INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

I, John Lochiel Robson, of Wellington, Secretary for Justice, give notice that I have applied to the Indecent Publications Tribunal for a decision as to whether the book Last Exit to Brooklyn, by Hubert Selby, jun., published by Calder and Boyars Ltd., of 18 Brewer Street, London W. 1, is indecent or not or for a decision as to its classification.

The Indecent Publications Act 1963

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of a reference to the Tribunal regarding two books by Henry Miller—Tropic of Cancer and Tropic of Capricorn.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THE Tribunal has been called upon to determine the character of two books, Tropic of Cancer and Tropic of Capricorn, both by Henry Miller, and to classify each in terms of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

The editions under consideration are paper backs published by Panther Books Ltd., in 1965 and 1966 respectively. Tropic of Cancer was first published in 1934, Tropic of Capricorn in 1939. The first editions published in Great Britain appeared in 1963 and 1964 respectively.

Tropic of Cancer is a novel based on the author's experiences as a young journalist in Paris; Tropic of Capricorn, published later, deals with earlier experiences in New York.

As with Nexus and Plexus, two other books by this author which the Tribunal has had to consider, the books now submitted are not easy to read. They are examples of extroverted writing, and at times, are so uninhibited in their dealing with normal and perverse sex acts and with sex fantasies, as to be revolting.

These two books have many times been considered judicially under different statutes and in various parts of the world. Sometimes they have been condemned, and sometimes exonerated. They are widely read abroad and have an undisputed and important place in literature. Regarding each book as a whole and in terms of section 11 (2) of the statute, it would be quite impossible to classify either book as indecent. The subsection reads:

"(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, where the publication of any book or the distribution of any sound recording would be in the interests of art, literature, science, or learning and would be for the public good, the Tribunal shall not classify it as indecent."

We have taken note of the submissions of Mr R. A. Heron, of counsel for the publishers. The Secretary for Justice was represented at the hearing, but no submissions were made on his behalf.

We accordingly classify these two books as not indecent.

K. M. GRESSON, Chairman.
