"Mobile or Travelling Shop" means a vehicle, whether self-propelled or not, from which goods, wares, or merchandise are offered or exposed for sale, or from which goods, wares, or merchandise may be ordered (whether or not in pursuance of any invitation to call with the goods, wares, or merchandise).

"Stall" means any booth, compartment, table, vehicle, structure, or contrivance used for the purpose of distributing or selling any refreshments, newspapers, lottery tickets, textiles, hardware, or any other goods, food, or merchandise whatsoever.

7. Should the holder of any licence, granted pursuant to this bylaw, be convicted of any offence thereunder or of any offence or crime touching his character, the Board may immediately thereupon revoke such licence or suspend the same for so long as it may think fit.

8. No mobile or travelling shop shall be permitted to operate during the hours of darkness as defined in the Traffic Regulations 1956.

9. Every hawker, pedlar, keeper of a mobile or travelling shop, or stall, upon being requested so to do by any police officer, traffic officer, or duly authorised officer of the Board, and as often as so requested, shall alter the position from which he is conducting his business on any State Highway to such other part of the State Highway indicated by such officer.

SHADOW OF THE LAND

By Ian Wards

422 p. 1968. $9

The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakarero, a Kaitiā chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the "shadow of the land" had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the "shadow" would be the Maori portion.

The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand. The Maoris trust in the Treaty of Waitangi and their confidence that its terms would be honoured and explains it was only by accident that the Maoris were guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privileges.

It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt that there was never an attempt to govern by "moral suasion".

New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.

The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.
