PRIVATE BILL

MACKELVIE TRUST BILL

In the matter of the Mackelvie Trust Bill, being a Private Bill intituled "An Act to vary the terms of certain trusts created by the will of the late James Tannock Mackelvie, of the County of Middlesex in England, Esquire."

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mackelvie Trust Board, a body corporate deemed incorporated under the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 (hereinafter called "the board"), intends to apply by petition to the House of Representatives in Parliament assembled during the present session for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Bill. The objects of the Bill comprise the making of certain variations in the terms of the trusts created by the will of the late James Tannock Mackelvie, of the County of Middlesex, in England, Esquire (hereinafter called "the testator"), concerning certain moneys and investments vested in the board, and concerning certain pictures, prints, bronzes, statues, vases, works of art, articles of vertu, and curiosities bequeathed by the testator and vested in the board together with such additions thereto as have heretofore been made or may hereafter be made (hereinafter called "the Mackelvie Collection"). In particular the objects of the Bill are—

- (1) To empower the Board, instead of acquiring a site and erecting a building thereon to contain the Mackelvie Collection, to make such arrangements as it thinks fit for the storage and custody of the Mackelvie Collection in or near the City of Auckland, and for the exhibition of the Mackelvie Collection or any part thereof in or near the City of Auckland, whether or not under the control of the board and whether or not as a separate unit or integrated with other works of art.
- (2) To empower the board to arrange for the exhibition elsewhere of parts of the Mackelvie Collection not for the time being required in or near the City of Auckland.
- (3) To empower the board under certain conditions to permit the exhibition of the Mackelvie Collection under circumstances where a charge is made for admission.
- (4) To require the board to set aside a sum of £20,000 as an investment fund, and to make provision as to the nature of the investments which may be made by the board.
- (5) To make provision as to manner in which moneys and investments in the hands of the board shall or may be expended.
- (6) To provide for the marking of the Mackelvie Collection.
- (7) To empower the board to hold property for certain other charitable purposes.
- (8) To make provision as to the manner of exercising powers of the board, as to the convening of meetings and as to the protection of persons dealing with the board.
- (9) To remove certain doubts as to the effect of the resignation from the board of the Mayor of Auckland and to make provision for the appointment of a member of the Board by the Auckland City Council.

The promoter of the Bill is the Mackelvie Trust Board and all communications or notices to the board may be sent to it at its registered office, 6 Wyndham Street, in the City of Auckland. A copy of the Bill may be inspected at the same address.

Dated this 23rd day of June 1958.

The Mackelvie Trust Board—

THE NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

The New Zealand Gazette is published on Thursday evening of each week, and notices for insertion must be received by the Government Printer before 12 o'clock of the day preceding publication.

Subscriptions—The subscription is at the rate of £5 5s. per calendar year, including postage, payable in advance.

Single copies of the Gazette as follows:

For the first 16 pages, 6d., increasing by 6d. for every subsequent 8 pages or part thereof.

Advertisements are charged at the rate of 9d. per line for the first insertion, and 6d. per line for the second and any subsequent insertions.

All advertisements should be written on one side of the paper, and signatures, etc., should be written in a legible hand.

The number of insertions required must be written across the face of the advertisement.

STATUTORY REGULATIONS

Under the Regulations Act 1936, statutory regulations of general legislative force are no longer published in the New Zealand Gazette, but are supplied under any one or more of the following arrangements:

- (1) All regulations serially as issued (punched for filing), subscription £2 per calendar year in advance.
- (2) Annual volume (including index) bound in buckram, 35s. per volume. (Volumes for years 1936-37 and 1939-42 are out of print.)
- (3) Separate regulations as issued.

The price of each regulation is printed thereon, facilitating the purchase of extra copies.

Orders should be placed with the Government Printer, Publications Branch, Wellington C.1. Separate copies of regulations may also be purchased from the Printing and Stationery Department, 130 Oxford Terrace, Christchurch, or from the Chief Post Offices at Auckland and Dunedin.

GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS

The following publications are obtainable from the Government Printer, at Wellington and Christchurch or through the Chief Post Offices at Auckland and Dunedin.

Free Postage: All publications sold by the Department are now post free—except that when trade discount is allowed, postage or freight is payable by the purchaser.

All references to postage in previous lists, catalogues, etc., should be amended accordingly.

AGRICULTURAL BOTANY

By J. S. YEATES and ELLA O. CAMPBELL

This book supplies a long-felt want in this country by providing a simple explanation of the manner in which plants function and the conditions necessary for their growth. Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to a clear exposition of the subject. As a result, although the book is primarily intended for use in schools and colleges, it is also suitable for farmers, orchardists, horticulturists, and home gardeners.
