Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. for a decision in respect of the book Erotic Art by Drs Phyllis and Eberhard Kronhausen, published in West Germany.

Mr Campbell appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This is a slight but quite elegantly produced collection of erotic art both medieval and modern. The text is in German and we were provided by the New Zealand agents for the publishers with an English translation. The text is propagandist but unobjectionable.

We do not think that this is a publication which is likely to corrupt or deprave mature readers. At the same time, some of the works illustrated depict practices which younger people might be misled into accepting as normal acceptable social behaviour. Also, taken out of context and displayed, some of the illustrations would be obscene.

The book looked at as a whole is comparable with works considered by the Tribunal in decisions 77 and 584. An age restriction is appropriate.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. V. S. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. M

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand
Invercargill Registry

IN THE MATTER of the Will of ARTHUR JAMES KINGSLAND late of Invercargill and in the matter of Charitable Trusts Act 1957 BETWEEN THE DUNEDIN DIOCESAN TRUST BOARD a board duly incorporated under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 Plaintiff and the Attorney-General in and for New Zealand Defendant

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO THE COURT FOR APPROVAL OF A SCHEME

By his last Will and testament the late Mr. Arthur James Kingsland bequeathed a certain portion of the residue of his estate to St. John's Anglican Church at Invercargill subject to an express direction that the fund should be applied towards (a) the purchase and erection of a peal of bells on or in the said St. John's Anglican Church and (b) the costs of a suitable plaque the form and design of which should be in the sole discretion of the Vestry of the said St. John's Anglican Church to be placed in an appropriate position commemorating the members of his family who had attended the said Church. As at 31st March, 1972 the total amount of the said fund with accrued interest was $15,869.00 and interest is accruing thereon at the rate of approximately $830.00 per annum.

The Vestry of the Church has concluded that it is impracticable and inexpedient to erect a peal of bells; and there are insufficient moneys in the fund to provide both a peal of bells and a suitable tower in which they might be housed.

The Vestry, through the abovenamed Plaintiff which is Trustee of the fund, has therefore applied to the Supreme Court at Invercargill pursuant to the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act, 1957, for the approval of a Scheme whereby the whole of the moneys in the fund and interest accrued thereon shall be spent on the following works on the Church building between Dee and Esk Streets in Invercargill:

- (a) The construction of a new narthex extension on the northern aspect of the Church measuring approximately 56 feet by 8 feet.
- (b) Replacement of the temporary metal cladding on the existing north gable of the Church building.
- (c) Repairs to the roof of the Church building.
- (d) Restoration of brickwork and stonework of the Church building and water proofing the same.
- (e) Repairing water stained wall areas and making good defective work in the interior of the Church building.

The Application for approval of the Scheme will be heard by the Supreme Court at Invercargill at the sitting commencing on Monday 29th October, 1973. Any person desiring to oppose the Scheme shall give written Notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Invercargill; and to the Solicitors for the Plaintiff at the address mentioned below; and to the Attorney-General prior to the 21st day of October, 1973.

Details of the proposed Scheme are available on request to the Registrar.

This Notice is given by the Plaintiff's Solicitors, Messieurs Preston, Evans, Noble & Early, P.O. Box 355, Invercargill. 1335
