Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Waverley Publishing Company Limited for a decision in respect of the following publication: The Summer Holiday Sex Manual by Miss Tuppy Owens and published by Robin Ray of London, England.

Date of hearing: 30 July 1975, at Wellington.

No appearance of applicant but written submissions received. Mr P. E. Leloir and Mr K. G. Murray appeared on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This book constitutes a series of photographs depicting sexual intercourse, foreplay, and oral-genitilism performed in the open air. Its title is pretentious as the book does not constitute a manual in the generally accepted sense of the word.

In decisions No. 432-435, the Tribunal set out criteria for classifying books belonging to this genre of literature. The Summer Holiday Sex Manual clearly falls into category (c). The photographs are contrived and the captions are designed to titillate and excite. The material is tastelessly and insensitively presented and no allowance is made for "elements in the relationship apart from the acrobatics".

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Waverley Publishing Company Limited for a decision in respect of the following publication: How to Satisfy All Women by Bernard Sullivan and published by Bernard Sullivan of Great Britain.

Date of hearing: 30 July 1975, at Wellington.

No appearance of applicant but written submissions received.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This book contains a fairly extensive and informative text on most aspects of human sexuality. It also includes more than seventy photographs of couples demonstrating various sexual techniques.

Taken as a whole, the text is unobjectionable. The photographs however, appear to have been chosen for their salacious appeal. Their number is excessive and very few are in accord with the informative nature of the text. Several are irrelevant. Thus the photographs would appear to have no other purpose than to boost sales.

The Tribunal regards the text as camouflage designed to render the photographs acceptable and considers this book to be lacking in honesty of purpose.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.
