Officers of Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

WHEREAS by the Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923,* made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (thereinafter and hereinafter called "the Governor") was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him:

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:

And whereas by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:

And whereas by notice issued by the Governor on the 27th day of August 1953‡, Harold Ruegg, Esquire, was appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency and vested with the powers and authorities described in the said notice, and in particular with the general executive and administrative authority in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the Dependency:

And whereas it is expedient that further persons be appointed officers of the Government of the Dependency:

Now, therefore, I, Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Willoughby Moke Norrie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Ross Dependency, hereby appoint

Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood,
Sir Edmund Percival Hillary, and
Dr Trevor Hatherton

as officers of the Government of the Dependency; and the better to define their respective authorities, powers, and functions, I hereby—

- (a) Declare that, subject to the control of the said Harold Ruegg, Esquire, the said Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood shall have and may exercise all the powers, duties, and functions of the said Harold Ruegg, Esquire; and, the better to enable him so to do, hereby confer on him in respect of the Dependency all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Stipendiary Magistrate, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Justice of the Peace, but so nevertheless that those powers shall in no way derogate from the general executive and administrative authority herein accorded him in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the Dependency; and I declare that the fact that the said Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood exercises any power, duty, or function as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of his authority to do so, and no person shall be concerned to inquire whether the occasion has arisen requiring or authorising him to do so;
- (b) Confer on the said Sir Edmund Percival Hillary all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Stipendiary Magistrate, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Postmaster;
- (c) Confer on the said Dr Trevor Hatherton all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Coroner;

The said Sir Edmund Percival Hillary and the said Dr Trevor Hatherton to exercise their respective functions at such places within the Dependency as may be directed by the said Harold Ruegg, Esquire, or by the said Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood; and

All the officers of the Government of the Dependency hereby appointed to hold their respective offices and exercise the duties thereof during pleasure.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, as the Governor of the Ross Dependency, this 23rd day of November 1956.

R. M. ALGIE, for the Minister of External Affairs.

Compensation Awarded to Owner of Licensed Premises (Greymouth Borough)

WHEREAS, on 20 May 1954 pursuant to section 45 of the Licensing Amendment Act 1943, the Licensing Control Commission gave notice by advertisement in the Gazette and in newspapers circulating in the Westland Licensing District of compensation awarded to the under-mentioned owner consequent upon cancellation of the publican's licence in respect of the premises shown below:

And whereas the under-mentioned owner appealed to the Supreme Court under the provisions of section 65A of the said Act (as enacted by section 28 of the Licensing Amendment Act (No. 2) 1953):

Take notice that, by judgment dated 15 November 1956, the Supreme Court has modified the decision and award of compensation made by the Commission to such owner by awarding the following:

"Suburban" Hotel at Greymouth:

Robert Ford and Coy. Ltd., Hokitika, as owner, the sum of £15,093, together with the sum of £210 for the costs of the appeal, with disbursements for fees of Court, witnesses' expenses, and other necessary payments to be fixed by the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Christchurch.

And further take notice that no person (other than the above-named person and other than a person claiming a lien as mortgagee) shall be entitled to receive the compensation or make any claim in respect of the compensation awarded unless notice in writing of such claim, stating whether compensation is claimed by him as owner or as licensee, is lodged with the Commission within six weeks of 29 November 1956, being the date of publication of this notice in the Gazette; and further take notice that any mortgagee from an owner or licensee shall, upon giving written notice to the Commission within one month after 29 November aforesaid, have a lien on the amount of compensation payable to the mortgagor for the amount of compensation payable to the mortgagor for the amount of the mortgage debt and any interest or other charges owing to the mortgagee under or in respect of the mortgage.

The previous awards of compensation and notice thereof advertised in the Gazette on 20 May 1954, insofar as they relate to the compensation awarded to the owner of the "Suburban" Hotel at Greymouth, are hereby revoked.

Dated at Wellington this 26th day of November 1956.

E. R. GRAHAM, Secretary.

Licensing Control Commission, Government Buildings Annex, Whitmore Street, P.O. Box 5012 (Telephone 43-418), Wellington C. 1.
