The "normal" refers to the present site of the instruments. The standard periods for normals are: for temperature 1931-60, for rainfall 1921-50, and for sunshine 1935-60. No normals are available for stations with only short records.

*The sunshine recorder is not located at the station but is in the near vicinity.

NOTES ON THE WEATHER FOR APRIL 1970

General—April was dry and warm. In many districts nearly all the rain fell in the first 4 days and on the 30th, and there was little or no rain from 5 to 29 April. Although stock were mainly in good condition, growth was poor, and more rain would have been appreciated. Scattered outbreaks of facial eczema were reported throughout the North Island.

Rainfall—Rainfall was below normal except over the Southland plain and on parts of the Kaikoura coast. It was less than half the normal value in most of Otago and Canterbury; in Taumarunui and Taupo, with parts of inland Hawke's Bay; and in central Marlborough. The greatest deficiency was recorded in inland Canterbury and parts of Central Otago, with less than a quarter of the normal rainfall. Ophir, in Central Otago, received no appreciable rain at all.

Temperatures—Temperatures were above normal, mainly by 2 degrees.

Sunshine—Northland, Gisborne and Hawke's Bay, Central Otago, and the Mackenzie Country of inland Canterbury were favoured with 30-50 hours more sunshine than normal. The only station which received sunshine considerably less than normal was Westport, with a deficiency of 36 hours.

Weather Sequence—At the beginning of April a trough of low pressure extended from a depression near Lord Howe Island across the North Island to a second depression to the east of Campbell Island. This trough moved only slowly over the North Island during the first 4 days, with fairly general rain, very light in some eastern districts. A small depression crossed the North Island on the 3rd.

From the 5th to the 17th westerly weather predominated, with little rain except on the West Coast and the Southland coast. From the 5th to the 7th an anticyclone was centred over south-eastern Australia, and a depression passed to the south of New Zealand while the associated trough of low pressure crossed the country. During the next 2 days conditions remained similar, but the trough of low pressure on this occasion also brought some rain to western, central, and northern districts of the North Island. The 10th and 11th were days of south-westerlies with scattered showers. Further westerly troughs crossed the country from the 12th to the 14th, with light rain extending to parts of the North Island again on the 13th. By now the anticyclone covered eastern Australia and the Tasman Sea and showers continued on the West Coast and the Southland coast during the next 2 days. However, on the 17th the rain cleared on the West Coast.

During the 18th and 19th yet another trough of low pressure moved northward over the country, this time bringing a change to southerlies. Rain affected not only, as previously, the West Coast and the Southland coast, but also the remainder of Otago and Southland and many east coast districts of both Islands. For the next 4 days the anticyclone advanced towards the North Island and across it. A few showers were reported at first, especially on the Southland and Otago coasts. By the 24th the anticyclone was centred far to the east of the North Island. A depression over the South Tasman Sea moved across the South Island on this and the following day, causing rain again on the West Coast and the Southland coast, besides some light falls about Cook Strait and in north Taranaki. West-south-westerlies predominated on the 26th, with scattered showers in a few areas, notably Fiordland, Buller, and Nelson, an area extending from Wanganui past Ruapehu to Napier and Wairoa, and also parts of Northland. On the following day a small depression crossed the North Island, bringing rain to many parts of it, while a westerly trough brought the usual weather to the West Coast and the Southland coast. On the 28th a ridge of high pressure covered the country and the weather was mainly fine.

During the last 2 days of the month a depression from the central Tasman Sea moved towards the North Island. Rain commenced first in Northland and some southern and eastern districts, later extending to nearly the whole of the North Island, besides northern and eastern districts of the South Island.

CHARITABLE TRUST ACT 1957

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF SCHEME

NOTICE is hereby given that the trustees of the St. Paul's Wellington Rebuilding Fund Trust Board have filed in the office of the Supreme Court at Wellington an application for approval of a scheme to allow the trustees to apply the trust fund towards erecting and completing the cathedral church of St. Paul's and prescribing or varying the mode of administration of the trust. At present an undefinable proportion of the trust fund is held under the terms of the will of the late David Anderson, which will restricts the sum of $5,000.00 bequeathed to the Trust Board to be used for the erection of a parish church on the Mulgrave Street site now known as "Old Saint Paul's". The scheme would modify this by permitting the fund to be used for the completion of the cathedral on the Molesworth Street site.

Copies of the scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected free of charge at the office of the Supreme Court in Wellington. The date proposed for the hearing of the application is the 10th day of July 1970. Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, to the trustees, and to the Attorney-General not less than seven clear days before that date.

WYBRANTS OLPHERT, Solicitor for the Trustees.

Address for service: offices of Messrs Olphert and Bornholdt, 39 Johnston Street, Wellington.

NOTICE OF PRIVATE BILL

THE AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND BANKING GROUP BILL

AUSTRALIA and New Zealand Bank Limited hereby gives notice that it intends to apply for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Private Bill during the present session of Parliament.

The object of the Bill is to supplement the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Act 1970 of the Parliament of the United Kingdom by making the transfer of the undertaking of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited fully effective in New Zealand.

The said Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom deals with the merger of the undertakings of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited and The English, Scottish and Australian Bank, Limited, which is to be accomplished by the transfer of those undertakings to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. Legislation is the only means by which the transfer can be effected efficiently and economically, and without interference with the conduct and continuity of the business of banking; but the said Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom is not wholly effectual in achieving its objects in New Zealand because the transfer of certain assets is governed by the law of New Zealand.

The Bill now being promoted is designed to transfer the undertaking in New Zealand of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. (The English, Scottish and Australian Bank, Limited does not carry on business in New Zealand.)

On a day to be appointed, all the assets, liabilities, and obligations (except certain excluded assets) of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited will become assets, liabilities, and obligations of Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. Customers of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited will have the same relationship with Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited as they had with Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited.

The promoter of the Bill is Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited.

Communications or notices to the promoter may be sent to Messrs Bell, Gully, and Co., Solicitors, 104 Featherston Street, Wellington (P.O. Box 1291).

A copy of the Bill may be inspected at the offices of Messrs Bell, Gully and Co., at the address stated, during normal office hours on any weekday other than Saturday.

BELL, GULLY, AND CO., Solicitors.
