Commission of Inquiry into the Discharge by the Director-General of Social Welfare and other Officers of the Department of Social Welfare of their Respective Responsibilities in Respect of a 13-year-old Niuean Boy

DENIS BLUNDELL, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

To all unto whom these presents shall come, and to:

WILLIAM JOHN MITCHELL, Esquire, of Auckland, Stipendiary Magistrate:

GREETING:

WHEREAS public concern has been expressed in relation to allegations concerning the treatment of a 13-year-old Niuean boy who was under the guardianship of the Director-General of Social Welfare: And whereas those allegations concerned in particular the authority for the administration of electroconvulsive therapy to that boy while a patient at Lake Alice Hospital: And whereas it is expedient that inquiry should be made into the manner in which the Director-General of Social Welfare and other officers of the Department of Social Welfare have discharged their respective powers, duties, and responsibilities in respect of that boy, his maternal grandmother, and his natural parents: Now, therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, Sir Edward Denis Blundell, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you, the said William John Mitchell, to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the discharge by the Director-General of Social Welfare and other officers of the Department of Social Welfare of their respective powers, duties, and responsibilities in relation to the said 13-year-old Niuean boy, his maternal grandmother, and his natural parents: And, in particular, to inquire into and report upon—

(a) The authority upon which treatment was administered to the boy by the medical authorities at Lake Alice Hospital:

(b) Any associated matters that may be thought by you to be relevant to the general objects of the inquiry:

And for better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, at such times and places as you think expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not conduct any proceedings of the inquiry in public and shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, except to me, in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you:

And it is hereby declared that you have liberty to report your proceedings and recommendations under this Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient to do so:

And using all due diligence you are required to report to me in writing under your hand not later than the 1st day of March 1977 your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 26th day of January 1977.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCENIC RESERVES OF CANTERBURY

By L. W. McCaskill

34 p., illustrated. 1974 $1.35

The Department of Lands and Survey, under the 1892 Land Act, was charged with the specific task of scenery preservation. In the following 10 years, 265 reserves of various kinds, covering an area of 31,047 hectares, were made under the 1892 Land Act. Today there are 963 scenic reserves, with a total area of 277,480 hectares, plus 55 reserves for the preservation of flora and fauna, with an area of 187,997 hectares throughout the country. The Canterbury reserves cover an area of 15,268 hectares; this book consists of information on the different scenic areas, with photographs of the various reserves within this area.

SHADOW OF THE LAND

By Ian Wards

422 p. 1968. $6

The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakarero, a Kaitiaki chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the "shadow of the land" had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the "shadow" would be the Maori portion.

The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand. The Maoris trust in the Treaty of Waitanga and their confidence that its terms would be honoured and explains it was only by accident that the Maoris were guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privileges.

It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt that there was never an attempt to govern by "moral suasion".

New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.

The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.

SUGGESTIONS FOR TEACHING READING IN INFANT CLASSES

128 p. Reprinted 1975. 75c

Teachers have long been asking for first reading books that are closely associated with New Zealand children's own experiences. The "Ready to Read" books were written to satisfy this need and when the stories were written teachers in more than 30 schools tried out the texts and made detailed reports on them. The book in its final form owes something to these reports. The "Suggestions for Teaching" book is the teachers' handbook that introduces the Ready to Read Series. With its straightforward, uncomplicated approach this handbook may give teachers renewed pleasure in their work. (Department of Education.)

TALKBACK

28 p. 1974. 45c

This report on the contributions which many thousands of New Zealanders made in discussion groups, meetings, and seminars held during the public discussion phase of the Education Development Conference. The report is designed to give an impression of the major outcomes of the discussion, not only indicating where a measure of consensus emerged, but also pointing out where people disagreed. (Educational Development Conference.)
