No. 862

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Patrick Campbell, acting on behalf of Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. for a decision in respect of the publication Story of O, by Pauline Reage, published by Grove Press, of New York.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 14 June 1976.

Appearances: No appearances but written submissions were received from the applicant.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This is a paper-back edition of a book which was before the Tribunal in November 1967 (Decision No. 54, New Zealand Gazette, 23 November 1967). Its circulation was then restricted among professional psychiatrists.

It is now urged on us that this classification is out of date, having regard to changed classifications of other books, the distribution in other countries of a film version, favourable reviews by well known writers, and changes in the climate of public opinion.

As was said by the tribunal previously the book is in the tradition of de Sade but it is, in our view, worse and remains indecent.

The tribunal classifies this book as indecent unless its circulation is restricted to professional psychiatrists and clinical psychologists.

Dated this 23rd day of July 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 861

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of applications by Patrick Campbell, acting on behalf of Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. for decisions in respect of the publications listed below:

The Pearl, author anonymous, and My Secret Life, with introduction by G. Legman, both published by Grove Press, of New York.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 14 June 1976.

Appearances: No appearances but written submissions were received from the applicant.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

These two publications of the Victorian era have been resubmitted to the tribunal in the belief that the restrictions on their circulation, imposed by previous decisions, are either difficult of enforcement or out of keeping with changing times and standards. The earlier decisions were given in 1968 and 1969, My Secret Life being the subject of Decision No. 119, given on 11 November 1968, while Decision No. 146 on The Pearl was delivered on 28 July 1969.

My Secret Life deals with the sexual adventures of a rich Victorian by the name of Walter: these are retold in great and unrelieved detail, with no attempt at any development of either story or character. The only thing which distinguishes it from others which the tribunal has unhesitatingly found indecent in recent years is that it was written in the nineteenth rather than the twentieth century.

The Pearl is a reprint of all the 18 issues published of an "underground" journal of 1879-1880, and it again dwells unendingly on sexual episodes, whether the form is prose or verse. There is no pretence at literary merit or social importance of any contemporary kind. If either of these works were written now, rather than a century or more ago, the tribunal would have no hesitation in finding them indecent. We must, however, also consider their place in studies of the Victorian age, which might be literary or historical, sociological or psychological in character, and the need for them to be reasonably available for such purposes. We have examined again the slightly differing decisions made in 1968 and 1969 on these two books, and are of the opinion that the most satisfactory classification is that of 1968 in respect of My Secret Life. We, therefore, find that these two books are indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18 years whose professional or academic studies extend into the fields covered by them.

Dated this 28th day of July 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 863

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Norman William Laking, Acting Comptroller of Customs, for a decision in respect of the publication The Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, published by the Hogarth Guild, of Los Angeles, California.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 14 June 1976.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Acting Comptroller of Customs; Mr P. J. Downey for Seven Seas Publishing Pty. Ltd.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This edition of the Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, published by the Hogarth Guild, Los Angeles, California (for "private circulation to members of the Hogarth Guild Book Club only") created some difficulty for the tribunal. The text, a classic exposition of the techniques of achieving sexual pleasure, is also concerned with the morality and ethics of the conduct it describes. It is the work of a scholar who is a master of concise writing. However, the photographs, which form such a significant part of this edition of the work, fail to match its literary standard and range of concern. Some appear to be designed to assist the commercial exploitation of the text by means which are indecent. These lapses become a dominant effect of the book. Accordingly, though the Kama Sutra itself is not indecent, we classify this particular edition of it as indecent.

CONSERVING NEW ZEALAND HERITAGE

By P. H. C. Lucas

In 1969 Mr Lucas went on a study tour of national parks and allied areas in Canada and the United States. On his return to New Zealand he wrote this report as a suggested guideline for national parks and reserves administrators. Many of the problems experienced by older countries could be avoided by a careful study of their mistakes and with this in mind Mr Lucas has concluded each section with a summary of lessons for New Zealand. Not only of interest to the general public but also to park administrators and planners, tourist promoters, historians, and archaeologists.

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

141 p. 1975. $2.25

This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention.

Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education.

Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, at for instance, school committee and district level.

DOMINION MUSEUM MONOGRAPHS

Elsdon Best (1856–1931), who was a member of the staff of the Dominion Museum from 1911 to 1931, made a notable contribution to the study of Maori ethnology. After a lifetime of experience, including many years in close contact with the Maoris of the Urewera, he spent the last 20 years of his life writing particularly of the social customs and beliefs of the Maori people. There is still a demand for the many monographs written by Elsdon Best and the following titles have been reprinted without alteration to the original text (National Museum):

No. 2. Spiritual and Mental Concepts of the Maori.	57 p.	75

ECONOMICS OF THE NEW ZEALAND MAORIBy Raymond Firth

519 p. 1972. $7

The Maori people are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud bearing, their aristocratic spirit, their fluent oratory, and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before the organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

THE EFFECTS OF RACE AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC STATUS ON JUVENILE OFFENDING STATISTICS

31 p. 1975. $1

This report examines the extent to which the difference in European and non-European offending rates reflects variations in the socio-economic distributions of the two populations. The results indicate that, while a substantial proportion of the difference in offending rates for the two racial groups can be attributed to socio-economic factors, the larger part of this difference cannot be accounted for in this way. Both the theoretical and the practical implications of this finding are discussed. (Research Unit, Joint Committee on Young Offenders.)

EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION

52 p. 50c

Although originally written for staff training purposes in the Public Service, this booklet became popular with outside organisations as a guide to the conduct of meetings.
