No. 858

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of a reference by the Magistrate's Court, Wellington, for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Housewife Hookers, and Housewife Hookers (Part II), by Barbara Lane as exposed by Stephen Lewis; Massage Parlor, and Massage Parlor (Part II), by Jennifer Silks; and Teenage Hookers, and Male Sexual Fantasies, by Stephen Lewis; all published by Ace Books of New York.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

MESSRS L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 15 March 1976.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir, for Comptroller of Customs; Mr J. B. Stevenson, for Huyser Bookshop Ltd.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

Housewife Hookers, Housewife Hookers (Part II), Massage Parlor, Massage Parlor (Part II):

Housewife Hookers and Massage Parlor are two-part stories about two prostitutes, one of whom is a suburban housewife, and the other of whom is a massage parlor attendant.

Each book is made up of a succession of sexual encounters between prostitute and client, and each encounter is described in a manner calculated to excite prurient interest.

The books are without any social or literary merit, and are indecent within the meaning of the Act.

The Tribunal classifies these four publications as indecent.

Teenage Hookers, Male Sexual Fantasies:

The first of these two books deals with the lives of three teenage prostitutes, one of whom is a male. The second is concerned with the sexual fantasies of twenty-one males.

Adopting the case history approach, both books examine, in lurid detail, the sexual aspects of the subjects' lives. Some attempt is made at offering informed comment on the causes of teenaged prostitution and the psychological aspects of sexual fantasy, but this comment is trivial and superficial. The Tribunal doubts, therefore, the honesty of purpose of these two books.

The Tribunal classifies these two books as indecent.

Dated this 25th day of June 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 857

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Patrick Campbell, acting on behalf of Waverly Publishing Co. Ltd., for a decision in respect of the following publications:

Private Parts, published by South Australian Paperback Publishers, of Adelaide, Australia; Photographic Diary of a Fetishist, by Igmarr Cronen, and published by Colona Press Limited, of Hemel Hempstead, Herts, England; and Ronald Rabbit is a Dirty Old Man, by Laurence Block, and published by Manor Books, of New York, U.S.A.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

MESSRS L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 15 March 1976.

Appearances: No appearance of applicant, but written submissions were received and considered.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

Private Parts is a collection of posed photographs of nude, or nearly nude, women. No names of author, editor or photographer are given, but a note on the outside of the back cover states that the purpose of the book is to expose the "buried treasures" of the female body. There is no text.

Artistically the photos, all black and white, are undistinguished; many are so contrived and artificial as to seem pointless and even absurd. Coy rather than crude, they are obviously selected for their appeal to those who seek some vicarious sexual excitement. The whole conception is a tasteless one, and the overall effect to debase sex in a way that the Tribunal judges to be harmful.

Photographic Diary of a Fetishist is a collection of sixty or seventy photographs of nude women posed in various bizarre positions, ostensibly to reveal particular fetishes. The accompanying text begins with an extract from a lecture, supposedly being given about fetishism by a professor of abnormal psychology to his students, but quickly degenerates into a chronicle of sexual exploits which take place between the professor and one of his girl students. There is a vague and general connection between the photographs and the text; what they have in common is an intention to display sexual detail in a crude and often obscene way. There is no redeeming feature of naturalness or good taste in either.

Ronald Rabbit is a Dirty Old Man is a cheaply printed paperback, written in the form of a fictional correspondence to, from, and about a magazine editor who loses his job, his wife, and all his money. The story is incidental, however, as is the comic manner, to the real purpose of the book which is to explore in detail a number of sexual experiments, all crude and vulgar in the extreme.

The Tribunal classifies these three books as indecent.

Dated this 25th day of June 1976.
