PURSUANT to the Dairy Board Act 1961, the New Zealand Dairy Board has fixed the prices to be paid for all cheese manufactured from milk or cream delivered to a dairy factory in the season commencing on the 1st day of June 1970 and acquired by the New Zealand Dairy Board, pursuant to Part II, of the said Act, at the several prices and upon the terms, stipulations, and conditions following, that is to say:

1. In the case of New Zealand rindless cheddar cheese-60 lb to which is assigned one or other of the following respective grades and which is allotted points in grading within the range of the following respective grade points under the said regulations—

- (a) For "Finest" grade, 94 points or over, the price of 18.74c per pound;
- (b) For "Finest" grade, 93 points or over but under 94 points, the price of 18.54c per pound;
- (c) For "First" grade, 92 points or over but under 93 points, the basic price of 17.69c per pound;
- (d) For "First" grade, 91 points or over but under 92 points, the price of 17.49c per pound;
- (e) For "Graded", 88 points or over but under 91 points, the price of 16.64c per pound;
- (f) For "Seconds", 80 points or over but under 88 points, the price of 14.59c per pound.

2. In the appropriate cases the following amounts shall be added to or deducted from the prices fixed in paragraph 1 hereof where cheese has been classified by the Department of Agriculture in respect of cheese sediment test:

- Classification A—an addition of 0.10c per pound;
- Classification B—no alteration;
- Classification C—a deduction of 0.05c per pound;
- Classification D—a deduction of 0.10c per pound.

3. Cheese shall be packed in fibreboard cartons each containing a net weight of 60 lb 3 oz of actual cheese, excluding wrapping.

4. In computing the weight of rindless cheese for which payment is to be made by the Board, the weight of all cheese comprised in any consignment submitted for grading under the said regulations shall be ascertained as follows:

- (a) Each carton of cheese containing a net weight of 60 lb 3 oz of actual cheese, excluding wrapping, shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be computed at 60 lb;
- (b) The weight of all cheese in any such consignment shall be determined on the basis of the weight as ascertained by the grader of the several cartons selected by him for weighing and set out in the grader's certificate issued in respect of that consignment, and the cartons of cheese so weighed shall be taken as fixing the average weight for the whole quantity of cheese comprised in such certificate, overweights being averaged with underweights in each such certificate in relation to the prescribed weight of 60 lb 3 oz per carton;
- (c) If the average weight, ascertained as aforesaid, of the cheese comprised in any grader's certificate be less than 60 lb 3 oz per carton, such deficiency shall be deducted from a weight of 60 lb per carton for the purpose of computing payment therefor;
- (d) If the average weight, ascertained as aforesaid, of the cheese comprised in any grader's certificate exceeds the prescribed weight of 60 lb 3 oz per carton, then the amount of such excess shall not be taken into account for the purpose of computing payment therefor.

5. The prices fixed by the Board shall not be paid for any cheese manufactured otherwise than in compliance with the said regulations.

6. The price to be paid by the Board for any cheese which, with the approval or at the request of the Board, is manufactured, prepared, or packed in special containers, or in special quantities, or otherwise in any special manner, shall be the appropriate price payable for that cheese as hereinbefore provided, adjusted by such appropriate addition or reduction as corresponds with the additional costs or the reduced costs incurred in such special manufacture, preparation, or packing. Any such approval or request of the Board may include a stipulation limiting the additional cost to be incurred and may dispense with the requirements of paragraphs 3 and 4 hereof, and, in that event, payment shall be made for the actual net weight of the cheese exported. The adjustment to prices referred to in this paragraph shall be computed by the Board and the computation of the Board shall be final.

7. The prices set out in paragraph 1, Gazette notice No. 39, 2 July 1970, p. 1156, are amended accordingly.

PURSUANT to the Control of Prices Act 1947, I, Clifford Ernest Beard, pursuant to a delegation from the Secretary of Industries and Commerce acting under a delegation from the Price Tribunal, hereby make the following price order:

1. This order may be cited as Price Order No. 2150 and shall come into force on the 4th day of December 1970.

2. (1) Price Order No. 2121* is hereby revoked.

(2) The revocation of the said order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this order.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

3. This order applies with respect to sales by way of retail of all cornsacks other than secondhand cornsacks sold in New Zealand.

FIXING MAXIMUM RETAIL PRICES OF CORNSACKS TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

4. (1) The maximum retail price that may be charged or received for any cornsacks to which this order applies shall be determined as follows:

(a) When sold "ex wharf" at Auckland, Napier, Wellington, Lyttelton, Timaru, Dunedin, or Bluff: For 46-in. by 23-in. cornsacks, $3.25 per ten; for 48-in. by 26½-in. cornsacks, $3.72 per ten.

(b) When sold "ex store" at Auckland, Napier, Wellington, Lyttelton, Timaru, Dunedin, or Bluff: For 46-in. by 23-in. cornsacks, $3.33 per ten; for 48-in. by 26½-in. cornsacks, $3.81 per ten.

(c) When sold by a retailer carrying on business elsewhere than at Auckland, Napier, Wellington, Lyttelton, Timaru, Dunedin, or Bluff, the maximum price shall be the appropriate price fixed by paragraph (b) hereof, increased by the appropriate proportion of the freight charges incurred by the retailer in obtaining delivery from such one of the said places as is most convenient of access to his store; provided that, where any cornsacks to which this paragraph applies are obtained by the retailer elsewhere than from such one of the said places that is most convenient of access to his store, the increase authorised by this paragraph shall not exceed the appropriate proportion of the freight charges that would have been incurred by the retailer if the cornsacks had been obtained from that place and if delivery had been effected by the holder of a goods-service licence under the Transport Act 1962 at authorised rates.

(2) The maximum prices fixed by the last preceding sub-clause are fixed as for delivery f.o.r. or f.o.b. as the case may require.

(3) Where any cornsacks are delivered by a retailer otherwise than f.o.r. or f.o.b., the price that may be charged by the retailer shall be the appropriate price in terms of the foregoing provisions of this clause, increased by the amount of the freight charges incurred by him in effecting delivery, and then reduced by the amount of those charges that would have been incurred by him if he had delivered the cornsacks f.o.r. or f.o.b., as aforesaid.

(4) Any freight charges imposed by a retailer pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this clause shall be shown separately on the appropriate invoice.

PROVISION FOR SPECIAL PRICES WHERE EXTRAORDINARY CHARGES INCURRED

5. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this order and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any retailer, may authorise special maximum prices for any cornsacks to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or, for any reason, extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of cornsacks, or may relate generally to all cornsacks to which this order applies sold by the retailer while the approval remains in force.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 220

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Oh! Calcutta!, by Kenneth Tynan, published by Grove Press Incorporated, New York.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THERE was no appearance on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made to the Tribunal.

Oh! Calcutta! is introduced as an entertainment with music, devised by Kenneth Tynan, directed by Jacques Levy. The document before the Tribunal is the third printing of an edition copyright in 1969 by Grove Press Inc. It is stated that the premiere of Oh! Calcutta! was at the Eden Theatre in New York City on June 17 1969, after 39 preview performances. The edition before us is illustrated with photographs by Friedman-Abeles from the New York production. On the front cover a painting by Clovis Trouille is reproduced.

Briefly, the book is the libretto of the series of dramatic sketches which make up the stage performance known as Oh! Calcutta! which has achieved considerable notoriety as one of the first modern dramatic performances featuring complete nudity of the actors.

We are agreed that the work is a minor one of no particular intrinsic merit. It is amusing and shocking rather than unhealthy, but we have had to consider whether its light-hearted treatment is a manifestation of simple natural exuberance or of a disposition to debase and "trivialise" sex. In arriving at our respective conclusions we have been able to accept accounts of the performance which suggest that in the stage context, with skilful lighting and appropriate music, and played rapidly, the impact of this work could well be quite different from that made by this illustrated printed script. We are, however, neither required nor empowered to make any classification of the performance as a whole, nor do we believe that our judgment in the matter of the particular script before us is, in fact, a prejudgment of any production of the review.

In its final decision the Tribunal finds itself divided. The majority, consisting of the Deputy Chairman, Mrs Cochran, and Mr Johnston is of the opinion that this book is indecent within the meaning of the Act. They consider that contemporary New Zealand standards would not authorise the publication of this particular script combined with the particular illustrations of stage nudity which, as still pictures, make up a reasonably large part of the book: publication, they feel, would not be in the public interest.

The Deputy Chairman, Mrs Cochran, and Mr Johnston are of the view that both text and illustrations contribute to the effect the work as a whole gives of being pruriently self-conscious about its sexual explicitness. This is most apparent in the final sketch of the revue as staged. This sketch is described as "a reflection of the attitudes the actors had about auditioning for Oh! Calcutta!; about the rumors which were everywhere about what was going to be done in the show; and, in a capsule version, what the process of working on the show was like." Whatever the effect of this particular sketch on the stage, the text is, in places, offensively crude, and, because the revue has become its own subject, devoid of any sufficiently justifying context. The illustrations taken together seem partly to be intended to give the book its own notoriety as the record of a notorious theatrical occasion. Some of the sketches have satiric and humorous qualities, but there are no reasons of artistic or literary merit to make its circulation justified under section 11 (2) of the Act. The majority notes that the opening sequence of Oh! Calcutta!, the one page Breath by Samuel Beckett, which can properly be regarded as an important addition to this author's work, has already appeared in a well-known theatre journal.

The Tribunal has stated on several occasions that it must have regard to what is currently acceptable in the community. It has also noted that the over-riding consideration in making its classifications must be the public good.

The minority, Messrs Schroder and Perry, are equally strongly of opinion that the phenomenon of this form of stage presentation is very much a matter of public interest, which has been widely served by the news media; that members of the New Zealand community who wish to inform themselves about it from an authoritative and illustrated script ought to be in a position to do so; and that the fact that the work may be performed in New Zealand at any time should only strengthen their contention that members of the public should not be denied the opportunity of exercising their own judgments. As their view does not prevail they find it unnecessary to proceed further and decide whether or not they consider an age restriction should be imposed.

The majority decision prevails and accordingly this edition of Oh! Calcutta! is classified as indecent within the meaning of the Act.

F. MCCARTHY, Deputy Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 221

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Sensuous Woman by J, published by Lyle Stuart Incorporated, New York.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THERE was no appearance on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

The Sensuous Woman offers a programme for transforming any female into a sensuous woman. Some of it is witty enough to suggest that an original satiric intention has been taken over commercially. Where it takes itself seriously the book's views of sexual behaviour may seem to many to be quite offensive. Although the dust jacket describes the experiences as those of "a woman who has completed the long trip from poor to great sex and love" there is little to indicate that the more complex intimacy of love is involved in sensual experience.

The chapter entitled "How to Drive a Man to Ecstasy" seeks to glamourise practices which are still usually regarded as perversions and, together with other material in the book, make it unsuitable reading for younger people who cannot weigh the attitudes conveyed. It is accordingly classified as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age.

F. MCCARTHY, Deputy Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 238

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of a reference to the Tribunal under section 12 (1) of the said Act by the Magistrate's Court at Wellington for a decision and report in terms of the said section in respect of the magazine Girls of the World Volume 2, No. 2.

DECISION AND REPORT

THIS magazine was referred to the Tribunal by the Magistrate's Court sitting at Wellington pursuant to section 12 (1) of the Act.

We refer to the Tribunal's decisions No. 177, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 6 November 1969, No. 72, at page 2217 and 202, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 21 May 1970, No. 29, at page 895, and we adopt the criteria laid down in those decisions and declare this magazine to be indecent within the meaning of the Act.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

No. 239

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Secretary for Justice for a decision in respect of the magazine Swingle, Volume 16, No. 1, November 1969, published by Magnum-Royal Publications, New York.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS magazine—which we note is "for adults only"—is composed entirely of photographs of more or less nude females in distorted sexual attitudes, crude sexually suggestive line drawings and "hotted up" jokes of doubtful vintage but of undoubted obscenity.

The Tribunal refers to the criteria set forth in its decisions on magazines of this type published in the New Zealand Gazette of 18 September 1969 and 28 October 1969 and classifies the magazine as indecent.

F. MCCARTHY, Deputy Chairman.

3 November 1970.

Decisions of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Nos. 222-237

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Murdoch Riley, of Wellington, company director, as agent for the publishers, for decisions in respect of the following books:

Making Love in Living Colour,
Love Positions,
Black Lust,
The Adventure of Father Silas/Flesh and Bone,
The Devil's Brand,
Mistress of Cuba,
The Cherry Dance,
Inga,
The Lure of Leather,
Flagellation,
The Song of Songs,
Friends and Lovers,
The Leather, Latex and Rubber Scene,
The Art and Science of Love Making,
The Memoirs of a Russian Princess.

DECISIONS OF THE TRIBUNAL

THE application is made by leave of the Minister of Justice. Mr Downey appeared in support of the application.

In respect of each book the Tribunal decides as follows:

Making Love in Living Colour, by Gilbert Oakley, published by Bens Books, London.

Love Positions, by Anders Jorgens, published by Canova Press, London.

Since these two books are similar in subject matter to Sexual Techniques, by Morgens Toft, the judgment of the Tribunal on this book, published in the New Zealand Gazette of 21 May 1970, might be expected to obtain in the case of these two books also. As we said in the earlier judgment, books of this kind, although over-stimulating or inciting to some, could well be helpful to many; there is nothing indecent in nudity or the sexual act unless put in wrong context or treated salaciously. We commended the tone of the Toft book and said we should not wish to see any of an inferior standard on the market.

The two books now under consideration are inferior in several ways. The first, Making Love in Living Colour, by Gilbert Oakley, shows "fifty full-page coital positions all in full (not to say lurid) colour" involving some exaggerated posturing and with little sensitivity. These photographs are accompanied by a pert text, and the whole tone of the book throws doubts on its sincerity of purpose.

In the second book, Love Positions (in briefs), by Anders Jorgens, there is no text apart from captions to the photographs, the number of which has risen to 90, and when the actors in the game wear shorts the whole thing becomes faintly ridiculous and obscene. The distinction between straight enlightenment and pornography (where people are being got at) is often a nice one. Here it is largely a matter of tone and quality; the subject deserves an honest treatment and the proliferation of cheap and shallow manuals of this kind is in our opinion not in the public interest. The Tribunal classifies these books as indecent.

Black Lust, by Jean de Villiot, emanates from Canova Press Ltd., London. It is a novel dealing with the sack of Khartoum, not entirely without merit. It features, however, necrophilia, sadism, and unusual sexual torture, and although these do not occupy a great part of the book the positive merits which the publication displays are not, in our view, sufficient to outweigh them. The theme of a woman's sexual degradation and humiliation is capable of being so treated as to make a valuable and unexceptionable book, but taking Black Lust as a whole we do not accept that this is such an exercise—indeed, it tends to exploit the theme for sensational purposes. We declare the book to be indecent.

The Tribunal is called upon to consider two books bound together as a paperback: The Adventures of Father Silas (Le Portier des Charitieux), by Beauregard do Farniente and Flesh and Bone, by Henry Crannach. These come from Holloway House Publishing Co. The first claims to be an exposure of the sexual lives of some of those dedicated to celibacy—sexual incontinence treated fictionally, not very kindly, but not notably indecently. By itself we would not have condemned it, but this volume includes also Flesh and Bone, which contains enough sexual cruelty and depravity for us to regard it as indecent. Taking this factor into account and regarding the books as one volume, we find that it is indecent within the meaning of the Act.

The Devil's Brand, is a Holloway House edition claimed to be the first complete and unexpurgated edition of an underground erotic novel better known, until an above-ground writer appropriated the title, as The Devil's Advocate. It is a carefully constructed account of a young girl's quest, through the orgies of a weekend party, for her sister who has disappeared. The detailed description of perverted sexual practices are so presented as to render the book indecent in our view. The publishers compare it to The Story of O and call it a "serious existentialist study of the swift degradation of an innocent young girl". This claim would be acceptable if the book were at a higher and more understanding level, but we find here nothing better than cynical virtuosity, and virtuosity harnessed not to a sociological or artistic objective, but rather to a sales objective. Within its genre the book is not sincere enough to be granted immunity, on grounds of public interest, from the consequences of the indecency which pervades it. We classify this book as indecent within the meaning of the Act.

The Mistress of Cuba, a paper-back book by authoress Rita Benuto. Published by Holloway House. This United States edition retails at $1.15 in New Zealand.

In this apparently fictional autobiography of a Cuban girl, who used her feminine guile to become a spy for the Cuban Government, there is little espionage but a great deal of sexual promiscuity portrayed in detail plus similar descriptions of sexual violence and deviation in a manner which in our view is injurious to the public good. In the judgment of the Tribunal it is indecent within the meaning of section 2. Nothing in sections 10 and 11 militates in its favour. It is classified as indecent.

The Cherry Dance, authoress Tami Miyoshi. A United States edition published by Holloway House Publishing Co.

This paper-back novel is the "biography" of a young Japanese daughter of a wealthy pearl merchant.

Considerations of money or morality do not deter her. She is able to indulge all her sexual whims in whatever form they may take and this she does without inhibition. The description of some malpractices in the text in our view leads us to classify it as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Inga, authoress Karen Lustig. A United States edition published by the Universal Publishing Corporation of New York.

This rather brittle novel deals with the seduction of a not unwilling young girl.

It is a time-honoured theme. The Tribunal classifies it as not indecent.

The Lure of Leather, author Desmond le Monde. Publishers K. and G. Publications (Herts.) Ltd.

This paper-back book deals with fetishism arising from the use of leather.

The plain, very matter-of-fact text is in a semi-scientific vein.

It is classified as not indecent.

Flagellation, author G. R. Scott. Published by Tallis Press. Price in New Zealand, $1.40.

This paper-back book is really a thesis on corporal punishment. The text is factual with a semi-psychological approach. The Tribunal classifies it as not indecent.

Song of Songs, "a photographers version of the Song of Solomon", by Noel Mayne. Published by Charles Skilton Ltd. Price in New Zealand, $12.

This hard-back volume is well presented. On each left hand page appears a verse from the Song of Solomon. On each right hand page there is a photograph of posed nudes (some of the hero or heroine alone, and in others of the two together), not always entirely relevant to the text, but this work is presented as a work of art—and, in our view, achieves a measure of success.

It is classified as not indecent.

Friends and Lovers, author Liz Marsh. Publishers Universal Publishing Corporation of New Zealand. The price of this U.S. edition in New Zealand is 95c.

The story in this paper-back book takes the form of an alleged confession by a wayward wife to a police inspector.

The "confession" involves a luridly detailed description of sex, wife-swapping, lesbianism, and flagellation in a manner which in our view is injurious to the public good and offends against the definition of indecency contained in section 2 of the Act.

The Tribunal classifies it as indecent.

The Leather, Latex and Rubber Scene, edited by Roger Farley-Gray. Publishers Canova Press, London.

This paper-back book commences with an introduction by Jasan Douglas "Why this book was published", which relates that the book is "to try to explain through photographs the reasons for fetishism in this direction".

The cover proclaims that the book is "a study in pictures of a sex cult and fetish with nearly 200 pages packed with photographs". It certainly is. The photographs are virtually entirely of young females in various types of harness in suggestive postures. The sparse text emphasises the fact that the purpose of the book is really not informative.

In our view taking into account those matters which the Act requires of us, we find that the work is indecent within the meaning of the Act, and we classify it as such.

The Art and Science of Love Making, author Hermann K. Wolff. Publishers Holloway House Publishing Co. Los Angeles, California.

This paper-back book is a matter-of-fact presentation of its subject matter. In view of its detailed semi-clinical approach to various sexual techniques, the Tribunal agrees with the publisher's claim that it is intended for mature men and women.

It is classified as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 16 years.

Memoirs of a Russian Princess, compiled by Katoumbah Pasha. Published by Holloway House Publishing Co., Los Angeles, California. A United States edition. Price in New Zealand is $1.15.

This paper-back book is expressed to be gleaned from the secret diary of a Princess Vavara. It is compiled, noted, and arranged by K. Pasha. This young lady was an habitue of the Courts of Catherine II and Paul I of Russia if the introduction is to be believed.

The introduction by James R. Winston, PH.D., which covers the first 69 pages of the book is excellent and gives a good historical background to the "memoirs".

The "memoirs" give a detailed description of the sexual proclivities of this young lady with a measure of violence thrown in, but they do give a picture of the social conditions of the age in Russia which they purport to portray.

After considering all those matters which the Act requires us to take into account, the Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent except in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

F. MCCARTHY, Deputy Chairman.

Tariff and Development Board Notice No. 194—Public Inquiry into Import Duties and Import Licensing Affecting Writing Ink, Printing Ink and Other Inks of Tariff Heading 32.13

1. In its interim report No. 95, arising from an inquiry concerning the proposed elimination of the margins by which the duties on certain inks when imported from Australia exceed those applicable to the same inks when imported from any other source, the Board recommended, inter alia, that the inquiry should be reopened in April 1971, with terms of reference widened to cover the questions of tariff levels and import licensing provisions in respect of all the inks of Tariff heading 32.13, as set out in the Schedule to this notice. This recommendation was accepted by Government.

2. Accordingly the Board will conduct a public inquiry in the Boardroom, First Floor, Law Society Building, 26 Waring Taylor Street, Wellington, on Tuesday, 6 April 1971, commencing at 10.30 a.m.

3. Any person who intends to tender evidence should lodge 12 copies of a typewritten statement of the evidence, to be presented under oath at the public inquiry, at the Board's office no later than Monday, 22 March 1971. In preparing this evidence the "Notes for Guidance of Witnesses" prepared by the Board may be of assistance. Copies of these notes may be obtained from the Board's office.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of December 1970.

The "normal" refers to the present site of the instruments. The standard periods for normals are: for temperature 1931-60, for rainfall 1921-50, and for sunshine 1935-60. No normals are available for stations with only short records.

*The sunshine recorder is not located at the station but is in the near vicinity.

NOTES ON THE WEATHER FOR OCTOBER 1970

General—October was the third successive month with low sunshine, and for the greater part of the country it was also the fifth successive month of comparatively warm weather. In northern districts of the North Island the lack of sun caused poor growth and low dairy production. Elsewhere the effect of weather on farming varied considerably. Conditions were too wet in some districts, such as parts of Wairarapa; and too dry in others, such as Otago and northern Hawke's Bay.

A small local tornado caused some damage on the 17th at Point England, an eastern suburb of Auckland.

Rainfall—Rainfall was below normal in the South Island except in Nelson, on the West Coast, and in southern Southland. It was also below normal in the southern half of the North Island, except in northern Wairarapa. The greater part of Canterbury and Otago besides most of Gisborne and parts of Hawke's Bay received less than half the normal value.

The only considerable area with rainfall more than 50 per cent. above normal extended from just north of Auckland City to Hokianga Harbour but did not include the east coast of Northland. In this area and in Coromandel and Bay of Plenty two-thirds of the total rainfall fell from the 27th to the 31st, in northerlies. In Bay of Plenty rainfalls for 28-31 October were as high as 11 in., with many falls of 4-7 in. on the 29th. Flooding was reported in the Whakatane River and the Kaituna River and also in parts of Northland and Coromandel.

Flooding in the Waikato River early in the month was mainly the result of heavy rain at the end of September.

Temperatures—Temperatures were above normal or close to it over the whole country. Departures exceeded 2°F (1°C) in Hawke's Bay, Gisborne, most of Bay of Plenty, and around Auckland City.

Sunshine—Sunshine was below average over the greater part of the country, mainly by 30-40 hours. Westport and Greymouth had their lowest October sunshine on record.

Weather Sequence—At the beginning of the month a depression was centred to the east and a small centre was also crossing the South Island. Rain was confined mainly to the North Island with Nelson and Marlborough. Considerable falls were reported from the central North Island. By the 2nd a depression was far to the east of East Cape, and south-easterlies brought rain to some eastern and central districts of the North Island.

During the 3rd and 4th an anticyclone was centred to the north while pressures were low to the south, and a trough of low pressure crossed the country from west to east, with rain on the West Coast and in some western districts of the North Island. Somewhat similar conditions persisted in north-westerlies on the following day. Further rain in western districts accompanied the passage of another trough on the 6th and 7th but on this occasion rain extended also to the Southern Lakes District and parts of Southland and Otago.

Pressures remained high to the north and they were also very low far to the south. During the 8th and 9th another trough of low pressure crossed the country, this time followed by south-westerlies, with scattered areas of rain. Yet another trough of low pressure affected the country during the next 2 days. It was associated with a deepening depression off the Otago coast and brought rain mainly, to coastal districts, especially in the east. On the 12th a ridge of high pressure extending from an anticyclone to the north brought fine weather.

Another trough of low pressure brought rain mainly to western districts on the 13th but a small wave depression formed on it, and on the following day rain spread to Nelson and Marlborough, and also to the greater part of the North Island. On the 15th and 16th, while this trough was still active in the north, another trough moved over the country from the west, and rain affected most of the country. Conditions improved on the next day, especially in the south, but scattered patches of rain persisted, particularly in the north and east of the North Island. Pressures remained high to the north and another trough of low pressure affected the country on the 18th and 19th. In the South Island rain was reported mainly on the West Coast but in the North Island there was a southerly change with fairly general rain over the southern half. On the 20th a ridge of high pressure extended over the country from an anticyclone to the north-west of Northland, bringing fair weather.

On the 21st and 22nd a trough of low pressure became stationary over Otago, while a depression developed over the North Tasman Sea. Rain was reported on the West Coast and in parts of Otago and Southland. The depression moved south-eastward past Southland, and the trough of low pressure crossed the remainder of the country on the 2 following days. Rain persisted on the West Coast and in Southland, extending also to Nelson and Marlborough besides some western and northern districts of the North Island. On the 25th and 26th an anti-cyclone covered the country, bringing fair weather.

The anticyclone was now centred to the east and a depression over the mid Tasman Sea remained almost stationary during the 27th and 28th. In the moist northerlies rain developed in northern and some western districts of both Islands. On the 29th a slow moving trough in the northerlies brought heavier rain to northern districts, especially Bay of Plenty, with flooding in the Whakatane river. Rain also spread over the remainder of the North Island. On the following day a depression was situated east of the South Island, while another complex depression covered the Tasman Sea. Rain persisted in the Bay of Plenty, but cleared temporarily in most other districts. However, with the advance of the complex depression over the Tasman Sea on the last day of the month rain set in once again in northern and most western districts of both Islands.
