Notice to Make Returns of Income Under the Land and Income Tax Act 1954

PURSUANT to the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, the Commissioner of Inland Revenue gives notice as follows:

1. Returns of income for the year ended 31 March 1969 (or other approved balance date) are required from:

- (a) All companies, all partnerships, all persons in business (including farming) or in a profession, all persons in partnership, and all trustees, executors, and administrators, notwithstanding that by reason of a loss being incurred for the year or carried forward from a previous year, no taxation is payable.
 - (b) Every person whose total income exceeded $2,600.
 - (c) Every person who derived interest and/or investment or building society dividends over $60 in the aggregate and whose total income (after deducting $60 of that interest and/or investment or building society dividends) exceeded $208.
 - (d) Every person who derived assessable income other than income from employment and whose total income exceeded $208. (Except in the case of persons mentioned in (a) above, no return is required where—
 - (i) The total income did not exceed $936 and consisted exclusively of income from employment together with Universal Superannuation, and/or company dividends, or
 - (ii) The total income did not exceed $936 and consisted exclusively of Universal Superannuation and/or company dividends).
 - (e) Every person who paid provisional tax in respect of income for the year ended 31 March 1969.
 - (f) Every person to whom section 104 of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954 applies. Section 104 relates to aggregate assessments of husbands and wives and in general terms now applies only where—
 - (i) Income is derived by one spouse under a transfer or settlement of income by the other spouse and the assets producing the income are retained by or can revert to the other spouse.
 - (ii) Income is diverted from one to the other by permitting the use of assets or by the performance of services.
 - (g) Every person who received withholding payments. Note, however, that a return is not required where a person does not come within any of the classes referred to in (a) to (f) above inclusive and the only withholding payments received were—
 - (i) Juror's or witness's fees, and/or
 - (ii) Not in excess of $24 in the aggregate and consisting of one or more of the following classes: Honoraria; fees for contributions to newspapers, journals, etc., or for radio or stage presentations; modelling or demonstrating goods or appliances; theatre, stage, concert, and radio performances; payments for election-day services.
 - (h) Every unincorporated body which derived assessable income.
 - (i) Every absentee who derived income from New Zealand.
2. Returns are required to be furnished by posting or delivering the same to the office of the Inland Revenue Department nearest to the place of residence of the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer's records are held in another office of the Department, then to the latter office.
3. Returns are due on:
- (a) 7 June 1969 where income was derived from salary, wages, superannuation (not Universal), pensions, taxable allowance, etc., and—
 - (i) No other income whatsoever was derived, or
 - (ii) the other income derived consisted exclusively of not more than $200 in total from dividends, net rents, interest (after $60 exemption).

- (b) 7 August 1969 in all other cases or within 2 months balance date, whichever is the latter. No action of failure to furnish a return due on 7 August 1969 will be taken if it is furnished by 7 September 1969.

The return to be used is I.R. 5 (green print) in the case paragraph 3 (a) above. The I.R. 3 return should be used all other cases.

In addition to I.R. 3, farmers are to complete supplementary return I.R. 3F and persons in business or in a profession are to complete supplementary return I.R. 3B. Companies are to use I.R. 4 and estates and trusts I.R. 5A. Each form indicates the classes of taxpayers who are to use that form and, where applicable, the due dates for payment of provisional tax. Generally the first instalment of provisional tax must accompany the return when furnished and is due on 7 August 1969. It must be paid on or before 7 September 1969 in order to avoid the 10 percent additional tax for late payment. The second instalment is, in general, due on 7 February 1970 with a 10 percent additional tax if not paid by 7 March 1970. In some cases a third instalment is, in general, due on 7 May 1970 with a 10 percent additional tax if not paid by 7 June 1970. Taxpayers who are not required to furnish (and do not furnish) a final return by the expiration of 1 month after the due date for payment of the first instalment of provisional tax, are required to furnish an interim return I.R. 5B unless they have been otherwise advised. This return is to be furnished not later than 1 month after the due date for payment of the final instalment of provisional tax. Fuller details are given in the interim return form.

4. All return forms are available at district offices of the Inland Revenue Department, and forms other than interim return forms, are also available at post offices. Comparative returns are available at post offices in urban areas with a population of 5,000 or more not having an Inland Revenue District Office.

5. Any person or company failing to furnish a return within the prescribed time is liable to a fine not exceeding $200 and not less than $4.

6. Any person who is not required under paragraph 1 to furnish a return and who has derived income from employment may elect to furnish a return using I.R. 5 if he requires a tax adjustment:

- (a) Because he paid life insurance premiums.
- (b) Because he considers that tax deductions made from his income were excessive.
- (c) Because he was entitled to exemptions which were not included in his tax code during the year.
- (d) Because he is entitled to deductions from income.

7. Any person furnishing a return of income who derives income taxed at time of payment should securely attach a tax deduction certificate (I.R. 12, I.R. 13, or I.R. 55) to the return form.

Dated at Wellington this 22nd day of April 1969.
