Further Proroguing the General Assembly

COBHAM, Governor-General

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the General Assembly of New Zealand stands prorogued to the 28th day of January 1960. And whereas for certain causes and considerations I have thought fit to prorogue it further:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the New Zealand Constitution Act 1852, I, Charles John, Viscount Cobham, the Governor-General of New Zealand, hereby further prorogue the General Assembly until Thursday, the 31st day of March 1960, and summon it to meet at 2.30 p.m. on that day in the Parliament House in the City of Wellington.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, and issued under the Seal of New Zealand, this 13th day of January 1960.
