In the Supreme Court of New Zealand
Wellington Registry

IN THE MATTER of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and IN THE MATTER of an intended application by THE SCOUT ASSOCIATION OF NEW ZEALAND, a body corporate duly incorporated under the Scout Association of New Zealand Act 1956, and having its registered office at Wellington, and THE GIRL GUIDES ASSOCIATION NEW ZEALAND (INCORPORATED), a body corporate duly incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 and having its registered office at Christchurch, for approval of a scheme altering the purpose and mode of administration of the "MOSER MEMORIAL TRUST":

PUBLIC notice is hereby given that the Scout Association of New Zealand and the Girl Guides Association New Zealand (Incorporated) have prepared a scheme under the provisions of part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 for variation of the Trust created by Alison Masters Moser late of Masterton, widow, deceased as described in a letter sent by the said Alison Masters Moser to the Reverend McLevie at Masterton and dated 2nd December 1931 in the following terms:

I have decided to give the net proceeds I receive from my late husband's insurance with the Norwich Union Insurance Company equally between the Girl Guides and the Boy Scouts. I am informed that owing to the increase in death duties of about £400 the amount will be approximately £400. I should like the money to be kept in a trust sum and the interest used for the purpose of providing guide and scout uniforms for children whose parents are not in a position to provide the children with uniforms.

The scheme provides:

1. That the Trust fund shall be administered jointly by The Scout Association of New Zealand and The Girl Guides Association New Zealand (Incorporated) hereinafter together with their respective successors and assigns referred to as "the trustees".
2. The trustees shall have all authorities, liabilities, duties, protections, powers, and rights in respect of the Trust fund as are conferred upon trustees by the Trustee Act 1956 or by another other enactment or otherwise by operation of law.
3. The trustees shall in the event of any dispute relating to the Trust fund or administration thereof refer such dispute to the President of the New Zealand Law Society for the time being.
4. The trustees shall invest the Trust fund in some investment authorised as a trustee investment under the Trustee Act 1956.
5. The trustees shall apply, in such a manner and to such an extent as they in their absolute discretion may think fit, all or any part of the income accrued or hereafter to accrue on the Trust fund, for the following purpose:
The trustees shall apply in such manner and to such an extent as they in their absolute discretion may think fit, all or any part of the income accrued or hereafter to accrue on the Trust fund on an equal share between the Scout and Girl Guide Groups in and around Masterton to assist guides and scouts of these groups with trips away from home, uniforms, camping, camping equipment, sports equipment and the like where the children would be unable to participate fully without this assistance.
6. The power of appointing new trustees of this Trust fund shall be vested in the trustees.
7. The provisions of this scheme shall come into effect as from the date of approval of this scheme by the Supreme Court.

M. No. 445/80

8. All reasonable expenses of or incidental to preparing, perusing and advertising the 'scheme' shall be paid out of and be a charge upon the fund.

The scheme has been prepared because the purpose for which the original Trust fund was established has now become superfluous and is so restrictive as to be useless.

The application for approval of the scheme is to be heard in the Supreme Court at Wellington on Wednesday, the 28th day of May 1980, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon. Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington and the Scout Association of New Zealand and the Girl Guides Association New Zealand (Incorporated) and the Attorney-General not less than 7 clear days before the said 28th day of May 1980.

The address for service of the Scout Association of New Zealand and Girl Guides Association New Zealand (Incorporated) is at the offices of Messrs Luke Cunningham and Clere, Solicitors, 166-168 Featherston Street, Wellington.

COOK COUNTY COUNCIL

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO TAKE LAND FOR QUARRYING PURPOSES

NOTICE is hereby given that the Cook County Council acting under the provisions of the Public Works Act 1928, proposes to take the land described in the Schedule hereto for quarrying purposes. The said land, known as Huanui Quarry, is situated on Huanui Station, Tauwhareparae, approximately 2 kilometres west of the junction of Huanui Road and Waimata-Hokoroa Road and approximately 6 kilometres west of the junction of the latter road and Tauwhareparae Road. The Council has been quarrying limestone metal from the land for many years by arrangement with the owners of Huanui Station but now wishes to ensure that this essential resource remains permanently available for county roading.

Notice is hereby further given that a plan of the land so required to be taken is deposited in the office of the said Council at 389 Gladstone Road, Gisborne, and is there open for inspection without fee by all persons during ordinary office hours.

All persons directly affected by the taking of such land must set forth in writing any objection they may wish to make to the taking of the land, not being an objection to the amount or payment of compensation, and send the same within 40 days after the first publication of this notice to the Planning Tribunal at Wellington.

If any objection is made in accordance with this notice a public hearing of the objection will be held unless the objector otherwise requires and each objector will be advised of the time and place of the hearing.

PLANTS IN NEW ZEALAND POISONOUS TO MANBy Jose Stewart. Revised by H. E. Connor

39 p. 1975. $2.25

This revised edition of Mrs Stewart's book, which was first published in 1964, is a handy colourful guide to the 50 or more plants in New Zealand known or suspected to be toxic to man. The plants are listed in alphabetical order by their common names and each entry has a colour photograph identifying the poisonous part of the plant. The botanical name, a general description of the plant, the toxin, and the symptoms of poisoning are also given. Plants that are toxic if eaten, and touch irritants are dealt with in separate sections. A general instruction on what to do if poisoning occurs or is suspected is featured prominently at the beginning of the book for ready access in emergency. The material in the booklet is useful, succinct, and attractively presented. Although it has wide appeal generally, it is particularly valuable to parents of the young and curious.

POLICIES FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN NEW ZEALANDEdited by G. A. Town

124 p. $3.50

In this book, the authors discuss the criteria which they feel should determine any sound policies in the field of regional planning and development. Although many different points of view are presented, there is unanimity that economic considerations alone should not dictate future policy. Essentially, it is for New Zealanders to consider all the relevant factors and decide what pattern of development they wish to see emerge. This book is intended as a constructive contribution to the public debate currently under way. Series No. 17. (New Zealand Institute of Public Administration.)

SHADOW OF THE LAND

By Ian Wards

422 p. 1968. $9

The title for this book was provided by Nopera Panakarero, a Kaitaia chief of much influence, who, in May 1840, believed that only the "shadow of the land" had gone to Queen Victoria whilst the substance remained with the Maoris. Less than a year later he revised this opinion convinced that only the "shadow" would be the Maori portion.

The author examines the British acquisition of New Zealand, the Maoris trust in the Treaty of Waitangi and their confidence that its terms would be honoured and explains it was only by accident that the Maoris were guaranteed the possession of their lands and ancient privileges.

It is under these circumstances that the book considers the use of military force in New Zealand, analyses the arguments surrounding the provision of troops and concludes that, beyond any reasonable doubt there was never an attempt to govern by "moral suasion".

New Zealand followed the normal nineteenth century British pattern of territorial acquisition.

The book is an essential introduction to the Maori wars of a later date.

SHARING SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

N.Z. COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SERVICE

88 p. 1978. $2.75
