Proroguing the General Assembly

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS on the 30th day of October 1963 the General Assembly of New Zealand was summoned to a meeting on the 23rd day of January 1964: And whereas for certain causes and consideration I have thought fit to prorogue it:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the New Zealand Constitution Act 1852, I, Brigadier Sir Bernard Edward Fergusson, the Governor-General of New Zealand, hereby prorogue the General Assembly until Thursday, the 9th day of April 1964, and summon it to meet at 2.30 p.m. on that day in the Parliament House in the City of Wellington.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, and issued under the Seal of New Zealand, this 21st day of January 1964.

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Prime Minister.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
The weather here is very pleasant now.
I must close for this time. Write soon.
Your affectionate son,
John Doe

I have been thinking of you very much lately. How time flies! I can hardly believe that I have been married for so long. I hope you are all happy and enjoying life. I would love to see you all again. Please write to me when you have a chance. I am always with you in spirit.
Your loving father,
John Doe

I am sure you will be well and happy. I have been very busy lately with my work, but I always find time to think of my family. I hope to visit you soon. I am always with you in spirit.
Your affectionate son,
John Doe
