No. 367-368

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Secretary for Justice for a decision in respect of the books The Lure of Postures by Sha Kokken, M.D., published by Ikeda Publishing Co., Tokyo, and Helga and Bernd by Holger Benson and Thomas Bengh, published by Stephenson Verlag, Flensburg, West Germany.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. A written submission was made by Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. as representative of the publisher.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THESE books deal with the technique of sexual intercourse. They use photographs with an explanatory text. They clearly fall into the category described in Decision 200 on the Morgens Toft version of this theme, and in Decision 339 on The Pictorial Guide by Schwenda and Leucher, in that they are serious, dignified, and beautiful in treatment.

Because one element in the rejection by the Tribunal of cruder books on this subject was the fact that the couple in the photographs wore bikinis (Decision 223), it is perhaps necessary to comment further. In both the books now under consideration the two people wear ballet tights. In the case of the German publication this stylises the positions in a way which we think unobjectionable. In the Japanese book the positions are adopted by each person singly and in the manner of ballet, which gives physical and psychological detachment, and makes the costume entirely suitable if not essential; for this reason, the Tribunal considered making no restriction at all on The Lure of Postures but as its nature, purpose, and text are as sexually adult as in the other case we decide it should be classified in the same way.

The Tribunal classifies these books as indecent in the hands of persons under 16 years unless such persons are being instructed by parents or professional advisers.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

9 November 1971.

No. 369

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Black Velvet by Joseph Chadwick, published by New English Library, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is yet another novel on the theme of sex and slavery in the Southern States before the American Civil War; in this one, a Northerner who inherits a plantation comes, sees, succumbs for a while, and turns away home.

Sex and brutality have a prominent place in the book, which is not likely to have any corrupting influence on adult readers. The frank description of some of the scenes, however, leads the Tribunal to restrict the book.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 370

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The World of Sex by Henry Miller, published by Grove Press Inc., New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

IN this book the attitudes and beliefs which permeate Henry Miller's imaginative and biographical writings are given more direct expression in a series of reflections on sex and its meaning in life. The Tribunal considers that The World of Sex should be treated in the same way as the other works by Henry Miller that have been submitted and that it is not indecent.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 371

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Mile High Set by Johnny Douglas, published by New English Library, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS paperback novel is the story of a men's club for which the initiation ceremony is the making of love to a girl in an airborne aircraft. The story is absurd and the book is devoid of literary merit but the Tribunal does not consider there should be any restriction on it.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 372

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Koka Shastra by Alex Comfort, published by Tandem, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

The Koka Shastra, being the Ratirahashya of Kokkoka and other Mediaeval Indian writings on love, translated and with an introduction by Alex Comfort is a Tandem paperback edition of a work first published by George Allen and Unwin Ltd. in 1964.

Approximately half of this book consists of the first English translation of Kokkoka's 12th century Ratirahashya (secrets of Rati, wife of the love god—the Koka Shastra, or Koka's book) and various other texts. The rest of the work comprises a 30-page preface by W. G. Archer dealing with the discovery of the Ratirahashya by Sir Richard Burton's associate, F. F. Arbuthnot, and its place in Hindu erotic literature, also the translator's own 52-page introduction. Small diagrammatic illustrations of various coital positions are included: these are in no way offensive.

The texts are highly erotic but could not possibly be described as pornographic. The work could offend only persons whose minds were disturbed or persons who consider sexual congress offensive or shameful in any circumstances. The introductions are scholarly and cannot be faulted on the score of taste: the works themselves are largely poetical dissertations on romantic love in the circumstances prescribed and accepted by the society of the period. The pieces chosen reveal both wisdom and essential innocence in that society.

The Tribunal classifies this book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 373

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazine Playgirl, New Series, No. 6, published by Man Junior Magazine Pty. Ltd., Sydney.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr R. A. Heron, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publishers and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS is a fairly well established girlie magazine published in Australia. It is competently done but without any great pretension to artistic merit. While positive virtue of the magazine is slight we do not see anything about the publication which could bring it fairly within the ambit of the Act, and certainly its distribution should not constitute an offence.

Guidelines were set for this kind of publication in our classifications 93-103—the "Waverley decisions"—gazetted on 25 July 1968. These have not been altered.

The Tribunal classifies this issue of this magazine as not indecent.

Bylaw Fixing the Maximum Speed of Vehicles on No. 94 State Highway (Gore - Milford Sound) at Milford Sound

BYLAW

PURSUANT to section 13 of the National Roads Act 1953 and section 72 of the Transport Act 1962, the National Roads Board makes the following bylaw:

1. This bylaw may be cited as the National Roads Board Bylaw 1971, No. 2.
2. This bylaw shall come into force on the day after the date of its publication in the Gazette.
3. In this bylaw "vehicle" has the meaning assigned to it in the Transport Act 1962.

4. No person shall drive or take or permit to be driven or taken any vehicle upon or over No. 94 State Highway (Gore - Milford Sound) at Milford Sound from the north abutment of Wharf Creek Bridge extending generally in a southerly direction for approximately 50 chains at a speed exceeding 20 miles per hour.

5. Every person who commits an offence against this bylaw is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $100.

This bylaw was made by resolution duly passed at a meeting of the National Roads Board held in Wellington on the 18th day of August 1971.

Tariff and Development Board Notice No. 244—Inquiry Concerning Protection for Copper and Copper Alloy Nails

1. Following receipt by the Minister of Customs of a report from the Emergency Protection Authority, the Government has accepted the recommendation of the Authority that, pending inquiry and report by the Tariff and Development Board, a temporary duty equal to seven-eighths of the amount by which the f.o.b. value is less than $1.30 per lb be imposed, in addition to the duties already in force, on imports of copper and copper alloy nails from all sources except on those being the manufacture or produce of Australia. In this connection the Tariff provisions in respect of the goods in question, which prior to acceptance of the E.P.A. recommendation were as set out in Schedule A to this notice, have been temporarily amended, effective on 15 October 1971, in the manner indicated in Schedule B. At the same time the goods, which prior to acceptance of the E.P.A. recommendation were provided for in Tariff items 74.14.03 and 74.14.09, were exempted from import licensing.

2. In accordance with the provisions of the Tariff and Development Board Act, the Minister of Customs has requested the Board to inquire into and report on what form of protection, if any, is necessary in respect of copper and copper alloy nails at present temporarily classified in Tariff item 74.14.12.

3. The Board will, in accordance with its normal procedures, conduct a public hearing in the Boardroom, First Floor, Law Society Building, 26 Waring Taylor Street, Wellington, on Tuesday, 8 February 1972, commencing at 10.30 a.m.

4. Any person who intends to tender evidence should lodge, in typewritten form, 14 copies of public evidence and 12 copies of confidential evidence, to be presented under oath at the public hearing, at the Board's office no later than Friday, 21 January 1972. In preparing this evidence the "Notes for Guidance of Witnesses" prepared by the Board may be of assistance. Copies of these notes may be obtained from the Board's office.

Dated at Wellington this 16th day of November 1971.
