Decision No. 909

Reference No. IND. 19/78

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect to the following publications: "Cockade" Numbers, 11, 12, and 13, published by Alphabetic Editions Ltd., London.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs L. Edmond, Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 13 December 1978.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions from Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. were considered.

Decision

These three magazines dated respectively, January, February, and March 1975, are referred to the Tribunal by the Customs Department arising out of the seizure of 500 copies of the magazines in a single importation.

They are similar to such magazines as Penhouse and Mayfair, but each has to be considered separately having regard to the various considerations set out in s. 11 of the Act. In each of them there is some serious and non-sexual material but the quantitative balance of the content of them is heavily in favour of the sexual material. The balance is to be measured not just in quantitative terms but also in qualitative terms having regard to the overall effect of the magazines.

The Tribunal notes the date of the issues and the style and presentation of the photography. The total effect of these three particular magazines falls on the acceptable side of the balance but they still require an age restriction.

The Tribunal classifies these three magazines as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of December 1978.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

Decision No. 910

Reference No. IND. 17/78

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect to the following publication: "The Pillow Book or a History of Naughty Pictures", published by Words and Pictures Ltd., United Kingdom.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 21 November 1978.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submission on behalf of Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. were considered.

Decision

"The Pillow Book", sub-titled "A History of Naughty Pictures" was first published in England in 1972 and this edition in 1974. It is a large paperback book printed on reasonably good quality paper and would probably retail at about $10.

It is made up of a text which gives a cursory account of the works of artists whose erotic drawings are reproduced and some information about the period and background of the subject. Both text and drawings appear to support the author's intention to assemble a history of a particular section of erotica. The whole effect is complex and tends to result in a reference book rather than a book to be read straight through. It is not likely that a reading of this book would be injurious to adult readers but some of the more explicit drawings are unsuitable for the young.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of December 1978.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

Decision No. 911

Reference No. IND. 14/78

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect to the following publication: "Suze", published by Suze Randall.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 21 November 1978.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Mr N. F. Miller for Gordon & Gotch. Ltd.

Decision

This book is said to be the life story of a model and photographer.

It is somewhat similar to the Happy Hooker in that there are numerous sexual encounters described in explicit detail. The book is not without literary merit but remains unsuitable for younger readers.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of December 1978.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

Decision No. 912

Reference No. IND. 15/78 and 16/78

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect to the following publications: "Rosie Dixon", "Barmad", published by Futura Publications Ltd. of London; and "Russ Tobin Uptight", published by W. H. Allen and Co. Ltd. of London.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 21 November 1978.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions from Wholesale Book Distributors were considered.

Decision

These two books are merely collections of episodes of various sexual encounters described in explicit detail. The Tribunal can see no redeeming features to balance the offensive nature of the books overall.

The Tribunal classifies these two books as indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of December 1978.

9. "The Hite Report", published by Paul Hamlyn Pty. Ltd.
10. "The Report of the U.S. Commission on Hardcore Porn", published by Baker Publishing Pty.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 21 November 1978.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs, Mr N. F. Miller for Gordon & Gotch. Ltd. Written submissions from Wholesale Book Distributors in respect of No. 9 were considered.

Decision

These 10 publications have been referred to the Tribunal, with two others which are still under consideration, by the Comptroller of Customs following a meeting arranged by the Minister of Customs in his office attended by the Comptroller of Customs, Miss P. M. Bartlett and myself as Chairman of the Tribunal. It should be made clear that my attendance was at the invitation of the Minister and I was careful to ensure that I did not peruse or enter into any discussion on any of the publications now before the Tribunal.

The Tribunal was told at the hearing that each of these publications has been in circulation in New Zealand for some little time and is obtainable from a number of shops. The Comptroller has already indicated his view of the character and classification of these publications to the importers concerned but they have not previously been before the Tribunal. The Tribunal is now asked to make a formal determination in respect of each of them.

The first four of these publications are picture books of nude females of a type which is familiar to the Tribunal as being without any feature which might redeem the crude appeal to prurience which is their predominant characteristic. The Tribunal has no hesitation in finding each of these unconditionally indecent.

Items 5, 6, and 8 deal almost exclusively with sexual matters and explicitly. They are substantially similar to other publications like "Forum" which we have accepted as having a sufficiently honest purpose and some social merit or worth. Like those publications, however, they are not suitable for unconditional distributions. An 18 year age restriction is therefore appropriate.

Item 7 while having some similarities to the last three publications lacks in our view the balance and honesty of purpose of them. The dominant effect of this publication is to emphasise the prurient aspects of the subject. It therefore falls below the contemporary standard of acceptance of the community and is to be classified as unconditionally indecent.

Items 9 and 10 are both well known publications, the first being the result of a widespread and apparently scientific investigation and the other a U.S. Federal Government enquiry. Both we consider require an 18 years age restriction. In the case of the first because the explicitness and detail of the Hite Report make it unsuitable for younger persons. In the second case because the addition of photographs, unconnected with the text of the edited report, reduces the authority of the publication and would tend to attract the younger readers for the wrong reason.

The Tribunal finds and makes its classification as follows:

- (1) As indecent:
 - Hot Girls No. 2
 - Floppers No. 7
 - Potpourri of Sex
 - Ti'n'tat No. 3
 - Open, Vol. 3, No. 1; and
- (2) As indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age:
 - The Ultimate Organism
 - Sexology
 - Guide to Sexual Growth (Forum)
 - The Hite Report
 - The Report of the U.S. Commission on Hardcore Porno.

The "normal" refers to the present site of the instruments. Standard period for normals is 1941-1970. No normals are available for stations with only short records.

*Indicates that the sunshine recorder is not located at the station but is in the near vicinity.

A rain day is a day with rainfall equal to or greater than 0.1 mm.

Where the extremes of temperature and rainfall have occurred more than once during the month, the date of the first occurrence is given.

WEATHER NOTES FOR NOVEMBER 1978

General—Pressures were appreciably above normal over the whole of New Zealand during November. Winds were mainly westerly, stronger in the south than in the north of the country. On the 26th winds gusting to 48 knots closed Invercargill Airport and caused damage to power lines, wrecked hay barns and blew in windows in the city.

Conditions were dry and sunny along the east coasts of both the North and South Islands with temperatures slightly above normal in most areas. This was the first time for 6 months that Canterbury and Otago have had below normal rainfall. Grass growth was reported to be poor in the northern half of the North Island, with ground conditions becoming extremely dry. In other areas the rainfall during the middle of the month improved growth but more rain was needed. Stock in most districts was in good condition but dairy production was down compared with previous years.

Rainfall—Rainfall was below normal over most of New Zealand apart from some districts in the North Island which had heavy falls from the 11th to 13th. Parts of Northland and Poverty Bay were below normal by 75 percent, and many areas along the east coast by more than 50 percent. In central districts of the North Island many stations reported monthly totals of between 50 and 100 percent above normal.

On the 12th a state of civil emergency was declared at Ohura (King Country), when the Mangaroa River burst its banks after heavy rainfall. It was reported that the river rose to 6 metres above normal and there was floodwater to a depth of 1½ metres throughout the town. Many homes were evacuated and stock was moved to higher ground in low lying farmland north of Ohura. Surface flooding closed the main highway from Turangi to Taupo and railway lines north of Ohura were damaged by slips. At Taumarunui more than 84 mm of rain were recorded in 24 hours on the 11th, and 129 mm from midnight on the 10th to midnight on the 12th. At Uruti nearly 270 mm were recorded in the 3 days from 9 a.m. on the 10th to 9 a.m. on the 13th. Many stations throughout the area recorded between 150 and 250 mm in this period.

Temperatures—Temperatures were above or near normal over the whole of New Zealand. In most districts of the North Island they were above by nearly ½°C and in the South Island by a greater margin. In parts of Otago they were above normal by more than 1°C. There were two warm spells during the month; from the 19th to 24th and 27th to 30th. On the 20th Dunedin Airport recorded a maximum temperature of nearly 30°C. At Christchurch Airport 31°C was recorded on the 28th, and this is the highest measured there in November since 1957.

Sunshine—Sunshine was above normal in most areas of the country. Kaitiā had 40 hours more sunshine than usual, and Kelburn (Wellington) nearly 50. Other areas had between 10 and 25 hours more sunshine than normal.

WEATHER SEQUENCE NOVEMBER 1978

The anticyclone that was centred over New Zealand at the end of October began to move slowly east, and a cold front moved onto the South Island early on the 1st but weakened as it moved northwards across the country. Heavy rain was recorded in Fiordland and parts of Westland, with light to moderate falls over most of the South Island and parts of the North Island. A small depression formed in the Tasman Sea on the 3rd and began to move towards Northland. By the 4th this depression had dissipated and a weak cold front associated with it moved quickly across the North Island bringing showers to Northland and Auckland. Temperatures were colder than normal throughout New Zealand at the beginning of the month.

On the 5th an anticyclone moved onto New Zealand from the Tasman Sea and this persisted until the afternoon of the 9th. Isolated showers were reported in some areas during this period but the weather was mainly fine over the whole country with temperatures about average. By the evening of the 9th a cold front associated with a depression passing to the south of the country moved onto the South Island. As this front moved eastwards the anticyclone weakened and also moved east away from the country. Heavy rain was reported west of the main ranges as this front crossed the country. On the 10th a complex trough of low pressure moved slowly across New Zealand, and early on the 11th a complex low pressure area with three centres developed in the Tasman Sea. As this system moved slowly east across the country very heavy rain was recorded in northern and western areas of the North Island. Falls of between 50 and 100 mm were recorded in the 24 hours to 9 a.m. on the 13th in central districts of the North Island. Moderate falls were reported over most of the northern half of the South Island during this period.

A cold front associated with a deep depression to the south of New Zealand moved onto the South Island early on the 14th, and this brought heavy rain to the West Coast and light to moderate falls to the rest of the country as it moved northwards. Parts of Fiordland and Southland recorded more than 80 mm in 24 hours. A strong westerly airflow covered the country on the 15th and 16th and minor disturbances in this flow brought showers to some areas west of the main ranges.

From the 17th to 20th an anticyclone was centred over New Zealand. Temperatures were very warm in Otago and Southland on the 19th and 20th, and warmer than usual over most of the country. Only a few isolated showers were reported in both Islands throughout this period. A depression formed on a cold front in the Tasman Sea and by the 21st was moving southeast towards Campbell Island. The cold front associated with this depression moved onto Fiordland early on the 21st. Heavy rain was recorded along the West Coast, with falls of more than 100 mm in 24 hours being reported. The anticyclone had moved eastwards by the 22nd, and a trough of low pressure moved quickly east from the Tasman Sea onto the country. Most areas west of the main ranges had some rain, the heaviest falls being in Fiordland and Westland.

Late on the 25th an anticyclone had become established over the whole of New Zealand and this persisted until the end of the month. Small disturbances in a westerly flow onto the South Island did bring some showers, but most of the country had fine weather. Temperatures were very warm in Wairarapa, Canterbury and Otago on the 28th, but slightly below normal at the end of the month.
