The Land and Income Tax Act 1954—Interest on Income Tax Paid in Advance

THE Minister of Finance has prescribed, pursuant to section 207 of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, that any subsisting company* public authority (other than either of them in the capacity of a trustee or agent) Maori authority which makes an advance payment on account of income tax on income derived in the income year ended on 31 March 1973 (or equivalent balance date) shall be entitled to interest at the rate of 4.25 percent per annum, provided the total interest so calculated amounts to 50c or more. Interest will be paid on amounts of $2 or multiples thereof.

In the case of any such advance payment made before the due date for payment of the first instalment of income tax, interest will be calculated for each complete month from and including 8 February 1973 or the date of payment whichever date is the later—

(a) on so much of the advance payment as does not exceed the amount of the first instalment of income tax, up to and including the day immediately preceding the due date for payment of that instalment;

(b) on so much of the advance payment as exceeds the amount of the first instalment of income tax payable, up to and including 6 February 1974.

In the case of any advance payment of income tax made after the due date for payment of the first instalment of income tax, interest will be calculated for each complete month from and including the date of payment up to and including 6 February 1974.

Dated at Wellington this 13th day of April 1973.

D. A. STEVENS, Commissioner of Inland Revenue.

*"Subsisting company" means a company which was incorporated before the 26th day of July 1957, but does not include a company which, by virtue of an election under section 42 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1957, has become a provisional taxpayer.
