Amendment to Rules of Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand

PURSUANT to section 11 of the Sharebrokers Act 1908, the Governor-General in Council on 18 October 1971 approved the following amendment to the Rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand:

Rule 15—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:
Election of President and Vice President

(i) At each annual meeting the committee shall elect a member to be President of the Association and another member to be Vice President of the Association. A nominee need not be a delegate. The President and the Vice President shall hold office until the conclusion of the meeting at which their successors in office are appointed.

(ii) A candidate for each of the offices of President and Vice President shall be nominated by the executive not later than 31 October in each year and each such candidate shall signify in writing his willingness to be elected. All exchanges shall be notified immediately such nominations have been made.

(iii) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph an exchange may nominate a candidate for either office. Each such candidate shall signify in writing his willingness to be elected. Nominations shall close at the office of the Association not later than 30 November in each year. Exchanges shall be notified of the names of all candidates for each position as soon as practicable after nominations have closed.

(iv) A country member shall not be counted as a member for purposes of this rule.

Rule 113A—This is deleted and replaced by the following:

(i) Unless otherwise determined by the executive transactions in all securities (other than New Zealand Government stock or local body stock) shall be officially quoted as "ex dividend", "ex interest", or "ex capital return", as the case may be on the third business day prior to and inclusive of the date of closing of transfer books, to determine those entitled to participate in the distribution.

(ii) Where a transfer of securities sold cum dividend, cum interest, or cum capital return is delivered during the 3 business days prior to and inclusive of the date of the closing of the transfer books or on any day thereafter, the selling broker shall allow for the amount of the dividend, interest, or capital return at the time of settlement.

(iii) Where a transfer of securities sold—

- (a) "Ex dividend", "ex interest", or "ex capital return"; or
 (b) "Cum dividend", "cum interest", or "cum capital return", and settlement is adjusted by the amount of the dividend, interest, or capital return involved is delivered on any of the 3 business days prior to and inclusive of the date of closing of transfer books, the transfer must be clearly endorsed by the selling broker that it is "ex" dividend, interest, or capital return as the case may be and the buyer must not lodge it with the company for registration purposes until after the date of closing of the transfer books. When such a transfer is lodged contrary to this rule, the buying broker must immediately refund the amount involved to the selling broker.

For the purpose of this rule a business day shall mean any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or any holiday which is common to all affiliated stock exchanges.

This amendment is to come into force on the first day of the month following its gazetting.

Rule 121—This rule is to be amended by adding to paragraph (iv):

Save that, unless otherwise agreed, where a buying broker requests split transfers for shares in a company which does not permit marking of transfers, scrip must be delivered to match up with each transfer at time of delivery.

Rule 122—The word "registered" in the sixteenth line of Rule 122 is to be deleted.

Rule 130—This is amended by adding at the end of the present rule:

Provided that where the committee so approves the foregoing requirements of this rule may be dispensed with.

Rule 132—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:

Right of Quotation—The right of quotation on the official list shall be granted only by the Association and upon such terms and conditions as the committee may generally or in any particular case from time to time determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing the committee may delegate to the secretary/treasurer or other officer or officers of the Association (subject to such conditions as it shall from time to time determine) a general power to grant such right of quotation in respect of any securities already listed on a recognised overseas stock exchange or in any case where an exchange has so recommended and the general requirements and conditions from time to time laid down by the committee or the executive as a condition precedent to the right of quotation on the official list have been complied with.

Rule 134—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:

Where a prospectus states that listing is being sought, no member shall act as agent in buying or selling the securities concerned until they have been listed by the Association or until exchanges have been notified that listing has been refused. Dealing in securities prior to allotment is prohibited.

Rule 137—The following paragraph is to be added:

Subject to the consent of the executive, the committee of an exchange may grant authority to members to act in a new issue with a non-member provided that the whole of the issue (except, if desired, a reasonable allocation to staff) is made available to a member or members and that the non-member does not compete in placing the issue.

Rule 137A—Consent to act.

Upon receipt of an application for consent pursuant to Rule 137 for a member to act in a flotation which he is underwriting whether wholly or in part or in conjunction with any other person the committee of the exchange shall require a report from the inspector appointed by the exchange for the purpose of the Fidelity Guarantee Fund stating whether in his opinion the obligations likely to devolve upon the member are within his financial capacity, having regard to the extent that the flotation is sub-underwritten by any person and the financial capacity of the sub-underwriters. If in the inspector's opinion obligations undertaken by the member are not within his financial capacity, the inspector shall provide a general estimate of the maximum deficiency. The costs of the inspector are to be borne by the applicant member.

New Rule 145—Regulations.

The executive may from time to time by resolution make such regulations as the executive may deem necessary or expedient for the purposes of giving full effect to these provisions as to the establishment and operation of the Fidelity Guarantee Fund including regulations providing for the inspection of the books of members and the supply by members of monthly returns of balances and other information to an inspector appointed by the committee of an exchange. Upon making by the executive of any regulations hereunder the executive shall cause a copy of the regulations to be forwarded to the secretary of each exchange and the regulations shall thereupon become binding on all members. Any breach by a member of any provisions of the regulations shall be deemed to be a breach of these rules.

New Rule 146—Fidelity Fund.

(i) In addition to any outstanding monetary contributions payable into the fidelity fund by a member under Rule 144, every member for himself and in respect of each other person for whom he is required to contribute under Rule 144 shall pay (except as provided in subclause (iii) hereof) such annual contribution being not more than $200 or less than $50 and such additional levy not exceeding $200 in any one year, as may be fixed by the executive; provided that no member shall be required in the whole period of his practice as a stockbroker to pay additional levies under this rule totalling more than $1,000 per person in respect of himself and each person for whom he is liable to contribute under Rule 144; provided also that if the further payment of $200 referred to in Rule 144 has been paid by a member for himself and in respect of each such other person for whom he is required to contribute as at 31 December 1970 under Rule 144 such member will be not liable to pay in respect of himself and each such person any contribution under this rule for the year ending 31 October 1971.

(ii) Any person becoming a member after the 1st day of January 1971 shall not be liable for the payments under Rule 144 nor shall an existing member be liable for such payments in respect of a person for whom he is liable to contribute under Rule 144 where such liability arises after the 1st day of January 1971.

(iii) If at the beginning of any year the amount of the fund, including any investments thereof and after deducting the amount of all unpaid claims and other liabilities outstanding against the fund, is not less than the executive may for the time being by resolution determine (being not less than $250,000) the amount of the annual contributions payable under paragraph (i) of this rule in respect of that year shall be such amount as the executive may determine being not more than $200 provided that nothing herein shall be construed to limit the power of the executive under paragraph (i) of this rule to fix additional levies.

(iv) No person shall be entitled to a refund of any contributions or additional levies paid by or on behalf of such person into the fund.

(v) As from 31 December 1970 a person claiming to be entitled to reimbursement from the fund shall not be entitled to receive more than $10,000 in respect of any loss suffered as a result of the acts or defaults of any one member or his firm.

(vi) The total amount payable out of the fund to meet claims (as limited by paragraph (v) of this rule) arising out of the inability of any member or his firm to meet the financial obligation of such member or his firm shall be limited to $150,000 or such other amount as may be from time to time determined only by the committee.

(vii) Subject to paragraphs (v) and (vi) the executive in its absolute discretion may determine the extent (if any) to which such claims or any of them may be paid whether in whole or in part.

Approved in Council.

P. J. BROOKS, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Authorisation of the Acclimatisation Society Game Fair

PURSUANT to the Exhibitions Act 1910, the Minister of Industries and Commerce hereby gives notice as follows:

1. In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The Act” means the Exhibitions Act 1910;

“The promoter” means the Auckland Acclimatisation Society;

“The exhibition” means a public exhibition of wildlife, flora and fauna to be conducted by the promoter at the Clevedon Polo Field, Clevedon, Auckland, from the 11th day of March to the 12th day of March 1972 (both inclusive) and to be known as the Acclimatisation Society Game Fair.

2. The exhibition is hereby authorised and declared to be an exhibition within the meaning of the Act.

3. Subject to the conditions set out in the Schedule hereto, the following provisions are hereby suspended in so far as they relate to work done or business conducted or services rendered in the said premises during the period of the exhibition, by or on behalf of the promoter, or by or on behalf of any exhibitor at the exhibition, or by any person employed in or about the exhibition, namely—such of the provisions of—

(a) The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 and all awards and industrial agreements in force thereunder;

(b) The Shops and Offices Act 1955; and

(c) The Factories Act 1946

as relate to the hours of commencing or ceasing work, or to the issue of permits, or to the payment for overtime or extended hours, or to holidays and half-holidays, or to the closing of shops.

SCHEDULE

1. Forty hours shall constitute a week's work, to be worked on 5 days of the week, and 8 hours shall constitute a day's work in or about the exhibition, and, with the exception set out in clause 2 hereof, the daily hours shall be worked consecutively.

2. No person shall be employed in or about the exhibition for more than 4 hours without an interval of at least three-quarters of an hour for a meal.

3. (a) Any person employed during any day in or about the exhibition who is employed on that day for more than 8 hours, or before the hour of 8 a.m., or after the hour of 10.30 p.m., or on any day in excess of 5 days per week (whether the excess employment is in or about the exhibition or otherwise) shall be paid for the excess employment at not less than half as much again as the ordinary rate for the first 2 hours and not less than twice the ordinary rate thereafter.

(b) Any person employed in or about the exhibition on any day that would, but for the provisions of this order, have been a whole holiday for that person by virtue of any Act, or of any award or industrial agreement, shall be paid for all work done on that day at not less than twice the ordinary rate, whether the work is performed wholly in or about the exhibition or otherwise: provided that nothing in this sub-clause shall be deemed to deprive any person of any other payment for the said holiday to which he is entitled under any Act or award or industrial agreement.

4. No male under 18 years of age and no female shall be employed in or about the exhibition after the hour of 10.30 p.m.

5. For the purposes of the enforcement of an award or industrial agreement, any provision of which has been suspended by this order, any officer of the industrial union or association concerned who is authorised in writing in that behalf by the union or association shall be entitled to interview at his place of employment any person employed in or about the exhibition under that award or industrial agreement at such time or times as may be agreed upon between the officer and the employer of that person, and for this purpose any such officer shall be entitled at any time to have access to the register of passes issued by the promoter.

6. Nothing in this notice shall be deemed to affect any provisions in an award or industrial agreement requiring workers subject to the award or industrial agreement to be members of a union.

NORMAN L. SHELTON,
Minister of Industries and Commerce.

Advance Prices for Cheese Intended for Export

PURSUANT to the Dairy Board Act 1961, the New Zealand Dairy Board has fixed the prices to be paid for all cheese manufactured from milk or cream delivered to a dairy factory in the season commencing on the 1st day of June 1971 and acquired by the New Zealand Dairy Board, pursuant to Part II of the said Act, at the several prices and upon the terms, stipulations, and conditions following, that is to say:

1. In the case of New Zealand rindless cheddar cheese—60 lb to which is assigned one or other of the following respective grades and which is allotted points in grading within the range of the following respective grade points under the said regulations—

- For "Finest" grade, 94 points or over, the price of 22.66c per pound;
- For "Finest" grade, 93 points or over but under 94 points, the price 22.46c per pound;
- For "First" grade, 92 points or over but under 93 points, the basic price of 21.61c per pound;
- For "First" grade, 91 points or over but under 92 points, the price of 21.41c per pound;
- For "Graded", 88 points or over but under 91 points, the price of 20.56c per pound;
- For "Seconds", 80 points or over but under 88 points, the price of 18.51c per pound.

2. In the appropriate cases the following amounts shall be added to or deducted from the prices fixed in paragraph 1 hereof where cheese has been classified by the Department of Agriculture in respect of cheese sediment test:

- Classification A—an addition of 0.10c per pound;
- Classification B—no alteration;
- Classification C—a deduction of 0.05c per pound;
- Classification D—a deduction of 0.10c per pound.

3. Cheese shall be packed in fibreboard cartons each containing a net weight of 60 lb 3 oz of actual cheese, excluding wrapping.

4. In computing the weight of rindless cheese for which payment is to be made by the Board, the weight of all cheese comprised in any consignment submitted for grading under the said regulations shall be ascertained as follows:

- Each carton of cheese containing a net weight of 60 lb 3 oz of actual cheese, excluding wrapping, shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be computed at 60 lb;

(b) The weight of all cheese in any such consignment shall be determined on the basis of the weight as ascertained by the grader of the several cartons selected by him for weighing and set out in the grader's certificate issued in respect of that consignment, and the cartons of cheese so weighed shall be taken as fixing the average weight for the whole quantity of cheese comprised in such certificate, overweights being averaged with underweights in each such certificate in relation to the prescribed weight of 60 lb 3 oz per carton;

(c) If the average weight, ascertained as aforesaid, of the cheese comprised in any grader's certificate be less than 60 lb 3 oz per carton, such deficiency shall be deducted from a weight of 60 lb per carton for the purpose of computing payment therefor;

(d) If the average weight, ascertained as aforesaid, of the cheese comprised in any grader's certificate exceeds the prescribed weight of 60 lb 3 oz per carton, then the amount of such excess shall not be taken into account for the purpose of computing payment therefor.

5. The prices fixed by the Board shall not be paid for any cheese manufactured otherwise than in compliance with the said regulations.

6. The price to be paid by the Board for any cheese which, with the approval or at the request of the Board, is manufactured, prepared, or packed in special containers, or in special quantities, or otherwise in any special manner, shall be the appropriate price payable for that cheese as hereinbefore provided, adjusted by such appropriate addition or reduction as corresponds with the additional costs or the reduced costs incurred in such special manufacture, preparation, or packing. Any such approval or request of the Board may include a stipulation limiting the additional cost to be incurred and may dispense with the requirements of paragraphs 3 and 4 hereof, and, in that event, payment shall be made for the actual net weight of the cheese exported. The adjustment to prices referred to in this paragraph shall be computed by the Board and the computation of the Board shall be final.

7. The prices set out in paragraph 1, Gazette notice No. 49, 1 July 1971, p. 1254, are amended accordingly.

Dated at Wellington this 14th day of October 1971.

F. L. ONION, Chairman, New Zealand Dairy Board.

No. 350

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of and application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Chopper, England's King of Angels by Peter L. Cave, published by New English Library, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

A New English Library paperback by Peter L. Cave, is a vigorous account of the struggle for power in a motorcycle gang. The uglier features of violence and sexual activity are present, and the author takes the usual licence of investing his tale with a measure of dramatic tension. Making due allowance for this we find that the picture, deplorable though it is, is not untrue. It illustrates accurately some of the regrettable features of the life of bored and lawless groups of young people in many big cities today. Its value is more sociological than literary, but it would be wrong to try to shield adults from it. We feel, however, that there are elements in the narrative which might encourage emulation.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 351

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Patterns of Incest by R. C. L. Masters, published by Ace Books, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is a paperback edition of a book first published in 1963. It presents the author's views on incest along with case studies by several other authors and extracts from two fictional portrayals of incest.

The perverted nature of much of the behaviour described and the clinical detail of the study both require a restriction that will make the book available only to those who can properly make use of it.

The Tribunal classifies the book as indecent except in the hands of persons engaged in work or research in medical, sociological, and related fields.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 352

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by John McCarthy for a decision in respect of the magazine Arcadia, No. 16.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

ONE copy of this magazine was submitted on 3 June 1970. It was mislaid and only recently found and placed before the Tribunal for its consideration.

The magazine is devoted to the relationship of women with women.

The Tribunal's decisions Nos. 157 and 158, published in the New Zealand Gazette on 18 September 1969, laid down the criteria in respect of this type of magazine. It is the view of the Tribunal that many of the photographs are objectionably suggestive and are not intended to inform or attract but rather to disturb and pervert. Parts of the text also deal with sex perversion in a manner which in the view of the Tribunal is injurious to the public good.

The Tribunal classifies this magazine as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 353

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Women Without Men by Jessica Simmons, published by Sphere Books, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS story centres around a club for lesbians. The lesbian relationships of various members are recounted in detail. However, the story is told with a certain degree of restraint but because of the specific description of lesbian activities the Tribunal is inclined to the view that it is unsuitable for young people.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 354

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazine Kingsize, Vol. 2, published by American Art Enterprises, California.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

APART from a few short stories and some snippets of sexual gossip this magazine consists entirely of photographs of models in grossly suggestive poses. Everything in the magazine's treatment of sex, in pictures and text, debases and distorts and the magazine is clearly indecent within the meaning of the Act.

The Tribunal classifies this magazine as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 355

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book In the Hands of the Inquisition by Maria Deluz, published by Canova Press Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THE lurid cover of this book matches the tone of the text. The sexual and sadistic practices described are offered for prurient savouring and the experiences of the heroine, despite the protestations about her suffering, are rendered without feeling or honest concern.

The book exploits sensational material and deals with sex and violence in a manner that violates the Act.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 356

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Quiet Days in Clichy by Henry Miller, published by Grove Press, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr P. J. Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publishers and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THE Tribunal has considered other works by Henry Miller in earlier years. This further book was written in 1940 but substantially revised before publication in 1956. It revokes with characteristic frankness and colour brief moments in Miller's life in Paris in the thirties. Its vivid reminiscence of sexual experience will offend some readers, but considering the book as a whole, and giving weight to section 11 (2) of the Act, as was done in the earlier decisions referred to, the Tribunal concludes that Quiet Days in Clichy should take its place among Miller's works that are freely available.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 357

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Laughing Woman by Hadrian Reeve, published by Audubon Books, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS novel presents a sadist's treatment of the latest of the female victims he has acquired. She turns out to be the last of his victims as well, for at the climax of the book she reverses their roles and her master drowns both in ecstasy and in his swimming pool. It emerges that she has been playing the role all along and in the final pages she is identified as a successful liquidator of "foolish males" and as the priestess of a new religion devoted to the triumph of women.

The fact that the sadist is disposed of and the presence in these final pages of the topical theme of women's liberation do nothing to offset the impression given by everything that precedes. The various bizarre tortures and fantasies are dwelt on with a relish that panders to perverted and morbid interest in sexual exploitation and violence.

The Tribunal classifies the book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 358

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazine Avant Garde, No. 14, by Ed. L. Gisszburg, published by Avant Garde Media, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is the summer 1971 issue of the magazine which is published quarterly and sold at approximately $2 per copy. As in the case of Evergreen, No. 66, which was the subject of Tribunal Decision 190, this publication is a significant expression of a school of avant-garde thought and writing in America and should be available to students of contemporary American literature. It has value also for students of sociology. It consists largely of articles of merit and interest in their own right, and displays a serious and informed concern on matters of universal relevance.

Exception on the grounds of indecency might be taken to nudity in photographs; in the case of those illustrating an article on a Manhattan community "Westbeth" the Tribunal judges these necessary to the study of such social phenomena. In the other case, where the photographs come from an Amsterdam gymnasium, they are likely to offend only those whom nudity as such always offends and this attitude is not regarded by the Tribunal as a prevailing one; here there is no prurience or perversion.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 359

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Master Baiter by Troy Conway, published by Paperback Library, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

ALTHOUGH this book is described on the cover as being an "adult novel", it would seem from the level of its writing and the sheer impossibility of much of its detail to have been composed by a sex-struck juvenile. The plot is a thin veneer to cover a series of sexual descriptions.

It has no literary pretensions, no social importance, no honest thread or thought; nor is it conceivable that anybody could benefit from reading it.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 360

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Graduate Mistress by Kenneth Gunnell, published by Luxor Press Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr P. J. Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publishers and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is a wildly improbable story of a domineering young teacher and her pupil, told with much sado-masochistic relish. There is no development of character or situation, and on the counts of literary merit, social significance and honesty of purpose this hits rock-bottom.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 361

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Sin for Breakfast by Mason Hoffenberg, published by Sphere Books Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS paperback by one of the two authors of Candy is a comic novel which relies on a quickly moving plot and an exploitation of sex. The successful attempt to be funny in an outrageous way constitutes an assault on standards of decency, but it is a lighthearted one.

We are aware that in a more open society this book might pass without much comment but we are unable, in terms of our own statute, to regard it as acceptable for some people. The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 362

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book I Accuse by Mette Ejlersen, published by Universal Tandem Publishing Co. Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is a frank, not to say frantic, exposition of how women achieve sexual satisfaction. The assertion that there is for women only one means to orgasm is open to question, and the claim that there has been no other book on the subject is, in view at least of Dr Helena Wright's publications of 20 years ago, not allowable.

But the field of inquiry is a legitimate one and the case for clitoral orgasm needs plain treatment. Any exaggeration or inaccuracies in this book are not of a kind to destroy its usefulness which could well be considerable.

The Tribunal classifies this book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

Nos. 363, 364, 365

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the books I am Curious (Yellow) by Vilgot Sjöman, Blue Movie by Andy Warhol, and Events by Fred Baker, published by Grove Press, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THESE three titles represent a comparatively new, but growing, genre of publication: the script or scenario of a film, illustrated with numerous stills taken from the film sequence. They are the first of this kind that the Tribunal has had brought before it, and it is therefore important to emphasise that the Tribunal is solely concerned with the books before it, and must judge them as such; what it says about them, and the decisions it has reached, are in no sense a judgment or commentary on the films themselves. This is stressed because the Tribunal has always been concerned to make decisions which are on the book as a whole, not on particular parts of it (as it is required to do under section 11 (1) (a) of the Act); in these cases, a large part of the contents, the illustrations, are being seen by the Tribunal out of context of the whole film from which they come.

I am Curious (Yellow) is a Swedish film made in 1966-67; it explores many aspects of life in Sweden today—political, economic, social, sexual—and clearly has an underlying serious social purpose. Sex, frankly depicted, has its place in the book, but it neither has a predominant place in the whole, nor does it appear out of context with the rest of the production seen as a vehicle of social protest. In other words, the sexual episodes have not been introduced into it gratuitously. Appended to the scenario is a long section giving extracts from the evidence given by a number of witnesses (literary and film critics, sociologists and psychologists) when the film was prosecuted on an obscenity charge in the United States in 1968.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

CHRISTCHURCH TRANSPORT BOARD

SPECIAL ORDER

Christchurch Transport Board No. 54 Development and Improvement Additional Loan 1971, $490,000

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on it by the Local Authorities Loans Act 1956, and all other powers it enabling, the Christchurch Transport Board hereby resolves by way of special order:

1. That the said Board authorises the raising of a loan of $490,000 (four hundred and ninety thousand dollars) for the purpose of meeting the additional costs of constructing administration offices and office space for letting.
2. That the term for which the said loan or any part thereof may be borrowed shall be 30 years.
3. That the rate of interest that may be paid in respect of the said loan or any part thereof shall be such as shall not produce to the lender or lenders a rate or rates exceeding 6 percent per annum.
4. That the said loan or any part thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be repaid by equal aggregate annual or half-yearly instalments extending over the term of 30 years.
5. That the payment of all such instalments shall be made in New Zealand and no such instalment shall be paid out of loan money.
6. That the security for the repayment of the said loan and the interest thereon shall be a special rate.
7. That for the purpose of providing the annual charges on a loan of $490,000, authorised to be raised by the Christchurch Transport Board, under the Local Authorities Loans Act 1956, for the purpose of meeting the additional costs of constructing administration offices and office space for letting, the said Christchurch Transport Board hereby makes a special rate of 0.00533 of a cent in the dollar upon the capital value of all rateable property in the Christchurch transport district as defined by the Christchurch Tramway District Act 1920, as amended by the Christchurch Tramway District Amendment Act 1932-33, the Christchurch Tramway District Amendment Act 1960, and the Christchurch Tramway District Amendment Act 1966, and that such special rate shall be an annual-recurring rate during the currency of the loan, being a period of 30 years or until the loan is fully paid off.
8. That the said Board hereby directs that the said special rate be levied and collected by the Christchurch City Council, the Riccarton Borough Council, and the Waimairi, Heathcote, and Paparua County Councils respectively within their respective districts and that the said rate be payable in one sum or by instalments on the days respectively appointed by the said local authorities for the payment of rates for their respective districts.

9. That the Christchurch Transport Board hereby resolves to appropriate and pledge the said special rate of 0.00533 of a cent in the dollar to secure the repayment of the said loan and interest thereon until the loan is fully repaid.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolutions were passed at a special meeting of the Board held on 23 August 1971 and were confirmed as special orders at a meeting of the Board held on 20 September 1971.

J. F. FARDELL, General Manager.
