This continuing fellowship is designed to perpetuate Captain Cook's spirit of scientific inquiry and exploration in the New Zealand and south-west Pacific area. The fellowship shall be awarded and administered, and the fund shall be controlled in accordance with the following rules.

1. The fund and fellowship, established by decision of the New Zealand Cabinet on 14 October 1968, shall be called "The Captain James Cook Fellowship Fund" and "The Captain James Cook Fellowship" respectively, and the fund shall consist of the moneys granted annually to the Society by the New Zealand Government.

2. The fund shall be vested in the Society, and the Council shall have control of the said moneys.

3. The Council shall pay from the said fund all disbursements, emoluments, and expenses legally incurred in carrying out the terms of the fellowship in accordance with these rules.

4. The fund or such part thereof as is not currently required for disbursements, emoluments, and expenses of the fellowship shall be invested in securities proper for trust moneys and the interest arising from such investments shall be used for the furtherance of the objects of the fund after the payment of all expenses legally incurred by the Council in the investment and administration of the said fund.

5. The fellowship shall be at senior level, tenable for 2 years but extendable to three, at any New Zealand university or research institution.

6. The fellowship shall be awarded to carry out research within New Zealand or the south-west Pacific region in any appropriate field such as the following taken in their broadest sense or in any other relevant field:

7. Only one fellowship shall be held at any one time.

8. The fellowship shall be open to New Zealand and overseas applicants.

9. The fellow may be required to deliver a lecture or series of lectures on his research work at one or more centres in New Zealand during the tenure of the fellowship.

10. The Selection Board shall consist of His Excellency the Governor-General of New Zealand, during his pleasure, as Chairman of the Board, and six persons, two each to be appointed by the Council of the Royal Society of New Zealand, the Vice-Chancellors Committee of the New Zealand Universities, and the National Research Advisory Council. The President of the Royal Society, as one of the Council's appointees, shall be Deputy Chairman of the Selection Board.

11. The Selection Board shall:

12. The Council shall receive the fellow's reports of his activities during his tenure of the fellowship and shall transmit them to the Selection Board with any comments it thinks fit.

13. The maximum payments that may be made to fellows are:

15. A grant for special equipment and facilities required by the fellow solely for his research project shall be made available, but the amount of the grant shall not exceed one-seventh of the emolument payable during the term of the fellowship. The Selection Board and the Council in determining the amount of the grant will take cognisance of the anticipated travel and accommodation expenses to be incurred by the fellow whilst pursuing his research project (clause 13d). Normally the equipment purchased from the grant shall remain the property of the host institution but, in special circumstances, by prior arrangement, may become the property of the fellow.

16. The fellowship shall be awarded on the following conditions:
