Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 205

IN the matter of The Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Sex Manners for Advanced Lovers by Robert Chartham, published by the New English Library Ltd., Barnard's Inn, London.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THERE was no appearance on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made to the Tribunal.

The curious word "Manners" in the title of a manual of instruction on erotic techniques not commonly practised may be noted with uncritical semantic interest; but the author's honesty of purpose comes into question for other reasons. It is claimed the author deals with "new forms of erotic behaviour", but this titillating claim is not in fact substantiated. The author may not be blame-worthy; but if he is not, his publishers are. Also the author's qualifications are summarily described as those of a "marriage counsellor", but no academic or institutional authority for the use of this title is mentioned. Second, the treatment and style of this manual are not consonant with its purported scientific purpose. The treatment is emotionally directed; the style is loose, slick, and sentimentally tendentious. Third and finally, the jacket carries a picture that sustains the first critical objection stated above. There is room for books on this subject but for the reasons stated above the Tribunal decides this book to be indecent.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 206-219

IN the matter of The Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of 14 paper backs enumerated below.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THE Tribunal has been called upon to consider an application made by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of 14 books enumerated below—for a decision regarding each whether it is indecent or for a decision as to its classification.

The books submitted are:

1. The Sex Framer, by Stacey Clubb.
2. The Colour of Love, By Kevin McLeod.
3. A Girl Must be Loved, by G. G. Fickling.
4. His Private Pleasure, by Joseph Hilton Smyth.
5. The Murky Underground, by Sylvia Sharon.
6. The Man Who Played with Dolls, by Paul Clay.
7. Nurses Wild, by Florence Stonebreaker.
8. Chris, by Randy Salem.
9. The Exhibitionist, by Lillian Preston.
10. One Hot Winter, by Dixie Chappell.
11. Liz, by Frank Kane.
12. Community of Women, by Sheldon Lord.
13. The Overnighters, by Brian Black.
14. Many Men for Rosetta, by Karol Thomas.

There was no appearance on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made to the Tribunal.

These 14 second-rate paper backs, all issued by the Softcover Library, London, rely on sex, perversion, crime, or violence as themes. In the first four these themes are handled in a realistic fashion, with some pretence of plot, setting, and credible motivation. There are no grounds in the statute for judging such books, however poor in quality, to be indecent. The next six however, there is no story but only a repetition of incidents and no characters, but merely perpetrators of perverted, violent, or criminal acts. To make such obsession appear admirable or even normal could do harm to persons of limited experience and we classify these books as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age. In the remaining four the obsession is unrelieved and the books are nothing more than vicious and crude in the extreme and we decide them to be indecent.

The Tribunal notes that several books in the series exhibit a certain dishonesty in presentation, being described as "fully illustrated throughout", when in fact the illustrations consist of a central insert of six or eight photographs of nudes and semi-nudes quite irrelevant to the text.

The Sex Framer

Sex relations and problems diversify a novel which develops the unusual theme of the recovery of a lost work of art and the rise to celebrity of a young artist. We do not think it is indecent.

The Colour of Love

This is a sentimental story of a young man's successive love affairs with negro, white, and Chinese girls. It is harmless.

A Girl Must be Loved

This rather silly romantic story exhibits some emphasis on sex but not excessively or offensively.

His Private Pleasure

An unusual book, because it suggests how researches into sex mores may be promoted and conducted. Such research provides the theme of this book, but its treatment of its copious sexual episodes is not such as to justify any restriction.

The Murky Underground

This story pursues the sexual trials of a girl who ends happily in the arms of a faithful lover. The treatment is sexually obsessed but the Tribunal is of the opinion that the book does not warrant complete exclusion.

The Man Who Played with Dolls

This is a story of sex and big business and its rivalries, carried not very objectionably to the point when the previously triumphant man of affairs in both senses is knocked out by his chief engineer and successor, but its sexual content is morbidly emphasised.

Nurses Wild

This novel about sex problems and professional rivalry in a hospital staff and outside is so over-wrought in sexual emphasis as to make it unsuitable for young readers.

Chris

The heroine of this story is divided in lesbian relations with two very different girls and in different ways. Events take her to the rupture of both relations and to a crisis in her professional career. The theme and its development make the book undesirable for young readers.

The Exhibitionist

This is a rather stupid novel about a man who turned from his affair with a girl who strip-teased in his room and went from that to his falling in love with another girl, whom he watched with binoculars as she performed before the windows across the court. Because the theme and treatment are somewhat unwholesome an age restriction on its distribution is warranted.

One Hot Winter

The plot and development of this story of sex and crime are so toned as to justify a restriction on its distribution.

Liz

In this story an unscrupulous career girl, advancing from solo crime to gang leadership, uses sex all the way. The treatment of sex and violence is of such nature as to be injurious to the public good.

Community of Women

The tone and emphasis of this novel about the drift of idle women into sex diversions, normal or deviant, make it more than objectionable.

The Overnighters

The crude and pervasive emphasis on sex in this novel is varied only by its emphasis on profits but not redeemed by that.

Many Men for Rosetta

This story writes wild sex and crime, planned and callous. The treatment of both is sufficient to justify the conclusion that its distribution would be injurious to the public good.

The Tribunal accordingly decides that the first four listed above are not indecent, the next six are decided to be indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age, and the remaining four are decided to be indecent.

NOTICE OF PRIVATE BILL

THE AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND BANKING GROUP BILL

AUSTRALIA and New Zealand Bank Limited hereby gives notice that it intends to apply for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Private Bill during the present session of Parliament.

The object of the Bill is to supplement the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Act 1970 of the Parliament of the United Kingdom by making the transfer of the undertaking of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited fully effective in New Zealand.

The said Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom deals with the merger of the undertakings of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited and The English, Scottish and Australian Bank, Limited, which is to be accomplished by the transfer of those undertakings to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. Legislation is the only means by which the transfer can be effected efficiently and economically, and without interference with the conduct and continuity of the business of banking; but the said Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom is not wholly effectual in achieving its objects in New Zealand because the transfer of certain assets is governed by the law of New Zealand.

The Bill now being promoted is designed to transfer the undertaking in New Zealand of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited to Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. (The English, Scottish and Australian Bank, Limited does not carry on business in New Zealand.)

On a day to be appointed, all the assets, liabilities, and obligations (except certain excluded assets) of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited will become assets, liabilities, and obligations of Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited. Customers of Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited will have the same relationship with Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited as they had with Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited.

The promoter of the Bill is Australia and New Zealand Bank Limited.

Communications or notices to the promoter may be sent to Messrs Bell, Gully, and Co., Solicitors, 104 Featherston Street, Wellington (P.O. Box 1291).

A copy of the Bill may be inspected at the offices of Messrs Bell, Gully and Co., at the address stated, during normal office hours on any weekday other than Saturday.

BELL, GULLY, AND CO., Solicitors.
