Former German Assets in Japan

THE Minister of External Affairs has been informed that claims can be forwarded to Japan in respect of former German assets in that country. According to notification received from Tokyo, the Tripartite Commission, representing France, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America, will receive, as a matter of grace, claims on former German assets in Japan from persons who can prove that they have a beneficial interest in such property. The Tripartite Commission is responsible, under the provisions of article 20 of the Peace Treaty with Japan, for the disposition of certain former German assets in Japan. The following persons are not eligible to lodge claims:

- (a) German nationals who resided in Germany during the period 1939-1948 except persons subject to persecutions.
- (b) German nationals who resided in Japan during the war and who were repatriated to Germany by order of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers.
- (c) German nationals who resided in countries other than Germany or Japan during the war and who either were subjected to restrictions of personal liberty as enemy nationals or whose property in the country in which they resided has been vested by the government of the country.
- (d) Juridical persons organised under German law or registered as German in any German Embassy or Consulate.
- (e) Japanese juridical persons owned or controlled by (a) to (d).

Claims by persons who have already submitted claims in respect of vested assets to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers or to the Tripartite Commission will not be entertained unless new and cogent evidence is produced.

Claims must be submitted in English by registered post or delivered personally to the Secretary General, Tripartite Commission, Nikkatsu International Building, Tokyo, Japan,

by 6 August 1957, and must be accompanied by full documentary proof. All claims will be examined and determined by the Tripartite Commission, whose decision will be final.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of June 1957.

G. R. LAKING, for the Secretary of External Affairs.
(P.M. 104/9/5/4)

Land Surveyors' Examination, August 1957—Australia and New Zealand

It is hereby notified for general information that the Survey Board, in conjunction with the Australian Surveyors' Boards, will conduct an examination of candidates for registration as surveyors, commencing at 9 a.m. on Monday, 19 August 1957, at Wellington.

MINA TAIT HORTON ESTATE AMENDMENT BILL

In the matter of the Mina Tait Horton Estate Amendment Bill, being a Private Bill intituled "An Act to amend the Mina Tait Horton Estate Act 1942".

NOTICE is hereby given that the General Trust Board of the Diocese of Auckland (hereinafter called "the Board") intends to apply by petition to the House of Representatives in Parliament assembled during the present session for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Bill. The objects of the Bill are:

To amend the Mina Tait Horton Estate Act 1942 (hereinafter called "the principal Act") in such manner that it will be clear that the words "the termination of the present war" where used in the principal Act mean the 28th day of April 1952 (being the date specified in a Proclamation by the Governor-General dated the 29th day of April 1952 as the end of the war with Japan). The effect of this amendment will be to make it clear that the bequest left by the late Mina Tait Horton (deceased) for the building fund for the Cathedral of the Diocese of Auckland will lapse if the first portion is not commenced within seven years from the 28th day of April 1952, or if the trustees are not satisfied at the end of that period that the first portion will be properly carried on to a completed state.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will, on or before the 27th day of June 1957, be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives and at the Diocesan Office, 40 Shortland Street, Auckland, where the said copies may be inspected and obtained. The promoter of the Bill is the General Trust Board of the Diocese of Auckland and all communications or notices to the Board may be sent to it at the Diocesan Office, 40 Shortland Street, Auckland.

Dated this 26th day of June 1957.

The General Trust Board of the Diocese of Auckland—

744

W. T. CHEESMAN, Secretary.

AGRICULTURAL BOTANY

By J. S. YEATES and ELLA O. CAMPBELL

This book supplies a long-felt want in this country by providing a simple explanation of the manner in which plants function and the conditions necessary for their growth. Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to a clear exposition of the subject. As a result, although the book is primarily intended for use in schools and colleges, it is also suitable for farmers, orchardists, horticulturists, and home gardeners.
