persons occupying the camp site with him.

15. (1) The Conservator may, at his discretion, and without assigning any reason therefor, refuse to issue a permit to any person.

(2) The Conservator may, at his discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, revoke any permit by notice in writing under his hand delivered to the permit holder personally or sent to him by registered post addressed to him at his usual or last known place of abode in New Zealand, and the permit shall be void and of no effect upon service of the notice:

Provided that the permit holder shall be entitled to receive repayment of a proportionate part (computed from the date when the revocation takes effect) of any fee paid in advance for the permit.

(3) The Conservator may, before issuing a permit, require the applicant for the permit to show that he is or will be during the currency of the permit a bona fide angler under a current licence issued under the Taupo Trout Fishing Regulations 1950.

16. (1) The Conservator may summarily eject from the said area any permit holder who fails to comply with any condition specified in these regulations, and from the date of that ejection the permit issued to the person evicted shall be void and of no effect.

(2) The permit holder so ejected shall not be entitled to receive repayment of any fees paid in advance, but the Conservator may, at his discretion, refund to the permit holder the whole of the fees so paid in advance (computed from the date of ejection to the date of expiration of the permit), or such portion of those fees as is not required to pay for damage committed or caused by any action of the ejected permit holder.

17. (1) If through no fault of his own a person who has paid the prescribed fee for a permit is wholly unable to use the permit, the Conservator may, at his discretion, direct that the fee shall be refunded to that person.

(2) Where any permit holder who has entered into occupation of the camp site referred to in his permit ceases to occupy that site before the expiration of the term of his permit, the Secretary may, at his discretion, in special cases direct that a proportionate part of the fee paid by that person shall be refunded to him.

18. (1) No permit issued during the close season shall take effect earlier than seven days before the commencement of the next ensuing open season.

(2) No permit shall continue in force after the seventh day following the expiration of the open season during or before which it was granted.

19. Every permit holder shall, on demand, produce his permit to the Conservator.

PART IV—GENERAL PROVISIONS

20. A permit holder shall compensate the Conservator (as agent of the Crown) for the loss during the currency of the permit of any property of the Crown that is present on the camp site indicated in the permit.

21. Every permit holder shall, in addition to any penalty to which he may be liable in respect of the breach, be liable for any damage suffered by any person through any breach by the permit holder of these regulations, and shall compensate the Conservator (as agent of the Crown) for any damage to the said area or to anything affixed thereto or growing thereon or to any personal property of the Crown thereon caused during the currency of the permit by the permit holder or any member of his family or any visitor or servant or other person occupying the camp site with him.

22. The production of a duplicate copy of a permit signed by the Conservator shall be prima facie evidence that the permit was duly issued to the person named therein and that that person thereupon became a permit holder within the meaning of these regulations.

23. The fees payable for a permit shall be as determined from time to time by the Secretary, and shall be paid in such manner as the Conservator from time to time directs.

24. Any person committing a breach of these regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £10 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding £5 for every day or part of a day during which the offence has continued.

25. All money payable by any person under any permit or otherwise payable to the Conservator under these regulations shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Crown.

26. The Conservator may, in his discretion, prohibit or restrict the right of entry to the said area, or any part thereof, and in particular may exclude from the said area or any specified portion thereof, any person or class or classes of persons and may prohibit or restrict access by means of any or all vehicles or animals.

27. Every permit holder shall comply with the directions given from time to time by the Conservator in relation to the cleaning and smoking of fish on the said area, the use of firewood, and other domestic matters not expressly provided for in these regulations.

28. (1) The Tongariro Hatchery Camping Ground Regulations 1928* are hereby revoked.

(2) All matters and proceedings commenced under the regulations hereby revoked and pending or in progress at the commencement of these regulations may be continued, completed, and enforced under these regulations.

Authorizing the Borrowing by the Auckland Hospital Board by Way of Hypothecation of Debentures Issued in Respect of a loan of £100,000

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 1st day of December 1954

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS by Order in Council made on the 16th day of June 1954, and subject to the determinations as to borrowing and repayment therein set out, consent was given to the raising in New Zealand by the Auckland Hospital Board (hereinafter called the said local authority) of a loan of one hundred thousand pounds to be known as "Buildings Purchase Loan 1954" (hereinafter called the said loan):

And whereas by Order in Council made on the 27th day of October 1954 certain of the determinations aforesaid were varied in respect of portion of the said loan amounting to forty-three thousand six hundred pounds:

And whereas portion of the said loan amounting to twenty-five thousand pounds (hereinafter called the said sum) has not yet been raised:

And whereas the said local authority, pending the raising of the said sum in accordance with the said determinations, is desirous of borrowing the said sum or part thereof by hypothecation or mortgage pursuant to section 34 of the Local Bodies' Loans Act 1926, of the debentures authorized to be issued in respect of the said sum:

Now, therefore, pursuant to section 7 of the Local Authorities Interest Reduction and Loans Conversion Act 1932-33 and section 8 of the Local Authorities Interest Reduction and Loans Conversion Amendment Act 1933, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby consents to the said local authority, pending the raising of the said sum in accordance with the said determinations, borrowing the said sum or any part thereof by the hypothecation or mortgage of the said debentures at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent per annum, and hereby prescribes that the money borrowed by the hypothecation or mortgage of the said debentures shall, pending the raising of the said sum, be repaid by half-yearly instalments equivalent to the instalments of principal which would have been repaid if on the first day on which any moneys are borrowed by such hypothecation or mortgage the whole of the said sum of twenty-five thousand pounds had been raised on the terms prescribed by the aforesaid Orders in Council.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Reappointing Commission to Inquire into the Tuberculin Testing of Town Milk Supply Herds

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to:

Alfred Coleman, of Feilding, Retired Stipendiary Magistrate; Peter Tait Jamieson, of Palmerston North, Dairy Farmer; and Andrew Linton, C.B.E., of Greytown, Dairy Farmer;

Greeting:

WHEREAS by Warrant issued on the 10th day of March 1954 under the hand of the Governor-General, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, you were appointed a Commission to inquire into and report upon the tuberculin testing of town milk supply herds as carried out under the provisions of section 84 of the Statutes Amendment Act 1945:

And whereas by the said Warrant you were required to report not later than the 31st day of May 1954 your findings and opinions on the matters thereby referred to you:

And whereas by a further Warrant issued on the 19th day of May 1954 under the hand of the Governor-General, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, the time within which you were so required to report was extended to the 31st day of August 1954:

And whereas your report was delivered to the Governor-General on the 27th day of August 1954, and the said Commission was thereupon dissolved:

And whereas as a result of subsequent discussions amongst yourselves you have formed the opinion that the said report does not represent in a completely satisfactory manner your findings and opinions, and you have asked leave to withdraw the said report and to submit an amended report, and you have also asked that the said Commission should be reconstituted for that purpose:

Now, therefore, I, Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Willoughby Moke Norrie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do hereby re-appoint you, the said

Alfred Coleman,
Peter Tait Jamieson, and Andrew Linton,

to be a Commission under the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908 for the purposes set out in the said Warrant of date the 10th day of March 1954, with the powers and authorities and subject to the directions set out in the said Warrant, save as modified by these presents:

B

And in pursuance of such powers and authorities as aforesaid, and with the like advice and consent, I do hereby re-appoint you, the said to be Chairman of the said Commission:

Alfred Coleman,

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to me not later than the 31st day of December 1954 your findings and opinions on the matters set out in the said Warrant, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And in further pursuance of such powers and authorities as aforesaid, and with the like advice and consent, I do hereby confirm, re-publish, and re-enact the said Warrant and re-constitute the Commission thereby constituted, subject only to the modifications appearing in and by these presents.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 7th day of December 1954.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

A PENAL POLICY FOR NEW ZEALAND

In this brochure the problem of crime is briefly surveyed, and an outline given of the principles on which the Department of Justice acts in fulfilling its duty to provide better protection to society. The substance and the purposes of proposed changes in the law are also given.

A Penal Policy for New Zealand is commended by the Minister of Justice to all those—and it should be the concern of the whole community—who are interested in coping with what is undoubtedly a serious social problem.

32 pages. Illustrated.

Price, 2s. 6d.

HOUSING THE CITIZEN

Although this publication is issued primarily as a guide for local authorities; it contains information of value to all who are interested in housing.

Price, 3s. 6d.

THE GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF SOCIAL SECURITY IN NEW ZEALAND

A survey of social security in New Zealand from 1898 to 1949, and the most comprehensive work on the subject yet published in this country.

Of 180 pages, the book is divided into three parts—cash benefits, health benefits, and finance. Each subject is dealt with in detail and there is a comprehensive index.

The book will undoubtedly be of considerable interest to those interested in social security and social services, and will be especially valuable to University students.
