Indecent Publications Act 1963

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of applications by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the following books:

Female Masturbation, by G. Lombard Kelly, M.D., published by Monogram Publications Inc., Inglewood, California, U.S.A.

Sexual Anatomy, by Joseph Dow, M.D., published by Monogram Publications, Inc., Inglewood, California, U.S.A.

Female Auto-Erotic Practices, New Illustrated Edition, by Havelock Ellis, M.D., published by Monogram Publications Inc., Inglewood, California, U.S.A., and Unusual Female Sex Practices, by David O. Cauldwell, M.D., published by Banner Books Inc., Inglewood, California, U.S.A.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THESE four books may best be treated together. All may be regarded as useful textbooks, but a close review strongly suggests that the object is not to provide such matter-of-fact information as should be available in good textbooks but to pander to prurient interests. This view is supported, for example, by the following facts:

(i) What purports to be a reprint (in part) of Havelock Ellis's massive study is, in fact, no such thing, since the version printed is inconsecutive and incomplete, and includes interpolations presumably of editorial origin, but nowhere accounted for.

(ii) In Unusual Female Sex Practices, much space is devoted to notes and case records, in revolting detail, beyond what the thesis requires.

(iii) The illustrations generally promote no scientific purpose beyond what is already attained in recognised textbooks and some are of prurient interest only.

(iv) Even in Sexual Anatomy, where the field would appear to be clearly defined (as well as unexceptionable), there is irrelevant material designed to titillate rather than to inform. It may be added that editorial control of these books has failed to regulate their grammar and spelling and to remove minor inaccuracies, all of which reflects upon the integrity of their production.

The Tribunal decides that all four of these books are indecent within the terms of the Indecent Publications Act 1963.

L. G. H. SINCLAIR, Chairman.

Indecent Publications Act 1963

IN the matter of The Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application to the Tribunal for a decision in respect of the book The Harrad Experiment, by Robert H. Rimmer, published by The New English Library Ltd., London.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

The Harrad Experiment has been submitted to the Tribunal by leave of the Minister of Justice, for classification. Submissions were made in writing by the Justice Department, and through counsel for the publishers.

This novel, already popular in the United States, and now reprinted in England, is a limited-field "Utopia", being a description of an experiment in co-education at the A-plus under-graduate level in a mythical Massachusetts university. The author is advocating a radical change in sexual mores, which he claims is in the interests of individual fulfilment, proper preparation for marriage, family life, and social responsibility. He pleads for greater sexual freedom with more informed and serious attitudes as an antidote to unhealthy sex-preoccupation. Sexual episodes and practices are described in student "diaries" and discussions but these, though tedious and sentimental, are relevant to the theme and there is no obscenity or prurience—nor, for that matter, any notable literary merit.

The author is in time-honoured fashion using the novel to put forward his ideas, which run counter to the moral code accepted by our society. Some people may consider that the acceptance of these ideas would, in terms of section 2 of the Indecent Publications Act, be injurious to the public good, but the suppression of minority views, seriously put forward, may be equally injurious to the public good. The concluding discussions raise many important issues with what appears to be an honest purpose.

Consideration has been given to the question whether the book should be classified as indecent in the hands of young persons. We do not think it would appeal to young adolescents. The tedium of the book would be likely to prevent any but the most serious minded from reading it, and such readers would be unlikely to be corrupted by it.

For the above reasons, we do not classify the book as indecent, nor do we impose any restriction on its circulation.

- (d) The Auckland metropolitan area is defined as follows:

The cities of Auckland and Takapuna, the Boroughs of Henderson, New Lynn, Mount Albert, Mount Eden, Mount Roskill, Onehunga, Newmarket, One Tree Hill, Ellerslie, Mount Wellington, Otahuhu, Papatoetoe, and Papakura, the commercial centre of Pakuranga and all commercial areas along or adjacent to the Great South Road between Otahuhu and Papakura not otherwise included.

Price Order No. 2068 (Bananas)

PURSUANT to the Control of Prices Act 1947, I, Geoffrey Harold Datson, pursuant to a delegation from the Secretary of Industries and Commerce acting under a delegation from the Price Tribunal, hereby make the following price order:

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 2068 and shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1968.
2. (1) Price Order No. 2033* is hereby revoked.
(2) The revocation of the said order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this order.

(3) References in this order to metropolitan areas are references to the metropolitan areas described in the Schedule hereto.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

3. This order applies with respect to all bananas sold by way of retail in New Zealand.

MAXIMUM RETAIL PRICES OF BANANAS

4. (1) Where, in this price order, prices are expressed both in decimal currency and in existing currency, the prices expressed in decimal currency shall be the prices applicable unless, because of difficulties relating to machine conversion, a trader continues to deal during the transitional period exclusively or principally in existing currency, in which case the prices applicable shall be those expressed in existing currency.

(2) In this clause the terms "decimal currency", "existing currency", and "transitional period" shall have the same meaning as the Decimal Currency Act 1964.

5. (1) The maximum price that may be charged or received by any retailer for any bananas to which this order applies shall be:

- (a) When sold by a retailer carrying on business in any of the metropolitan areas of Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch, or Dunedin, or in any of the Cities or Boroughs of Whangarei, Takapuna, Hamilton, Tauranga, Rotorua, Gisborne, New Plymouth, Stratford, Wanganui, Palmerston North, Napier, Hastings, Blenheim, Nelson, Greymouth, Timaru, Westport, Oamaru, Balclutha, Gore, or Invercargill—15 cents (1s. 6d.) per lb.

- (b) When sold by a retailer carrying on business elsewhere—

- 1s. 6½d. per pound; or
1 lb, 16 cents;
2 lb, 31 cents;
3 lb, 47 cents;
4 lb, 62 cents;

Fractions of a pound shall be calculated at the rate of 16 cents per lb. Quantities in excess of 4 lb shall be calculated at the rate of 15½ cents per lb.

(2) If in respect of any lot of bananas the price calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of cents, pence, or halfpence, the maximum price of the lot shall be computed to the nearest whole cent or to the next upward halfpenny.

PROVISIONS FOR SPECIAL PRICES

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any retailer, may authorise special maximum prices in respect on any bananas to which this order applies where special circumstances exist, or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of bananas, or may relate generally to all bananas to which this order applies sold by the retailer while the approval remains in force.

DUTY IMPOSED ON RETAILERS

7. Every retailer who offers or exposes for sale in any shop any bananas to which this order applies shall keep in a prominent position in such proximity to the bananas to which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto a ticket, placard, or label on which shall be stated in legible and prominent characters the retail price per pound of the bananas. Retailers to whom clause 6 (1) (b) of this order applies shall state at least the prices for 1 lb and 2 lb lots.
