National Roads Act 1953: Subsidised Works

PURSUANT to section 2 of the National Roads Act 1953, as amended by section 2 of the National Roads Amendment Act 1959, the following types of works and expenditure comprised in or incidental to the construction or maintenance of roads have been declared to be subsidised works by resolution of the National Roads Board:

1. Construction and maintenance of carriageways, including the acquisition of land and the initial fencing thereof.
2. Construction and maintenance of bridges, culverts, ferries, fords, and other structures forming or intended to form part of the road.
3. Construction and maintenance of such storm-water drainage and retaining structures as are necessary for the operation, protection, or support of a road.
4. Construction and maintenance of kerbing and channelling in respect of roads in built-up areas.
5. Construction and sealing of State highways to a width in excess of the standard adopted by the Board for traffic lanes and extra strengthening of bus stops on State highways.

6. Construction of footpaths on State highways where recommended by the District Roads Council as a safety measure.

7. Construction and maintenance of cycle tracks forming part of a road.

8. Construction, installation, and maintenance (including electricity charges) of carriageway illumination other than amenity lighting.

9. Erection of traffic signs and marking of carriageways for the control of traffic.

10. Installation of traffic lights on State highways as approved by the Board and other specified traffic lights so approved.

11. Hire charges (working time only) for plant, but not the capital cost of plant, used in the construction and maintenance of roads at rates adopted by the local authority but not exceeding the equivalent rate under the Ministry of Works/Local Body Reciprocal Plant Hire Schedule.

12. Materials used in the construction and maintenance of roads (including materials from local authority stocks) at cost plus handling charges, freight, and cartage to job.

13. Metal for the construction and maintenance of roads, supplied from local authority quarries or crushing plants, at a price per cubic yard to cover direct operating and maintenance costs; depreciation charges and interest on capital cost of the quarry or the crushing plant installation; but excluding profit.

14. Wages of direct labour (excluding supervisory staff) engaged on the construction and maintenance of roads in accordance with local authority awards.

15. Indirect costs comprising holiday and sick leave pay, employers liability insurance and small tools, applied as a percentage on-cost calculated at the rate of 12½ per cent of the wages referred to in the preceding paragraph 14 hereof.

16. Indirect costs of engineering administration and supervision of maintenance and construction of roads at a rate of 3 per cent of total job cost (excluding compensation payments) applied as a percentage on-cost.

17. Annual charges including interest on loans raised by a local authority before 1 April 1960 for any of the aforesaid types of works.

18. Annual charges excluding interest on any loan raised on or after 1 April 1960 by a local authority for any of the aforesaid types of works, if no subsidy under subsection (1) of section 23 of the Act has been paid in respect of the works paid for out of that loan.

All advertisements should be written on one side of the paper, and signatures, etc., should be written in a legible hand.

The number of insertions required must be written across the face of the advertisement.

STATUTORY REGULATIONS

Under the Regulations Act 1936, statutory regulations of general legislative force are no longer published in the New Zealand Gazette, but are supplied under any one or more of the following arrangements:

(1) All regulations serially as issued (punched for filing), subscription £2 per calendar year in advance.

(2) Annual volume (including index) bound in buckram, 35s. per volume. (Volumes for years 1936–37 and 1939–42 are out of print.)

(3) Separate regulations as issued.

The price of each regulation is printed thereon.

AGRICULTURAL BOTANY

By J. S. YEATES and ELLA O. CAMPBELL

This book supplies a long-felt want in this country by providing a simple explanation of the manner in which plants function and the conditions necessary for their growth. Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to a clear exposition of the subject. As a result, although the book is primarily intended for use in schools and colleges, it is also suitable for farmers, orchardists, horticulturists, and home gardeners.
