Order No. 6 (1963) of the Trade Practices and Prices Commission

In the matter of the Trade Practices Act 1958 and in the matter of an inquiry into a retendering provision in the rules of the Waikato Master Builders' Industrial Union of Employers.

WHEREAS the Trade Practices and Prices Commission has, pursuant to section 18 of the Trade Practices Act 1958, conducted an inquiry into a retendering provision contained in bylaw No. 1 in the rules of the Waikato Master Builders' Industrial Union of Employers (hereinafter referred to as the "union of employers").

And whereas prior to the said inquiry the Examiner of Trade Practices and Prices presented to the Commission a report, pursuant to section 17 of the said Act, in which it was alleged that Bylaw No. 1 of the rules of the Waikato Master Builders' Association Incorporated (hereinafter referred to as "the association") contained a retendering provision in terms following:

"When tenders are received no member other than the lowest tenderer shall tender a second time within a period of six months unless the contract has been altered by at least 20 per cent (P.C. sum omission not inclusive in the reduction of the contract)."

And whereas the Examiner alleged, in his said report, that the said Bylaw No. 1 constituted a trade practice in terms of paragraphs (c) and (j) of subsection (2) of section 19 of the said Act.

And whereas the association, in its answer to the said report, admitted that the foregoing Bylaw No. 1 was part of the rules of the said association but denied that the said Bylaw was a trade practice in terms of paragraphs (c) and (j) of subsection (2) of section 19 of the said Act.

And whereas the Commission heard evidence adduced by the Examiner and by the association and the union of employers and heard Mr Orr of Counsel for the Examiner and Mr Tompkins of Counsel for the association and union of employers.

And whereas it was admitted by Mr Tompkins, at the said inquiry, that the said Bylaw No. 1 was part of the rules of the union of employers and not part of the rules of the association.

And whereas it was further admitted that the membership of the association and the union of employers was identical.

And whereas it was agreed by Mr Tompkins, on behalf of the union of employers and the association, that the inquiry into the operation of the said Bylaw No. 1 was properly constituted and should proceed.

And whereas the Commission has found that the said Bylaw No. 1 constitutes a trade practice in terms of paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of section 19 of the Act.

And whereas the Commission has further found that the said trade practice is contrary to the public interest in terms of section 20 (d) of the Act and has decided that an order should be made under the said Act in respect of the said trade practice.

Now, therefore, the Trade Practices and Prices Commission, pursuant to sections 19 and 21 of the Trade Practices Act 1958, hereby orders the Waikato Master Builders' Industrial Union of Employers, the Waikato Master Builders' Association Incorporated, and the respective members thereof:

- To discontinue the present practice of restricting the number of member builders who may tender or retender for any contract which has been readvertised on a second or subsequent occasion.
- To refrain from reviving the said practice in any form whatsoever whether as members of the said union or association or otherwise howsoever and to refrain from entering into any other agreement or arrangement which would have the same effect.

And, further, orders the Waikato Master Builders' Union of Employers:

- To convene, within 28 days of the making of this order, a meeting of member builders and to pass thereat a resolution rescinding the said retendering rule Bylaw No. 1.
- To advise, in writing, all members of the union of employers within 35 days of the making of this order that the retendering rule Bylaw No. 1 has been rescinded and that henceforth members will be at complete liberty to tender for any contract such price as they see fit and to retender for any contract which may be advertised as and when and at such price as they see fit.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of October 1963.

The seal of the Trade Practices and Prices Commission was affixed hereto in the presence of:

[L.S.] S. T. BARNETT, Chairman.
R. D. CHRISTIE, Member.
F. F. SIMMONS, Member.
