ON 2 August 1962, acting as solicitors for Dishmaster Appliances Ltd., Cuba Street, Wellington, and at Petone, we published a notice in the Gazette in which the name of the company incorrectly appeared in the heading of the notice. This may have given the impression that a petition had been presented at the Supreme Court, Christchurch, for the winding up of Dishmaster Appliances Ltd. The heading was an error on our part for which we accept sole and full responsibility. In fact, Dishmaster Appliances Ltd. was itself the petitioning creditor and not the debtor company. The correct form of notice appeared on the same date in The Press, Christchurch, the other publication in which the notice was required to appear. On 9 August 1962 a correct notice of the presentation of a petition by Dishmaster Appliances Ltd. for the winding up of the debtor company was advertised in the Gazette. The mistake was one of pure inadvertence and oversight on our part. Any inference which may have been taken from the notice adverse to the credit and solvency of Dishmaster Appliances Ltd. would be entirely erroneous. We express our regret at the mistake and apologise to Dishmaster Appliances Ltd. and to its management and shareholders.
