No. 889

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Penthouse, United Kingdom Edition, Volume 12, Nos. 1, 2, and 3 and Volume 11 No. 12.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, and Mrs L. Edmond.

Hearing: 27 September 1977.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs, Mr N. Miller for Gordon and Gotch New Zealand Ltd.

DECISION

At varying times the Tribunal has had before it copies of both the English and American editions of Penthouse. The current position in respect of the American edition is that by a decision earlier this year it is restricted to persons 18 years and over for a period of 2 years. The English edition was last considered in October 1974, when four of the issues before the Tribunal were declared to be indecent and one indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 (Decision No. 830). A large part of the content of the two editions is similar, but the Tribunal was able in a later decision (No. 881, 23 December 1976) on two issues of the American edition to draw a distinction between the two editions in these terms: "There has been a clearly discernible change in the sexual content of both editions but the American editions have had the redeeming feature of a substantial section of more serious articles and features". In subsequent decisions on the American edition the Tribunal has reiterated views earlier expressed that Penthouse remains very close to the borderline between the acceptable and the unacceptable.

The Tribunal has carefully considered the four issues of the English edition now before it, and has come to the conclusion that the earlier distinction it drew between the two editions remains valid. The balance between serious and sexual content in the American edition remains more even, and enables us, viewing it as a whole, to give it a restricted classification. This balance tilts sharply towards the sexual side in the English edition, and the Tribunal finds these four copies of Penthouse to be indecent.

Dated this 14th day of November 1977.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 887

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publications: Private, Issue 31, Publishers: David Reed and Graham Barker; Park Lane, No. 2, Publisher: Roafeld Ltd.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, and Mrs L. Edmond.

Hearing: 27 September 1977.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

These two journals have the same editor and, judging by their promotion of each other and of a third similar publication, a commercial connection as well. Both claim to be "honest products" and to deal with sex "in an extremely open way". The implication in both editorials is that the magazines exist to fight for freedom against harmful restriction in society.

However it is obvious that this is no more than camouflage for the series of long detailed and indulgent explorations of sexual encounters involving various combinations of men and women, which form the substance of both journals. The material is clearly designed to excite the prurient and there is no evidence of good taste, restraint, or integrity to redeem it from vulgarity.

The Tribunal classifies both journals as indecent.

Dated this 1st day of November 1977.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 888

Decision of the Indecent Publication Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of a reference by the Magistrate's Court, Auckland, for a decision in respect to the following publication: 201 Girls, Volume 12, No. 2.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, and Mrs L. Edmond.

Hearing: 27 September 1977.

Appearances: Mr F. X. Quin for Commissioner of Police. Written submissions from Mr O. Shirley were considered.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

In decision No. 874 (New Zealand Gazette, No. 120, November 1976, p. 2667) Issue No. 2 of Vol. 12 of 201 Girls was classified as indecent. The Tribunal can see no difference in content, style or dominant effect between issue No. 2 and issue No. 3.

The Tribunal classifies the publication as indecent.

Dated this 2nd day of November 1977.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

SHADOW OF THE LAND

By Ian Wards

422 p. 1968. $9

The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakarero, a Kaitiaki chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the "shadow of the land" had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the "shadow" would be the Maori portion.

The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand. The Maoris trust in the Treaty of Waitangi and their confidence that its terms would be honoured and explains it was only by accident that the Maoris were guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privileges.

It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt that there was never an attempt to govern by "moral suasion".

New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.

The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.
