Commission to Inquire into Accident on Board H.M.N.Z.S. Black Prince

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to LEONARD GEORGE HERSTON SINCLAIR, Esquire, Stipendiary Magistrate:

Greeting.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to appoint a Commission to inquire into the accident that happened on board Her Majesty's New Zealand Ship Black Prince in Queen Charlotte Sound on the 23rd day of March 1955 and resulted in the deaths of two ratings in the ship, namely, Petty Officer Reginald Harry Tyler and Leading Seaman Raymond Joseph Currey, and also to inquire into the question whether proper steps were taken to inform all interested persons of the date, time, and place of the inquest into the deaths:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Willoughby Moke Norrie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you, the said Leonard George Herston Sinclair, to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon—

- The cause of the accident;
- Whether any officer or rating of the Naval Forces, or any other person in the public service, at any time failed to exercise reasonable care, or to carry out any orders or instructions or procedure, or to fulfil any duty or responsibility according to the standard reasonably to be expected, or was guilty of any breach of discipline or other improper conduct, in relation to the accident or to the circumstances leading up to it;
- Whether the methods of disposing of demolition charges in operation on board the ship at the time of and before the accident were proper and reasonable for the work being undertaken;
- Whether the instructions given or in force and the preparation made were proper and sufficient for the work intended to be done;
- Whether a proper standard of order, control, and discipline was at all material times exercised over the company of the ship and over any other persons on board the ship in all matters relating to the accident;
- Whether the deaths of the said ratings or the death of either of them might or could have been prevented by the exercise of reasonable care by, or the carrying out of any orders or instructions or procedure by, or the fulfilling of any duty or responsibility resting upon, any officer or rating of the Naval Forces or any other person in the public service;
- Whether the work intended to be done by the said ratings was suitable having regard to their knowledge and experience, and whether there was sufficient supervision of their actions; and
- Whether proper steps were taken to inform all interested persons of the date, time, and place of the inquest,—and generally to inquire into and report upon such other questions coming to your notice in the course of your inquiries as you consider should be investigated in connection therewith, and to report upon any matters affecting the premises which you consider should be brought to the attention of the Government:

And you are hereby authorized to conduct any inquiry under these presents in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908 at such times and places as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and from place to place as you think fit; and this Commission shall continue in full force whether or not the inquiry is regularly continued by adjournments as aforesaid:

And using all due diligence you are required to report to me not later than 31st day of May 1955 your finding and opinion on the questions and matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, except to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 7th day of April 1955.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

(3) If in respect of any oatmeal or rolled oats sold by a retailer the maximum price calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of pence or half-pence, the maximum price of the lot may be increased to the nearest upward halfpenny.

SPECIAL PRICES WHERE EXTRAORDINARY CHARGES INCURRED

8. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any manufacturer, wholesaler, or retailer, may authorize special maximum prices in respect of any oatmeal or rolled oats to which this Order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the manufacturer, wholesaler, or retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of oatmeal or rolled oats or may relate generally to all oatmeal or rolled oats sold by the manufacturer, wholesaler, or retailer while the approval remains in force.

Dated at Wellington, this 13th day of April 1955.

The Seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

A PENAL POLICY FOR NEW ZEALAND

In this brochure the problem of crime is briefly surveyed, and an outline given of the principles on which the Department of Justice acts in fulfilling its duty to provide better protection to society. The substance and the purposes of proposed changes in the law are also given.

A Penal Policy for New Zealand is commended by the Minister of Justice to all those—and it should be the concern of the whole community—who are interested in coping with what is undoubtedly a serious social problem.
