Christchurch Metropolitan Fire Board Election Order 1958

COBHAM, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 31st day of March 1958

Present:

THE HON. C. F. SKINNER, M.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to the Fire Services Act 1949, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order prescribing the time and method of election of members of the Christchurch Metropolitan Fire Board.

1. This order may be cited as the Christchurch Metropolitan Fire Board Election Order 1958.

2. In this order:

"The Board" means the Christchurch Metropolitan Fire Board.

"City Member" means a member of the Board elected to represent the Christchurch City Council.

"Local Authority" means a local authority other than the Christchurch City Council, the district or part of the district of which is within the Christchurch Metropolitan United Urban Fire District.

"Local Authority Member" means the member of the Board elected to represent the local authorities as hereinbefore defined.

3. There shall be three members of the Board elected to represent the Christchurch City Council and one member elected to represent, jointly, the Riccarton Borough Council, the Waimairi County Council, the Paparua County Council, the Heathcote County Council, and the Halswell County Council.

4. For the first election under this order the Returning Officer shall be Seton Fulton Marshall and for subsequent elections the Returning Officer shall be the Secretary of the Board for the time being.

5. The electors of the city members shall be the members of the Christchurch City Council.

6. Every city member shall be elected by resolution passed at a meeting of the Christchurch City Council.

7. The first election of city members shall be held on some day not later than the 30th day of April 1958 and the next election shall be held on some day in the month of February 1960 and subsequent elections shall be held on some day in the same month of every third year thereafter.

8. In the case of an extraordinary vacancy in the office of a city member, the Returning Officer shall give notice in writing thereof to the Christchurch City Council, and an election to fill the office so vacated shall be held not later than one month after the date when such notice is given.

9. It shall be the duty of the Mayor of the City of Christchurch to cause a meeting of the Christchurch City Council to be held for the purpose of conducting an election under this order whenever necessary.

10. It shall be the duty of the Town Clerk of the Christchurch City Council immediately following an election by the Christchurch City Council under this order to give notice of the result thereof in writing to the Returning Officer, who shall notify the Minister of Internal Affairs accordingly.

11. The first election of the local authority member shall take place by means of meetings to be held on some day in the month of April 1958 and the next election shall take place by means of meetings to be held on some day in the month of February 1960 and subsequent elections shall be held on some day in the same month of every third year thereafter.

12. In the case of an extraordinary vacancy in the office of local authority member, an election shall take place by means of meetings to be held on some day not later than one month after the giving of the notice hereinafter required to be given by the Returning Officer.

13. (a) Not later than the 10th day of April 1958, in the case of the first election of the local authority member, and

(b) As soon as is practicable after the 30th day of November in every year immediately preceding the year in which an election of the local authority member is to take place, and

(c) So soon thereafter as he has knowledge of any extraordinary vacancy in the office of the local authority member,—the Returning Officer shall give notice in writing of the necessary election to each of the local authorities and shall in such notice set out the number of votes exercisable by each of the local authorities.

14. For the first election of the local authority member each local authority shall be entitled to exercise one vote for each complete one hundred pounds, or part thereof, of the payment made by that local authority to the Christchurch Fire Board in the year ending with the 31st day of March 1958, and for any subsequent election of the local authority member each local authority shall be entitled to exercise one vote for each complete one hundred pounds, or part thereof, of the contribution paid, or to be paid, by that local authority to the Board in the year in which that election is held.

15. Each of the local authorities may nominate one candidate by resolution, a sealed copy of which, together with the written consent of each nominee to his nomination, shall be lodged with the Returning Officer not later than the 20th day of April 1958, in the case of the first election of the local authority member, and not later than the last day in January in every year in which an election of the local authority member is to take place and not later than ten days after the Returning Officer has given notice of an election to fill an extraordinary vacancy in the office of the local authority member.

16. The Returning Officer shall thereupon prepare a list of nominated candidates and send a copy thereof to each of the local authorities, which shall, at a meeting held not later than the 30th day of April 1958, in the case of the first election of the local authority member or on some day in the month of February in every year in which an election of the local authority member is to take place or at a meeting held not later than one month after the Returning Officer has given notice of an election to fill an extraordinary vacancy, by resolution allocate its prescribed number of votes to one of the candidates and lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within forty-eight hours after the passing of the resolution.

17. It shall be the duty of the Mayor or Chairman of each local authority to cause meetings of such local authority to be held whenever necessary—

(a) For the purpose of nominating a candidate (such meetings to be held so that any nomination decided on can be lodged with the Returning Officer within the time specified by clause 15 hereof).

(b) For the purpose of conducting an election (such meetings to be held within the time specified by clause 16 hereof).

18. In the event of an equality of votes, the Returning Officer shall have a casting vote to enable the issue to be decided.

19. The Returning Officer shall give public notice of the result of the election and report that result to each local authority and to the Minister of Internal Affairs.

20. No failure on the part of any local authority to hold any meeting as hereby prescribed, or to carry at such a meeting a resolution allocating its votes, or to lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within the time hereby prescribed, or otherwise to exercise its power of voting shall affect the validity of any election.

21. Every city member shall be deemed to be elected when the notice of his election given by the Town Clerk is received by the Returning Officer, and every local authority member shall be deemed to be elected when public notice of the result of the election is given by the Returning Officer.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Royal Commission to Inquire Into, and Report Upon, Parliamentary Salaries and Allowances

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom, New Zealand and Her Other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith:

To Our Trusty and Well-beloved ROBERT MCKEEN, Esquire; JOHN HENRY BOYES, Esquire, Companion of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; and CARL VICTOR SMITH, Esquire, Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:

GREETING:

WHEREAS by section 27 of the Civil List Act 1950 it is provided that the Governor-General, on the recommendation of a Royal Commission appointed in that behalf, may from time to time, by Order in Council, fix the salaries and allowances to be paid to the Prime Minister and other Ministers of the Crown or Members of the Executive Council, to Parliamentary Under-Secretaries, and to the Speaker and Chairman of Committees and other Members of the House of Representatives:

And whereas by subsection (1A) of the said section 27 it is provided that a Royal Commission shall be appointed for the purposes of that section within three months after the date of every general election of Members of Parliament, and a general election was held on the 30th day of November 1957:

And whereas on the 26th day of February 1958 a Royal Commission* was issued appointing the Honourable WILLIAM EDWARD BARNARD, Esquire, and you the said JOHN HENRY BOYES, and CARL VICTOR SMITH to be a Commission for the purposes of the said section 27, but the said WILLIAM EDWARD BARNARD died on the 12th day of March 1958 and it is desirable to revoke that Commission and to issue a new Commission in its place:

Now, know ye, that We, reposing trust and confidence in your impartiality, integrity, and ability, do hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the salaries and allowances paid to Our Prime Minister and other Ministers or Members of the Executive Council, to Parliamentary Under-Secretaries, to the Speaker and Chairman of Committees, and to the Leader of Our Official Opposition, and to other Members of the House of Representatives; and if it be reported that it is necessary or desirable to alter those salaries and allowances or any of them, then to recommend to His Excellency the Governor-General the nature and extent of the alterations that should be made:

ROBERT MCKEEN,
JOHN HENRY BOYES, and
CARL VICTOR SMITH.

And generally to inquire into and report upon any other matters arising out of or affecting the premises which may come to your notice in the course of your inquiries and which you may consider should be investigated in connection therewith:

And we do hereby appoint you, the said

to be Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents at such time and place as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force, and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose save to His Excellency the Governor-General in pursuance of these presents or by His Excellency's directions, the contents of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And we do further ordain that you have liberty to report your proceedings and findings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And using all due diligence, you are required to report to His Excellency the Governor-General in writing under your hands not later than the 31st day of July 1958, your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof:

And we hereby revoke the said Royal Commission issued on the 26th day of February 1958:

And, lastly, it is hereby declared that these presents are issued under the authority of the Letters Patent of His late Majesty King George the Fifth, dated the 11th day of May 1917, pursuant to section 27 of the Civil List Act 1950, and under the authority of and subject to the provisions of the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand.

In witness whereof we have caused this Our Commission to be issued and the Seal of New Zealand to be hereunto affixed at Wellington this 31st day of March 1958.

Witness Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Cousin Charles John, Viscount Cobham, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, upon whom has been conferred the Territorial Decoration, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over New Zealand; acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand.

COBHAM, Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command—

C. F. SKINNER, for the Prime Minister.

Approved in Council—

[L.S.] T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

AGRICULTURAL BOTANY

By J. S. YEATES and ELLA O. CAMPBELL

This book supplies a long-felt want in this country by providing a simple explanation of the manner in which plants function and the conditions necessary for their growth. Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to a clear exposition of the subject. As a result, although the book is primarily intended for use in schools and colleges, it is also suitable for farmers, orchardists, horticulturists, and home gardeners.
