Decision No. 2/79

Decision of the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint by Clifford Reginald Turner pursuant to section 67 (1) (b) Warrant Holder Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (Television One):

BEFORE THE BROADCASTING TRIBUNAL

B. H. Slane (Chairman), Lionel R. Sceats, member; Janet C. Somerville, member.

DECISION

Mr Turner objected to "the deliberate focusing of TV cameras on a large Leopard Breweries sign during the televising of the final day of the world rowing championships on 5 November 1978".

He was informed by Television One that the leasing of space and the location of signs were entirely in the hands of the New Zealand Rowing Association. The sign was placed at the 500 metre stage which was a reference point, one of the most important in the whole course. At that point race commentators were required to go through the field in detail covering every boat and giving relative positions.

Mr Turner did not accept the explanation and lodged a complaint with the Tribunal. In order to understand the nature of the complaint clearly the Tribunal did view the tape.

Although for the reasons stated below the Tribunal has exercised its power not to determine the complaint it is appropriate to say that Mr Turner has misunderstood the Corporation's explanation to be that the incidents were accidental.

There is no basis for an inquiry by the Tribunal into any possibility of financial transactions between Television One, its staff, and the brewery.

The problem of placing of advertising signs in major events is one which plagues television in many parts of the world, but it does not appear to fall within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

The complaint to the Corporation is based on a breach of the rules made by the Corporation banning the brand advertising of liquor.

The definition contained in the rules and in the Broadcasting Act 1976 is as follows:

"Advertising programme means a programme or part of a programme intended to promote the interest of any person, or to promote any product or service for the commercial advantage of any person, and for which, in either case, payment is made, whether in money, or otherwise."

The Tribunal does not consider the sign constituted part of a programme. Its display was incidental to the visual reporting of the rowing races.

Furthermore it will be seen that the definition requires there to be a payment in money or otherwise for the programme. Other than a suspicion on the part of the complainant there is no information to suggest (and it is denied by the Corporation) that the Corporation was paid for this advertisement.

The Tribunal appears therefore to have no jurisdiction to deal with the complaint.

The proviso to section 67 (1) (b) reads as follows:

"Provided that the Tribunal may, if it considers that in all the circumstances of the complaint it should not be determined by the Tribunal, decline to determine it."

In the circumstances, the complaint will not be determined by the Tribunal.

Dated the 1st day of May 1979.

For the Tribunal:

B. H. SLANE, Chairman.

Exchange Rates

IN terms of section 25 (2) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964, the Reserve Bank today released outer limits for rates of exchange to be used in transactions involving the conversion of New Zealand currency into foreign currencies and foreign currencies into New Zealand currency when delivery of the foreign currency dealt in will be effected by telegraphic transfer. The following range of rates, for the main currencies used by New Zealand traders in settling foreign exchange transactions, will remain in force until replaced by a new schedule issued by the Reserve Bank. These rates do not apply to transactions for settlement after the expiration of two business days (forward transactions) or to transactions in which instruments are purchased which do not entitle the buyer to foreign currency balances in the foreign centre until the instruments have been delivered at the foreign centre. In the latter case interest at foreign centre rates may be deducted from the telegraphic transfer rate to compensate the purchaser for his loss during the transit period.
