Amendment to Rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand

PURSUANT to section 11 of the Sharebrokers Act 1908, the Governor-General in Council on 17 September 1973 approved the following amendments to the rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.

STOCK EXCHANGE ASSOCIATION OF NEW ZEALAND

AMENDMENTS TO RULES

Brokerage Rules 85-95

It was resolved that rules 85 to 95 inclusive be deleted and the following substituted:

Brokerage and Fees

85. Brokerage—Fixed interest securities—

(a) On Government and local body securities, whether issued or domiciled in New Zealand or overseas, and on the securities of such New Zealand corporations as the Executive may from time to time define as semi-Government corporations, rates of brokerage, calculated on nominal value, shall be—

- On the first $5,000—50 cents per $100.
- On the next $5,000—25 cents per $100.
- On the next $40,000—12 cents per $100.
- On the excess over $50,000—6 cents per $100.

(b) On the bonds, debentures, and debenture stock, whether registered or not, of companies and all other corporations, not having been defined as semi-Government under rule 85 (a) and on note issues not carrying the right of conversion into shares, the rate of brokerage calculated on nominal values shall be—

Listed—

- On the first $5,000—$1 per $100.
- On the next $5,000—50 cents per $100.
- On the excess over $10,000—25 cents per $100.

Unlisted—

The above rates plus 50 percent.

(c) If the final or advised date of maturity is within 12 months of the date of sale, brokerage shall be at half the rates specified in subclauses (a) and (b) of this rule.

(d) Where securities specified in this rule are sold and within 24 hours of the time of sale the selling broker purchases other securities specified in this rule for the same client, then brokerage at half the rate which would otherwise be chargeable may be charged on that part of the transaction (if not the whole) involving the sale of securities and the purchase of other securities of the same face value.

(e) Where securities specified in this rule are sold and within 24 hours of the time of sale the selling broker arranges a reinvestment for the same beneficial interest of any part of the proceeds of sale in other securities specified in this rule, then brokerage (on so much of the securities in respect of which the net proceeds of sale are reinvested as aforesaid) may be charged at half the rate which would otherwise be chargeable, provided that a placement commission is allowed to the broker by the issuer.

(f) The foregoing concessional rates as to quantity apply as to the total of securities specified in either subclause (a) or subclause (b) above (but not to an aggregation or substitution of securities between those subclauses) to the extent that a single instruction, given at the one time to buy or to sell on behalf of the one beneficial interest such securities (which may be of different issuers, interest rates, and/or maturities), is completed within 1 calendar month from the date of such instruction. The balance of the uncompleted order shall after 1 calendar month be deemed to be a new instruction from the date of commencement of the second and subsequent months.

(g) The rates of brokerage prescribed in the preceding section of this rule shall be charged to both buyer and seller.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sections of this rule, it shall be competent for the Executive from time to time to increase, reduce, or waive payment of rates of brokerage therein prescribed in respect of any transactions in Government or local body securities undertaken for and on behalf of the New Zealand Treasury or the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.

(i) Subject to the provisions of rule 121 (ii) and subject to the laws of the country wherein the register of securities dealt in is situated, stamp duty and transfer fees shall be paid by the purchaser. Where the transaction is for less than a marketable parcel as defined by rule 111, the buyer and/or the seller shall pay such stamp duty and fees as may be prescribed from time to time by odd lot regulations of the Association.

86. Brokerage—Shares, etc.—

(a) On listed shares, share options, convertible loan securities, or rights to new issues arising from such securities, the rates of brokerage calculated on total consideration shall be—

- On the first $10,000—2 percent.
- On the next $40,000—1½ percent.
- On the excess over $50,000—1 percent.

(b) The concessional rates in subclause (a) above shall apply only to the extent that a single instruction, given at the one time to buy or sell on behalf of the one beneficial interest securities in the one company of the same class and paid-up value, is completed within 1 calendar month from the date of such instruction. The balance of the uncompleted order shall after 1 calendar month be deemed to be a new instruction from the date of the commencement of the second and subsequent months.

(c) On securities of the types set out in subclause (a) above, which are unlisted, removed from the list, or suspended from quotation (in respect of transactions during the period of suspension) or rights of which quotation has not been authorised, the rates of brokerage shall be as prescribed in subclause (a) plus 50 percent.

(d) For the purpose of subclauses (a) and (c) above, the brokerage on rights to new issues shall be calculated—

- for the seller, on the basis of the consideration specified.
- for the buyer, on the basis of the consideration plus the amount required to convert the rights into transferable units.

(e) (i) When the total consideration involved in an order is $10 or more, and less than $100, minimum brokerage of $2 may be charged.

(ii) When the total consideration involved in an order is less than $10, then a minimum brokerage of $1 may be charged.

(iii) When more than one contract note is issued in respect of an order to which minimum brokerage applies upon any contract note after the first shall appear the statement "minimum brokerage previously charged".

(f) The rates of brokerage prescribed in the preceding section of this rule shall be charged to both buyer and seller.

(g) Subject to the provisions of rule 121 (ii) and subject to the laws of the country wherein the register of securities dealt in is situated, stamp duty and transfer fees shall be paid by the purchaser. Where the transaction is for less than a marketable parcel as defined by rule 111, the buyer and/or the seller shall pay such stamp duty and fees as may be prescribed from time to time by odd lot regulations of the Association.

87. Brokerage—Special rates—

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing rules, special brokerage rates may be charged in the following circumstances—

- (a) Charges in excess of those prescribed by rules 85 and 86 may be made according to the circumstances of the case for the negotiation of flotations (other than offers of securities made to existing holders) of securities not on the official list provided that in the case of any placement of existing securities the amount of any such excess shall with the prior consent of the local committee of the member's Exchange be paid by the vendor or issuing company concerned.
- (b) On flotation of all securities excepting bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (other than placement of existing securities), brokerage (based on the issue price or nominal value whichever is the greater) shall be payable to members lodging applications in respect of so much of such applications as is accepted at the rates prescribed by rule 86 provided that the foregoing rates may be reduced with the prior consent of the Executive.
- (c) On flotation of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock and term deposits, brokerage shall be payable to members lodging applications in respect of so much of such application as is accepted at a minimum of one percent. Provided that in respect of such securities of a maturity of two years and under, the foregoing rate may be reduced with the prior consent of the Executive.
- (d) In the case of any placement of any unlisted, issued, and allotted shares in any company brokerage may be charged as follows—

- to the vendor such rate as may be approved by the Executive in any instance.

- to the buyer the rates as prescribed in rule 86 (a) in which case the member may charge both buying and selling brokerage and stamp duty against the vendor or company whose shares are being sold.

Provided that in either of the above cases the undermentioned precedent conditions have been satisfied, namely—

- that consent to act under rule 137 has been obtained and a prospectus is issued.
- that the object of the placement is to enable a spread of shareholders to be obtained to facilitate the listing of such shares.
- that all the listing requirements of the Association have been complied with at the date of issue of such prospectus.
- that a signed application for listing of the shares in question shall have been duly made in accordance with the provisions of rule 133.

(ii) In circumstances not covered by these rules, the member involved may charge a fee as mutually arranged between the member and his client.

(iii) Of the foregoing provisions of this rule, nothing herein contained is intended to apply to the services of underwriting, organising, or advising and the fees to be charged therefor shall be a mutual arrangement to be determined between broker and client in each instance.

(iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other rule, the brokerage rate or handling fee payable to members in respect of acceptances of an offer—

(a) of conversion made to existing holders of interest bearing securities, or

(b) by the original offeree, of securities in a rights issue, shall be such rate or fee as may be negotiated in any particular instance by the member associated with the offer.

88. Forbidding Business; Higher Rates—

The Committee may by resolution notify Exchanges forbidding business on any terms by all members with a particular person, firm, or company, or in some particular share, stock, or debentures, should they deem such an action to be for the general good, or may, on the request of any Exchange, impose a higher rate of brokerage than prescribed in rules 85 and 86 on any such shares, stock, or debentures and such rate shall be binding upon members of all Exchanges in the same manner as if it formed part of those rules.

89. Dividing Commission—

No member shall divide any commission earned as a broker except with a member or with a member of a recognised Stock Exchange out of New Zealand. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to permit a member to reduce his commission to the person from whom he earns that commission, nor to prevent a member acting as an underwriter from dividing any commission received as an underwriter or sub-underwriter with any sub-underwriter whether a member or not.

90. Rate to Other Brokers—

No member shall do business for or with any broker or other person (other than a member of an exchange or a recognised Stock Exchange out of New Zealand) at net prices or at less than the rates of commission specified in these rules.

91. Forbidding Business with Brokers—

No member shall do business for or with any member of a Stock Exchange outside New Zealand who either alone or in partnership with any other person or through an agent or employee has or acquires a place of business in New Zealand or who in any way carries on business in New Zealand.

92. Introducing Business—

No rates other than those fixed in these rules shall be charged and it shall not be allowable under any circumstances whatever to pay any agent not a member of an Exchange a remuneration of any kind for introducing business.

93. Evasions—

A member may not act as a principal nor adopt any other procedure for the purpose of evading these rules.

94. Accrued Interest—

Accrued interest shall not be taken into account on the sale of Government or local body securities or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, but shall be included in the sale price.

95. Valuation Fees—

The following scale of fees shall be adopted by all members for valuation of stocks and shares—

- (i) On New Zealand Government loans $1 for every $2,000 of value or part thereof up to $20,000 and thereafter $5 for each succeeding $20,000 or part thereof. Where more than 10 issues are involved in the valuation, a further fee shall be charged at the rate of $1 for each 5 issues or part thereof in excess of the initial 10 issues.
- (ii) On listed stocks and shares $1 for each $1,000 of value or part thereof up to $20,000 and thereafter $5 for each succeeding $10,000 or part thereof. Where more than 10 issues are involved in the valuation, a further fee shall be charged at the rate of $2 for each 5 issues or part thereof in excess of the initial 10 issues.
- (iii) On New Zealand local body, listed overseas government, and all other listed bonds and debentures, $2 for each $1,000 of value or part thereof up to $20,000 and thereafter $10 for each succeeding $10,000 or part thereof.

Where more than 10 issues are involved in the valuation, a further fee shall be charged at the rate of $4 for each 5 issues or part thereof in excess of the initial 10 issues.

(iv) On unlisted securities the rates prescribed in the preceding paragraphs (ii) and (iii) plus 50 percent.

(v) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, a minimum valuation fee of $5 may be charged.

Provided the chairman of an Exchange may authorise a member of such Exchange to negotiate with his client for a greater or lesser charge should circumstances in the chairman's opinion warrant such action.

The examination of a portfolio is a service not falling within this rule and may be subject to a reasonable fee.

In cases in which a valuation includes securities of more than one of the classes (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv), the fees payable in respect of each class of security shall be calculated separately and the total fee shall be the aggregate thereof.

Marketable Parcels—Rule 111

It was resolved that rule 111 be deleted and the following substituted:

(i) To maintain a quotation at official trading periods, members offering to buy or sell shall be bound to deal in the following numbers, which shall be known as marketable parcels:

(a) Securities specified in rule 85 (a) and (b)—$200 face value.

(b) Securities specified in Rule 86 (a)—

| No. of Units | Price (Both Figures Inclusive) |
|--------------|--------------------------------|
| 1,000 | 1c-9c |
| 500 | 10c-24c |
| 200 | 25c-49c |
| 100 | 50c-$3.99 |
| 50 | $4-$9.99 |
| 20 | $10-$19.99 |
| 10 | $20-$49.99 |
| 5 | $50-$99.99 |
| 2 | $100 or over. |

Provided that in no case shall the marketable parcel of rights exceed 100 units.

A local committee shall have power to authorise a second quotation for rights on the basis of the number of rights arising from a marketable parcel of shares but such second quotation and sales shall not be made available for publication.

(ii) Failing any ruling by the Executive to the contrary, no quotation of securities shall be accepted at an official trading period—

(a) Until the issue of allotment letters or other evidence of entitlement in cases where securities are allotted pursuant to an application without any guarantee of allotment.

(b) Until the first day after applications close in the case of a rights issue.

The date of any sale made pursuant to such quotation shall, for the purpose of delivery under rule 118, be deemed to be the day on which advice is received by the Association that the register is sufficiently prepared for the marking of transfers. A transaction under this rule shall not be deemed to be a time bargain or forward sale.

(iii) Quotations naming a number or amount shall be binding on members making them to the extent of that number or amount, and members shall be bound to deal in numbers or amounts (being a marketable parcel or multiple thereof) to the extent of the number or amount first named.

(iv) Should a member be prepared to deal only in a particular number or amount (being a marketable parcel or multiple thereof), such condition shall be declared by naming the number or amount as a special number or amount. Special parcels shall not be accepted for the purpose of making quotations for publication.

(v) Offers to buy or sell without conditions shall have priority over offers naming special numbers or special amounts or other conditions; provided that a buyer or seller with conditions declaring before a buyer or seller at the same price without conditions shall take precedence in respect of a transaction or transactions on such conditions over a subsequent buyer or seller at the same price without conditions.

(vi) Where an odd lot broker has been appointed under odd lot regulations for the time being in force, any number of shares not amounting to a marketable parcel and any number of shares in excess of a marketable parcel or a multiple thereof shall be dealt with in accordance with the terms of such regulations.

(vii) The date of maturity of the security including the optional date (if any) must accompany a quotation of any security specified in rule 85 (a) or (b).

(viii) Quotations of time bargains shall not be made at an official trading meeting.

(ix) All quotations accepted at any official trading meeting shall be available for newspaper publication.

Rule 137

It was resolved that rule 137 be amended by deleting the third sentence and substituting:

Such application shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed from time to time by the Committee.

Rule 137B

It was resolved that a new rule 137B be added after rule 137A:

137B. No member shall underwrite local body loans without the consent of the Committee of his Exchange. Application for such consent shall be made in the form from time to time prescribed by the Executive.

Delivery Rules 115-120

It was resolved that rules 115 and 117-120 be deleted and the following substituted:

115. Delivery shall not be made earlier than the business day following the contract.

116. Settlement—The seller shall be entitled to require settlement for cash or marked cheque or bank cheque or through a bank, upon delivery of documents on a business day, save that a seller is not so entitled unless he delivers in accordance with these rules and before the time specified by the rules of his Exchange.

Where the buyer carries on business at a distance from the seller, the seller may draw on the buyer on sight with documents attached for presentment not earlier than the seller is entitled to deliver.

117. Default by Buyer—Rights of Seller—

(i) Where delivery has been tendered by the seller in accordance with these rules and the buyer has not paid or tendered the price in settlement, the seller may give notice to the buyer demanding settlement immediately.

(ii) Any notice as aforesaid delivered after 4 p.m. shall be deemed to be delivered upon the next business day.

(iii) In the event of the buyer failing to settle upon the day upon which such notice shall be given or deemed to be given, then upon the day next following upon which such notice is delivered or deemed to be delivered, the seller may at this option cancel the contract or without further notice to the buyer resell the subject matter thereof through the Chairman of the seller's Exchange.

(iv) Such last-mentioned Chairman may thereupon resell and after deducting expenses shall pay to the seller the proceeds, and shall certify to the loss upon resale, whereupon the buyer shall pay to the seller the amount so certified.

118. Default by Seller—Rights of Buyer—Save where the contract otherwise provides, the seller shall be deemed to have contracted to deliver not later than 1 p.m. on the tenth business day after the day of sale and in the case of securities upon an overseas register, then not later than 1 p.m. on the fifteenth business day. In each case such day is referred to in these rules as the due date. Prompt or immediate delivery shall mean delivery within 24 hours from time of sale.

119. Default by Seller—Buying in Procedure—

(i) Notice to seller—Where the seller has not tendered delivery in accordance with these rules, the buyer may at any time after 1 p.m. upon the due date or the date for completion of time bargains give notice in writing to the seller demanding delivery immediately. A copy of such notice shall be lodged with the selling broker's Exchange.

(ii) Time of Notice—Any notice as aforesaid delivered after 4 p.m. shall be deemed to be delivered upon the next business day.

(iii) Response to Notice—The selling member may forthwith upon receipt of such notice or earlier, tender in writing to the Chairman of his Exchange a statement of the reason for the non-delivery and the Chairman may at his discretion, and with the consent of the buying member which shall not be unreasonably withheld, fix a later date for due delivery. Such discretion shall not be exercised unless the non-delivery is the result of some factor which occurs subsequent to the time of sale, or which, if existing at the time of sale, could not then have been ascertained by the selling broker using due diligence.

(iv) Part Delivery—Where the selling member has part of the securities available, he may make a part delivery provided the part delivery:

- (a) is a marketable parcel; or
- (b) is such other quantity as the buying member agrees to accept; and
- (c) is accompanied by a delivery slip marked "Under Notice—Part Delivery" and sets out full details of the contract, the quantity, and amount of the part delivery and the balance of securities and the amount still outstanding; and
- (d) is made on or before the fifth business day after the giving of the notice.

(v) Notice in Succession—The selling broker may give notice in succession in terms of the foregoing paragraphs of this rule to any other broker whether or not a member of the same Exchange either as to all or as to part of the securities in the original notice, and any broker receiving such a notice in succession shall have a similar right. A notice in succession shall state the name of the broker first giving notice and shall operate as direct notice from that broker to the selling broker named in each notice in succession to the extent that a further notice in succession is not given. Every giver of a notice in succession shall forthwith send a copy of such notice to his Exchange, to the Exchange of the recipient and to the broker first giving notice.

(vi) Buying in—Where any broker receives notice and fails to give notice in succession to another broker as to all of the securities in the first notice, the Chairman of the first-named broker's Exchange may buy against such broker the securities in respect of which such broker has not given notice in succession on the sixth business day after the giving of the first notice.

(vii) Advice of delivery—Where the seller makes delivery in part or in whole before the Chairman has bought in in accordance with paragraph (vi) of this rule, he shall advise the Chairman accordingly and such advice shall be deemed to cancel the notice to the extent of the delivery made.

(viii) Penalties—A member giving, under paragraphs (v) or (vii) of this rule, notice or advice which is false in any material particular shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $200.

(ix) Delivery—When a chairman buys in in accordance with paragraph (vi) of this rule, he shall advise the ultimate buyer of such fact and upon the further advice from the Chairman that the documents concerned have been delivered the ultimate buyer will forthwith tender to the Chairman the consideration of the transaction from which the notice arose or such proportion of such transaction as is applicable and upon receipt of such consideration the Chairman will forward the appropriate documents.

(x) Settlement—Upon receipt of the moneys as aforesaid the Chairman receiving the same shall as far as they will extend use the same in adjustment of differences. For this purpose, such Chairman shall obtain and shall be entitled to demand the necessary information from any Exchange of which members are concerned in the transaction. All moneys available from time to time shall be distributed rateably to those members thereto entitled.

(xi) Deficiency—If the moneys received are deficient for this purpose the Chairman shall demand from the seller ultimately named the deficiency and to the extent to which moneys are so recovered, distribute the same to adjust the difference between brokers connected with the transaction.

(xii) Surplus—Any surplus after adjustment of differences and payment of the Chairman's expenses in connection with the transaction shall be the property of the original seller.

(xiii) Buying in Separate Lots—The Chairman purchasing securities as aforesaid may purchase in one or more lots at such time or times as he thinks fit.

(xiv) No Relief From Liability—Nothing in this rule shall relieve any member from the liability to the member with whom he has immediately contracted, save in so far as such liability is satisfied by the adjustment of differences and save as provided in paragraph (xvii) hereof.

(xv) No Delivery After Chairman Buys—If the Chairman has bought in in accordance with this rule in whole or in part, then the original seller shall not be entitled to deliver save to the extent that the chairman has not bought in.

(xvi) Time Limit—If the chairman required to buy in by this rule has not bought in at the expiration of 3 days from the date first upon which he is to buy in, the ultimate buyer may require the President of the Association to fix a cash price as the basis for settlement of the transaction. In that case the Chairman shall adjust the transaction between all parties with money demanded from the original seller in a like manner to the adjustment where such chairman actually buys in.

(xvii) Transaction Cancelled—Where the provisions of paragraph (xvi) have been invoked, the transactions shall be deemed to have been cancelled and such cancellation shall be operative as between all members in the transaction.

120. On the first business day of no more than 2 months in each calendar year, it shall be mandatory for all members to give notice in accordance with rule 119 (i) in respect to all deliveries which have been outstanding for more than 1 month. For the purpose aforesaid, the President shall nominate the month or months in each calendar year and members will be given at least 10 business days' notice of any day so fixed.
