99. Mutilated Telegrams—The sender of a telegram shall be responsible for the same in the form in which it is received save in the case where the committee is of the opinion that the telegram appeared on its face to be in such form by reason of mutilation or otherwise that the receiver thereof was not justified in acting thereon.

CONTRACTS

100. Brokers and Principals—In contracts between members for the sale and purchase of shares and stocks they shall be held to be principals to each other, unless a written arrangement to the contrary be made between buying and selling brokers at the time the contract is made.

Where a transfer of shares, stock, units, bonds, registered notes, or Government securities is delivered, on or after the "ex dividend" date as advised by the Association the amount of the interest as announced or dividend as recommended shall be deducted from the amount payable on settlement by the buyer. TIME BARGAINS

The new shares shall be settled for on delivery. Provided that nothing in this rule shall prevent the seller taking up such shares or part thereof and himself retaining all or so many of such shares as are not desired by the buyer and covered by notice as aforesaid. Where it is necessary for the seller to pay money in order to take up new shares as aforesaid the buyer shall provide the necessary money and in no case shall it be incumbent upon the seller to find money to take up new shares.

110. Overseas Registers—When a transaction is in shares on an overseas register the responsibility of the seller shall cease if he shall have made all reasonable endeavours to secure the new shares; and further, the seller shall be relieved of all responsibility if the circumstances place him in no better position than the buyer to secure the new shares, in which case the seller may, on receipt of a written request from the buyer to protect his rights, notify the buyer in writing of such circumstances, and the buyer on receipt of such notification shall protect his own interests.

Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prejudice the rights of the buyer against the seller in respect of non-delivery as aforesaid. Where the buyer has not for six weeks from the date of sale, or in the case of time bargains, for six weeks from the date for completion thereof requested the seller to deliver or taken any other steps upon the contract in accordance with these rules he shall not be entitled to require the seller to deliver unless and until he gives the seller 72 hours' notice that he requires the seller to deliver.
